Centenarian blocks tycoon

NASSAU, Bahamas (CP) — A court ruling is expected today on a claim by a 100 - year - old woman that has blocked a $14,000,000 real estate deal involving Swedish financier Axel Wenner-Gren.

Mrs. Roseliza Price, who celebrated her birthday Sunday, says she owns a narrow strip of land bisecting the property on nearby Hog Island.

The strip, she says, extends across the island from sea to sea.

Wenner-Gren wants to sell the land to Huntington Hartford.

Both parties have filed documentary evidence with the court.

Wenner - Gren says his evidence shows the title has been in the possession of he and his predecessors as far back as 1920.

Mrs. Price says she has owned the property for 70 years.

Both vulnerable. West deals.

North and South were the victims of that old scourge, 'duplication,' in today's hand. Although their high card assets were sufficient to have rendered the slam contract a laydown on most occasions, South was confronted for a time with an unavoidable loss. However, playing for the only combination that would permit fulfilment, he finally found some compensating luck.

North opened with one diamond and East overcalled with one spade. This proved of little bother to South who showed his heart suit and West declined to participate on his puny assets for fear that it would serve only to further arouse his opponents.

Sensing slam prospects, North cue bid the spades, South dutifully trotted out his diamond support and his partner reciprocated in hearts. South felt assured that his side possessed sufficient assets for slam and he now embarked on a Blackwood inquiry to test the possibilities of seven. When his partner showed up with only one king South signed off at six hearts, feeling that 12 tricks would come in with little effort.

West opened the five of spades. Dummy won and declarer immediately attempted the trump finesse. Although the king was on side, when West showed out on the next round East had a sure trump trick, which along with the apparently inevitable club loser seemed to consign the contract to a one trick set.

Declarer pondered the situation for a moment and then saw a remote chance to win the hand if East had only two clubs. So he cashed the top clubs and ran the diamond suit. East discarded on the third and fourth rounds, but South put him in with his high trump and the forced spade return permitted declarer to discard his losing club.

Midget sub to be memorial

TOKYO (Reuters)— One of the five Japanese midget submarines which took part in the attack on Pearl Harbor in the Pacific in 1941 has returned home after resting on the ocean bed for nearly 19 years.

The fate of the two members of its crew remains unknown, as is the case with most of the crew of other midget submarines which took part in the attacks on shipping in Sidney harbor, Diego Suarez harbor, on Madagascar Island, in the Indian Ocean, and off the Solomon Islands.

Fisheries charge laid

An Aiyansh man appeared in police court Friday before Magistrate E. T. Applewhaite on a charge of obstructing a fisheries officer.

Gerald Juno pleaded not guilty to the charge and was remanded until August 26 for trial.

Washington may become Columbia centre

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP)—Washington State is being considered for the location of offices to administer the United States-Canadian Columbia River Treaty program, representative Julia Hansen said Monday.

Mrs. Hansen said the White House has alvised that the departments of state and interior are considering Washington on the suggestion of Governor Albert Rosellino.

A treaty for sharing power benefits from Columbia river upstream storage in Canada has been approved by the United States Senate but is still awaiting action by Canada.
