TERRIS-CARLSON WEDDING

Reception at Legion follows United rites

The wedding took place last Saturday in the First United Church of Miss Clara Bastine Carlson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Carlson of Rainbow Lake, to Clifford Eldon Terris, son of Archibald Terris of Weldon, N.B.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace floor length dress, which had a scalloped neck and a panel of ruffled net down the back.

Her coronet sparkled with rhinestones on the top and on the shoulder-length veil.

She carried a bouquet of white roses.

The matron-of-honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Edward Vickers, who wore a sapphire blue dress of nylon chiffon with a lace bolero and white accessories. She carried a nosegay of white carnations set off with blue ribbons.

The best man was Eric Johanson. Erling Magnussen and Neil Fehr were ushers.

Officiating at the ceremony was Rev. Dr. R. W. K. Elliott.

A reception was held at the Royal Canadian Legion auditorium following the ceremony. To receive the guests, the bride's mother wore a brown brocade sheath dress with beige accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The bridal table was centred with a three - tiered wedding cake. Serving were Miss Sheila Evans, Miss Imelda Salvati, James McGee, Michael Bomack and Robert Augier.

The couple will live at 738 Taylor Street, Prince Rupert.

Crib player has 29 hand

A coveted 29 crib hand was dealt to Mrs. Ray Wood Saturday night when she was playing cards at her home at 1900 Eleventh Avenue East.

Mrs. Wood was playing four-handed crib with her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Compton when she received this hand. It is the first time she has had this experience in 30 years of card playing, she said.

In spite of intense interest on the part of communities and government alike, there still remains a great deal to be done in the overall life planning for the retarded.

WEEKLY SERMON

THE BIBLE TODAY

An appeal for more scriptures for Indonesia made recently provided a moderate increase. The supplies secured in San Francisco and carried by the S.S. Hope were nearly exhausted by the time the ship arrived at Honolulu. The remaining New Testaments are already spoken for and will be distributed when the ship returns to Djakarta.

The last of the available New Testaments were given out in Ambon and replacement of supplies is a major problem.

Added to the shortage is the difficulty of delivery when the ship is constantly moving from port to port. Replacements have had to wait for the arrival of the ship at Singapore.

In many places where the Hope called the local mission schools could have used all available copies of the scriptures.

English is a second language in Indonesia required in schools above fifth grade. Many Indonesians use English, a few quite well.

The Bible Society must use great discretion in trying to distribute the available scriptures wisely.

Suggested daily readings from the Bible Society: Sunday, Gen. 1, 2 and 3; Monday, Psalms 1:1-6; Tuesday, Psalms 8:1-9; Wednesday, Psalms 19:1-14; Thursday. Psalms 23:1-6; Friday, Luke 10:1-24; Saturday, Acts 4:13-21.

City housing

category of the interview survey..

A table for estimated population of the City centre by housing accommodation was prepared to show the effect of housing conditions in numbers of persons. One-third of these people live in accommodation rated not adequate.

Finally, the geographic distribution of responses to interviews was tabulated as well as shown on a map of the city centre. The assumptions of the windshield survey were confirmed. The westerly third of the down town district contains the bulk of dwellings while the central and easterly portion, where now most of the businesses are located, has only a few dwellings. The extreme easterly end and adjacent Cow Bay area have again an accumulation of dwellings. Dissatisfaction with present housing and the wish to move are reported mainly from the westerly and extreme easterly portions and from the Cow Bay area. Apartments in the business section seem to be more acceptable.

SHOPPING ... with IRIS

With darkness coming around 4:30 these days, a nip in the air, and snow on the ground, we don't need much convincing that winter is here. Isn't it nice to come in the front door after a day shopping and smell supper cooking, perhaps a stew or casserole you've made before going out. I've found the Corning Ware dishes from GORDON & ANDERSON to be the most convenient and practical way to make and serve casseroles. They have clip-on handles to remove the hot dish from the oven and are still attractive right on the table. Corning Ware is made in skillets, fry pans, saucepans, coffee and tea pots and all-purpose dishes. It is the newest cook and serve ware on the market, and is phenomenal in it's many uses. GORDON & ANDERSON have it and it is a winner both for your home and as a gift.

Now, you don't have to answer this if you don't want to, but have you ever felt sick to death of kids with their noses in comic books, or hopping mad at the blamed things scattered all over the house? Nothing will replace them, or the bickering over the trading, but here's a suggestion from WRATHALL'S for children of this age group. It's Sawyer's Stereo picture set and includes a Viewmaster with four reels. Price $3.95. Vivian showed me the variety of reels that they have, everything from travelogues from all over the world, children's stories and adventures, educational subjects and world events. The Viewmaster Standard Projector is a little more expensive, not much, mind you, but is a dandy for the kid's own home movies. WRATHALL'S will put it away for you until Christmas week. Oh yes, I almost forgot to mention the newest reels, "Quick Draw McGraw", "ABC Circus", "101 Dalmations", "Babes in Toyland" and the "Secret from Space."

