Little Leaguers edge Terrace

Set for tourney at Prince George

Prince Rupert's Little League all-stars are off to Prince George. The team left this morning by bus on the second step of the Little League World Series.

Rupert completed the first step towards the August 22-26 series at Williamsport, Pennsylvania by downing Terrace's all-stars 11-8 Sunday at Riverside Park.

This game was a sudden-death affair to determine which team would represent this area in the District 4 semi-final tournament at Prince George.

B.C. is divided into four districts with this area and most of the north being included in District 4.

Rupert will probably play the Prince George all-stars Wednesday.

If the local boys get by the George tourney they'll head for Penticton to compete in the District 4 championships. Then it's the B.C. championships in Victoria; regional playoffs in the U.S. and finally the World Series.

Following Sunday's game, which most officials termed sloppy, the two teams were treated to a cold-plate dinner at the Skeena Hotel through the courtesy of the Terrace Little League Association.

Duane Hull, Terrace Little League president presented Rupert Little League president with $40 from the gate receipts to help pay the cost of the Prince George trip.

Hull thanked Rupert for coming to Terrace and wished the team the best of luck in Prince George.

Stevens thanked the Terrace people for the hospitality shown to Prince Rupert.

The game officially got underway after the teams had been lined up along the first and third base lines and been introduced to the crowd.

Terrace Reeve Walt Yeo threw the first ball while Hull attempted to hit it and Stevens acted as catcher.

Hull grounded out second to first and the ball game was officially started.

Each team used two pitchers during the game which featured 15 hits, six errors and several passed balls.

Gerry Mintenko started for Rupert but got in trouble during the third inning and was replaced by Ascanio Salvati who completed the game in fine fashion. Brian Smith started for Terrace but was pulled in the second for left-hander Wayne Kirby.

Mintenko and Salvati allowed nine hits, walked three and struck out six in gaining the victory.

The two Terrace hurlers gave up six hits, issued eight free passes and fanned five.

Five of Rupert's runs were scored off passed balls as Terrace catcher Ricky Llewellyn had trouble hanging on to the ball.

Four Terrace runs scored off three Rupert errors and one passed ball.

Rupert scored three runs in both the first and second innings but didn't get a hit until the fourth.

In that inning second baseman Murray Brown started things off with a ground-rule double and before the inning ended Rupert had tallied five runs off five hits including a deep centre field two-run home run by first baseman Doug Wells.

The home run by Wells was the batting highlight of the day.

Llewellyn and Murray Stevens were the top Terrace batters as they each got two hits in four trips.

The general consensus among the Rupert manager Doug Kerr and coaches Les Stevens and Gordy Cameron was that the boys did okay but could have done much better.

Stevens felt that they relaxed too much after getting a six-run cushion in the first two innings.

If Rupert loses at George they will probably return home on the weekend.

Crampton tops Milwaukee open

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Young Bruce Crampton, a former Australian Open champion, happily looked to the future today after winning his first major tournament in some 85 attempts on the United States pro-golf tour.

"This is a lifetime ambition come true," the 25-year-old Aussie said Sunday after picking up a $4,308 cheque for a one-stroke victory in the $30,000 Milwaukee Open.

Crampton withstood a pressure-packed finish to post a final round of one-over-par 71 for a 270 total in the 72-hole test and edge Gay Brewer Jr. and Bob Goalby, a couple of veterans who play out of Crystal Rivers, Fla.

"I've always wanted to visit Las Vegas, but I vowed I wouldn't until I was able to play in the Tournament of Champions," Crampton said with a smile. "Now that I've won a big one I've qualified and you can bet I'll be there next year."

Stan Leonard of Vancouver closed with rounds of 73 and 69 for a 277 total. He finished in a three-way tie for 12th place and won $908.

U.S. athletes not complaining of injuries

LONDON (AP) — None of the members of the injury-riddled United States track team was complaining as they took off today for Warsaw and a meet with Poland Friday and Saturday.

John Uelses, Bobby Avant, Earl Young, Jim Grelle, Dyrol Burleson, Paul Drayton, Jerry Siebert, Ken Floerke, Bill Sharpe, John Fromm and Charlie Frazier all were hurting in varying degrees.

"It's just one of those things," said coach Jim Elliott. "Every once in awhile you run into something like this — a whole string of injuries and you wonder when it is going to end."

Elliott's touring squad has beaten Rurrla, West Germany and Great Britain.

Weary Tigers take AL lead again after sweeping double-header

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Staff Writer

Detroit's weary, worn Tigers are back in first place in the American League race, but their struggle to move past New York Yankees has taken its toll.

The Tigers won a marathon doubleheader 6-4 and 17-14 over the Athletics at Kansas City Sunday. They lost third baseman Steve Boros for at least a month and enough energy to build a dam.

Los Angeles	42	54	.438	20
Minnesota	40	55	.421	21½
Kansas City	34	55	.362	27

The Yankees learned how it feels to blow a game with two men out in the ninth inning, bowing 5-4 to Boston Red Sox on Gary Geiger's single.

The Angels completed a three-game sweep of a series against Washington by belting the Senators 8-3 with Ted Bowsfield of Penticton, B.C., recording his sixth victory against three setbacks this season. The Angels' Steve Bilko hit his 14th home run and drove in three runs.

