The bidding:

South	West	North	East
5♣	Pass	6♣	Pass
Pass	Pass

Opening lead: Seven of ♦

North's overbid paid a handsome reward today when West did not get off to the best lead. South's five club opened was aggressive but not too unreasonable when considered in the light of favorable vulnerability and the 150 honors he expected to apply against the cost of a sacrifice. North's raise to six was a distinct gamble since it depended on his partner having a singleton spade not to mention a solid trump holding.

West chose for his opening lead the seven of diamonds, reasoning that he must set up a trick before his ace of spades was dislodged. Declarer had no choice but to let it ride and when the jack of diamonds won the trick the hand became routine. Declarer discarded one spade on the second heart and and repeated the diamond finesse.

West berated himself for having made the only lead to give declarer the hand. In light of the somewhat blind nature of the bidding we feel that the ace of spades is a sounder choice. It should be noted that declarer could have won the hand with any lead except the immediate cashing of the two spades.

Suppose, for example, a heart is opened. Declarer takes a spade discard and leads a spade. If East plays low, the queen forces West's ace. It is now a simple matter for declarer to finesse the queen of diamonds and play the queen of spades through East to set up the jack for the discard of his other low diamond.

If East is inspired enough to rise with the king on the first lead of spades declarer takes a diamond finesse against West and then by leading out all the trumps succeeds in trapping West, who will be unable to hold on to the ace of spades, and also retain protection in diamonds.

Canadian chosen Queen's pilot

LONDON (Reuters) — Capt. John Woodman of Vancouver, a veteran airman with 25 years experience, will command the Boeing airliner scheduled to fly the Queen and Prince Philip to Ghana for the start of their West African tour November 9, it was announced today.

The 46-year-old pilot flew the Queen Mother on the London-Montreal stage of her flight to New Zealand in February, 1958. He was awarded the Queen's Commendation for Valuable Services in the Air in the 1960 New Year's honor list.

Woodman joined Imperial Airways in 1936 and now is chief pilot for British Overseas Airways Corporation.

During the tour, in which the Royal Couple will visit Ghana, Liberia, Sierra Leone and The Gambia, the Queen and Philip will use the royal yacht Britannia.

SLEEP IN STREETS

CALCUTTA (Reuters)—About 19,000 people, including 4,000 women, were found sleeping in this city's streets during a count of pavement dwellers. Police say some of the 19,000 probably had homes but were sleeping in the streets the night the count was made.

Ernest Tubb elected head of Seal Cove PTA

New teachers were introduced and a new slate of officers were elected at the first Fall meeting of the Seal Cove Elementary School Parent-Teacher's Association held Monday night.

The six teachers of the school were introduced by Principal Wilfrid Lessard, who also conducted the election of the executive.

Those taking office were: Ernest Tubb, president; Mrs. R. R. Whitely, vice-president; Mrs. B. J. Sinclair, secretary; Mrs. Ray Gardiner, treasurer, membership convener, Mrs. Ernest Tubb; social convener, Mrs. J. W. Cochrane; safety chairman, Mrs. A. H. Doane, PT council representative, Miss Dorothy Mattson; programme chairman, Mrs. G. P. Thompson.

Mrs. H. A. Stainton and Mr. P. D. Murray were appointed to look after the student's insurance letters.

A discussion of promoting UNICEF at Hallowe'en was discussed and this was agreed upon. A UNICEF Hallowe'en is a time when children voluntarily collect pennies along with their treats and sweets, and the money collected is sent by the PT council to the United Nations in New York. It is distributed to the underprivileged and hungry children of the poorer nations. The meeting endorsed the suggestion to support this worthy objective.

A coffee hour followed the meeting.

WELLINGTON, N.Z. (AP) A bus smashed the fender of a car, hit a parked van, ran into the back of a small car, brought down a shop veranda post and finally hit another car, all within a mile. Defence counsel for the driver, charged with dangerous driving, said the man lost his nerve after the first mishap, was unsuited by temperament for the job and now was working in a factory. He praised the fortitude of the 18 bus passengers—they didn't desert until after the fourth accident.

GRANGEVILLE, Idaho (AP) — Two men have been killed and one seriously wounded within 24 hours in hunting accidents in Idaho's elk-rich primitive area east of here, Idaho County authorities said Wednesday night. The latest victim was Loren M. Meier, 32, of Buhl, Idaho, fatally wounded by a shot from a member of his own hunting party in the Indian Grave Creek area, near the Montana line, authorities said. Officers said Everett Cox told them he mistook Meier for an elk calf and fired. The slug tore off Meier's right hand and went into his hip and groin.

Piersall traded

NEW YORK (AP)—Cleveland Indians traded Jimmy Piersall, their fiery centre fielder, to Washington Senators today for Dick Donovan, veteran pitcher, and three other players.

In addition to Donovan, the Indians will get outfielder-catcher Gene Green, utility infielder Jim Mahoney and a third player to be delivered by January 1. No cash was involved.

Piersall, 30, a controversial figure ever since he came to the American League with Boston Red Sox 10 years ago, enjoyed his best season in 1961. He batted .322 in 121 games, fourth highest in the league and was one of the best defensive outfielders in the majors.
