Gamble, Ridley pace Kitkatla club

Score 51 points to edge Vikings

Fred Gamble and Elmer Ridley combined for 51 points as Kitkatla Royals edged Vikings 60-53 in senior basketball action Saturday night at the Civic Centre.

Sunrise nipped Vikings 48-41 in an intermediate A game while UFAWU's "fightin' fishermen" downed Booth Memorial Junior High School 51-43 in an intermediate B game.

The senior game saw Gamble net 27 points and Ridley 24 as Kitkatla handed Vikings their fourth straight loss of the young season.

Vikings played with little spark until the final quarter when they scored 22 points. But it didn't help matters as Kitkatla also came through with 22 in the last frame.

Vikings led 14-13 after the first quarter but the powerful Kitkatla club outscored them 14-9 in the second quarter and led 27-23 at the half. In the third quarter Kitkatla again outscored Vikings 11-8.

It was a poor game by usual hoop standards and several times was on the verge of developing into a fight between several players. Constant elbowing and shoving under the baskets caused considerable tension.

Fortunately the players were able to control themselves before trouble did break out.

Vikings had a poor shooting average of 24 per cent while Kitkatla wasn't much better with 29.32 per cent.

Gary Morison and Dick Specht led Vikings with 11 points each while Art Helin, the team's usual big gun was held to six points.

Bob Kelsey scored 16 points to lead Sunrise to its win. It was a second-quarter rally that sewed it up for the grocers.

The two teams tied 11-11 ofter the first quarter but Sunrise outscored Chieftains 15-6 in the second and made that lead stand up for the victory. Chieftains outscored the grocers 8-6 in the third frame and the teams tied 16-16 in the last period.

Jim Stewart bucketed 20 points for Chieftains.

It took an all-out effort in the final quarter to win the game for UFAWU.

The fishermen had led 13-8 in the first quarter and 25-16 at half time. But Booth kids roared back in the third quarter to outscore UFAWU 18-9 and tie the game 34-34 entering the last period.

UFAWU poured on the coals to outscore Booth 17-9 and steal the victory in the fourth quarter.

Dave Bobertson was the big man for the fishermen with 22 points while Rod Sampson paced Booths' attack with 23 points.

There'll be hoop action as usual Thursday night but basketball has been cancelled Saturday because of the Rainmakers-Ketchikan series at the high school.

Annunciation nips Rupert with final-second basket

A final-second basket by John Magro led Annunciation to a thrilling come - from - behind 29-27 win over Rupert Motors in the senior section of minor league basketball Saturday at the Civic Centre.

With 35 seconds remaining in the game and Annunciation losing 27-25, Wayne Haldane sunk a long shot from the corner to tie the score 27-27.

Rupert took the ball down the floor then and with five seconds left Annunciation stole the ball and moved it back up the floor. Magro let a jump-shot go from 20 feet out as the buzzer sounded. The ball went up, and swish, it was good. Game over, Annunciation wins 29-27.

Annunciation had led 11-9 in the first quarter and 16-11 at half time but Rupert closed the gap to 22-21 in the third quarter and were leading in the last frame until the final minute.

Magro led the team with 10 points while Allen Mah paced Rupert with eight.

The other senior section game saw Broadway trounce Deane Cleaners 36-15 behind the 14 points of Ernie Baines.

In the junior section games, CYO edged Nelson Bros. 13 - 10; Little Chieftains squeezed by UFAWU 22-20 as Bobby Donaldson scored 12 points; and Annunciation downed Philpott Evitt 7-2.

Favorites fall

VANCOUVER (CP) — Two of the favorites fell and another was carried to extra ends Sunday in the opening rounds of the 100-rink Totem Bonspiel, which continues through Friday.

Glen Harper, former provincial champion from Duncan on Vancouver Island, and Edmonton's Bert Robertson were defeated in opening-round games in the Totem event.

Butch Dyberg of Wetaskiwin, Alta., a frequent challenger in the previous Totem bonspiels here, won twice Sunday, going to the 13th end in his second match to nip Frank Law of Vancouver 9-8.

Among other favorites advancing were Lyall Dagg, Buck Glover, Bung Cartmell and Howie Christopherson of Vancouver and Buzz McGibney of Rossland, who played third for years on Reg Stone's famous rink from Trail.

McGibney won twice, taking his first match 10-0 over Dana Quinell of Vancouver in a tight contest that frequently was tied up and winning easily 18-4 over Robert Menzilly of Vancouver in his second.

Bombers drop Stampeders

CALGARY (CP) — Winnipeg Blue Bombers moved closer to their fourth Grey Cup berth in five years Saturday by turning Gerry James loose against Calgary Stampeders in a 14-1 victory opening their Western Football Conference final series.

Bombers stopped the Stampeder spread formation cold before 18,500 fans, as James broke loose on a 74-yard run to set up the game's only touchdown, kicked the convert and a pair of field goals.

It was Winnipeg's 20th straight victory on the road, dating back to their 1959 Grey Cup victory over Hamilton Tiger-Cats. The best-of-three series now shifts to Winnipeg, where Bombers can wrap it up with another win Wednesday night.

"A real rough tough football game," summed up Stamp coach Bobby Dobbs Sunday. "Our defence played an excellent game and Winnipeg's defence was very rugged."

Shamcats win

MONTREAL (CP) — Verdun Shamcats rallied behind substitute quarterback Bobby Anderson to score 19 points in the fourth quarter and scrape by Winnipeg's St. Vital Bulldogs 33-22 in the Canadian intermediate football final Sunday.

It takes $90,000 per man to bring you B.C.'s gasoline bargain

Earle Porter is one of 850 Imperial employees who supply B.C. people with oil products at bargain prices. Take Esso gasoline—motorists throughout B.C. buy it at an average price of 6 1/10 cents a pound. That's a real bargain ... even common table salt costs more per pound. And of the 6 1/10 cents paid per pound for gasoline, two cents is for federal and provincial taxes that provide you with such things as social services and new highways.

To bring you this bargain, since 1951 alone Imperial has invested more than $80,000,000 in B.C. That's more than $90,000 per employee... and this doesn't include wages and other operating expenses which have increased year by year. Yet today, on the average, Imperial gets less for the Esso gasoline it sells in B.C. than ten years ago... and Esso gasoline today is much more powerful than ten years ago.

IMPERIAL OIL LIMITED...providing low-cost oil energy for British Columbia Esso

Earle Porter is one of a team of skilled operators who help run Imperial Oil's multi-million dollar refinery in B.C.