Minnesota Twins uncorked three homers and six-hit pitching by Pedro Ramos to blank Cleveland Indians and hand Barry Latman (0-1) his first defeat of the year. Roy Sievers drove in four runs with a pair of homers in a 5-2 triumph for Chicago White Sox over the slumping Baltimore Orioles.

In Saturday's action, Cleveland shut out Minnesota 4-0, New York defeated Boston 11-0, Chicago beat Baltimore 7-4 and 11-4 and Los Angeles edged Washington 7-6. Detroit at Kansas City was postponed because of rain.

It's either feast or famine for Cincinnati Redlegs, who have that contented look again after two big victories over San Francisco Giants.

The 6-5 and 11-2 sweep Sunday ended a six-game losing run for the Reds and indicated that manager Fred Hutchinson's crew is on the National League warpath once more.

The Reds have been blowing hot and cold this season. They either win in batches or lose the same way.

The twin triumphs, engineered by 13 extra-base hits including five homers, boosted the Reds league lead to 1½ games over Los Angeles Dodgers. The Dodgers, sparked by Ron Fairly's two doubles, edged St. Louis Cardinals 2-1.

Milwaukee Braves whipped Pittsburgh Pirates 11-4 and 5-4 for a four-game sweep of their series. The surging Braves moved past the Pirates into fourth place, a half-game behind the third-spot Giants. Chicago Cubs snapped a seven-game losing streak by belting four homers, including two by Don Zimmer, for an 11-5 win over Philadelphia Phillies.

In Saturday games Philadelphia edged Chicago 6-5, San Francisco beat Cincinnati 8-3, Milwaukee defeated Pittsburgh 5-4 and Los Angeles downed St. Louis 5-4.

Pulpmen swamp city softballers with five-run rally in 10th

A five-run rally in the 10th inning enabled the Columbia Cellulose Softball League all-stars to swamp the Prince Rupert Senior Men's Softball League all-stars 10-5 in an exhibition game Saturday night at Algoma Park.

The two teams were tied 5-5 after the regulation nine innings and had to play one extra inning.

CCC scored their five runs in the top of the 10th and held the city crew scoreless in the bottom of the same inning.

Dave Lockhart went all the way for the pulpmen, pitching a 10-hitter. He walked seven and struck out three.

Richard Campbell started for the city but tired in the ninth and was relieved by Pat Anderson.

Together they allowed 15 hits, walked eight and struck out four.

CCC opened the scoring with a single run in the second inning but the city all-stars bounced back with three in the third to hold a 3-1 lead.

The pulpmen came through with two in the fourth to tie it up and added another in the fifth to take a narrow 4-3 lead.

They tallied one more in the top of the ninth but Rupert bounced back with a pair in the bottom half of the inning to force the game into extra innings.

First baseman Brian Lennon had a great day at the plate with a home run, a triple and two singles in six trips. First baseman Paul Lefebvre led the Rupert all-stars with three singles in four trips.

CCC pulled off a sensational triple play in the sixth inning against the city club.

Campbell popped up to third baseman Archie Hodgkinson when Lefebvre was on second and centre fielder Art Helin was at first.

Hodgkinson threw to second baseman Walt Harlowe to catch Lefebvre off the bag and Harlowe quickly relayed down to Lennon to catch Helin and the side was retired.

Mounties nearing PCL lead

By The Associated Press

The Seattle Rainiers get their best chance to regain first place in the Pacific Coast Baseball League this week in a face-to-face meeting with the top-ranked Tacoma Giants.

	W	L	Pct.	GBL
Tacoma	61	38	.616	—
Vancouver	61	43	.587	2½
Seattle	57	43	.570	4½
Portland	49	49	.500	12
Spokane	44	54	.449	16½
Hawaii	46	59	.438	18
San Diego	44	59	.427	19
Salt Lake	41	58	.414	20

But both teams will be watching the red-hot Vancouver Mounties who could ease into the top berth—if Seattle and Tacoma knock each other out.

The Rainiers, who led the league for half of the season, are in third place 4½ games behind the Giants as the teams open an eight-game home-and-home series at Tacoma Monday.

The Mounties, in second place 2½ games back, have an easier assignment. Idle Monday, they travel to San Diego for an eight game stand with the hapless Padres, in seventh place only a game out of the cellar.

Portland goes to Hawaii and Salt Lake City to Spokane in other schedule changes.

Vancouver made it three-in-a-row over Seattle Sunday, edging the Rainiers 8-7 in a single game at Vancouver. Tacoma and San Diego split a twin bill, the Padres snapping a five-game Tacoma winning streak with a 5-1 decision in the opener, then losing 5-4.

Spokane took two from Portland 6-2 and 3-1 and Hawaii downed Salt Lake City 4-1, then lost 5-1.

Manuel Jiminez clouted three home runs for the Mounties as they completed a sweep of the series with Seattle. Jiminez hit a pair of two-run homers, in the second and third and a singleton in the third. In the bottom of the ninth with the bases loaded Jiminez hit a short fly to left field and Ed Charles scooted home after the catch with the winning run.

GOOD EFFORT

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Bill Cooper of Richmond scored the ultimate in golf Friday — a hole-in-None.

Cooper, playing in a pro-amateur event at the Willow Oaks Country Club, had a handicap of one stroke on the par-three second hole. He canned his tee shot.

One from one is zero.