I wonder if we should look back, 10, 15 or 20 years. Do you remember the maternity frocks that we wore? Some of them were pretty dowdy and unbecoming. The idea then was that you went out for the first four months and stayed fairly close to home for the remainder. It's not that way now, nor should it be! Expectant mothers can be fashion conscious and fashion smart. CAROL LEE'S has trim maternity outfits with slim adjustable skirts, tops of brocade, lace, velvet and suede. They are dresses that will take you anywhere, an afternoon tea, an evening with friends or to a pre-Christmas party. Some of these outfits have matching slacks. CAROL LEE'S carry the unexcelled Duchess line of maternity underwear, bras, girdles, panties and slips. There's no reason to be a "stay-at-home" this year, no reason at all! If you already have a little one between the ages of one and two, have a look at the Winsome Registered Brand coat and legging sets. They are of orlon pile in white, pink or blue. As the tag says, they are winter Winsome.

Did you have your afternoon coffee at the BROADWAY CAFE last week? We went to the BAMBOO ROOM on Friday evening with some friends to celebrate their anniversary. The food was delicious and deftly served. Now is the time to make your appointment for your pre-Christmas party. Don't leave it too late. The BROADWAY CAFE, the proper setting for your business luncheon or family dinner!

This week's recipe is from Mrs. Ivar Eidsvik of 401 East 6th Avenue It is a "Special Occasion" cake, that takes a little extra effort. You'll find the results so deliciously rewarding.

ELLA EIDSVIK'S VINATERTA (Islandic Cake)

¾ lb. butter
3 eggs
1 tsp. ground cardemom
1 tbsp. water
4 tbsps. heavy cream (canned milk)
2 tsps. baking powder
5 cups flour
1 tsp. salt

Cream butter and sugar. Break in eggs, one at a time. Beat well. Add cream, water, cardemon, add flour, salt, baking powder, which has been sifted together. Beat well. Place in fridge to set.

FILLING

2 lbs. prunes
2 cups sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
1 tsp. cinnamon

Boil prunes take out stones, add sugar, cinnamon, Mash, boil until fine. Add vanilla. For a round cake divide the dough into nine parts. Pat thinly out in a round tin and bake one at a time. Spread filling between layers until all is used. Ice and decorate with gumdrops. For bars divide dough into 2 or 3 parts. Bake one at a time on a large cookie sheet, spread with filling. Ice and decorate. Recipe can be halved but should be made one day before being used. 2 tspns. almond extract can be substituted for cardemom seed and water in the dough.

Is your Christmas shopping list complete? Too early yet? Well, Bill Noble, at NOBLE's has the clear McCoy for your teenager. RCA Victor, Sony, and Marconi transistor radios, so well noted for their tonal quality. The price range begins at $29.95 and includes a leather carrying case and earphones. Some models have phono jacks. A true beauty is the Marconi table model, eight-transistor, with two bands, long and short wave and in a variety of colors. One more suggestion for the record fan . . . NOBLE'S have the very, very latest!

Cold feet? ? ? No, never! ! Not in cozy slippers from FASHION FOOTWEAR! But you can't go dancing in slippers. Evening slippers, yes, and Fashion has them, with handbags to match. Intriguing crushed gold, white brocaded satin, shimmering silver sandals are the supreme complement to your special gown. By the way, Dad can't go in his old shoes. He'll have to spruce up, too. While he's at FASHION trying on his shoes have a look at Johnny's window display. It will give you oodles of ideas for your Christmas problems.

Who's afraid of the water? My kids are, especially at dish washing time and before eating time. You may think I'm wandering from my subject, but no. The subject is the new HOOVER appliances at RUPERT RADIO & ELECTRIC. Hoover vacuums, of course, speak for themselves, the world over. On the same display stand was the four-job Shampoo Polisher, an appliance that shampoos your rugs, applies wax, scrubs and polishes your floors and your hands never touch water, so there! LAMPS, lamps and more lamps, inside, outside and on the Christmas tree. That's what TONA showed me at RUPERT RADIO & ELECTRIC. You don't have to shop all over town to find the right fixture for your decorating scheme or your front porch. Bert or Tona will be pleased to help and advise.

Wow! Wait until you hear the latest from FRASER & PAYNE. Intimate Co-Ordinates from Kayser Square and trousseau glamor by Harvey Woods. It's irresistable, billowy and enchanting lingerie. Joan and the girls will show it to you. Even the colors have elegant names, Roman Fire, Blue Angel, Flatterfluff Beige, Roulette Red and Cognac. Fraser and Payne's have the complete stock, gowns, shorties, panties, bras and slips. So delicately feminine and perfectly matched. Never have I seen so many soft, snug and cozy pyjamas and gowns in one store. The flannelettes are bright and cheery and the cut and styles are generous. No skimpiness here. Note: See the Lady Galt towels, all packaged for Christmas. Too appealing to miss!

For a stunning table arrangement for your home, a gift to please a gracious hostess or a tribute from a tender heart, nothing is more appropriate than fresh flowers from MITCHELL'S. Alex and Laura's helper, GLENNA STAVA, will take your order and help you to choose wisely. Your flowers from Mitchell's can turn an ordinary day into a special occasion. Laura reminds us that there is just time for mail overseas orders. However, if you do wait to the last moment, your best bet is FTD . . . Florist Telegraph Delivery. Incidentally, when I was in Mitchell's I noticed the great variety of planters. Some are for tables, sills and others can be hung. They are china and brass, very decorative and inexpensive gifts for a green thumb friend or for yourself.

Until next week, . . .
