Mr. and Mrs. EDWARD ALLAN EYFORD

Sharon Bury, Edward Eyford married in Annunciation rites Saturday night

Two well-known and popular Prince Rupert young people were united in marriage at the Church of the Annunciation last Saturday evening when Sharon Kay Bury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bury, 1023 Third Avenue West became the bride of Edward Allan Eyford, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Eyford, 518 Sixth Avenue West, all of Prince Rupert.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white silk organza and lace gown, with full skirt and high neckline. Her pearl earrings were a gift from the groom. She wore a white headpiece, with a shoulder-length veil. Her bouquet was American beauty roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Kathleen Smith, cousin of the bride, and Miss Marion Eyford, sister of the groom.

They wore blue nylon dresses, with white accessories, and carried bouquets of blue-tinted carnations.

Best man was Peter Colussi, and Richard Bury, brother of the bride was usher.

Father F. Giroux officiated at the double-ring ceremony, and Mrs. Denis Rowse was organist.

The altar was decorated with colorful gladioli and ferns placed in tall stands.

To receive the 200 guests at the reception at the Canadian Legion, the bride's mother wore a beige lace dress with short jacket and bronze accessories, and the groom's mother wore a golden brown dress with yellow accessories.

Master of ceremonies Harley Lewis read several best-wishes telegrams. A toast to the bride was given by Graham Alexander, and toasts to the bridesmaids were given by Peter Colussi, with the groom responding.

Serviteurs were: Mrs. Peter Colussi, Mrs. James Gordon, Mrs. M. D. Montesano, Mrs. James Murland, Mrs. W. R. Smith and Miss Natalia Maskulak.

Miss Maskulak was also in charge of the guest book.

For a honeymoon trip to Vancouver, the bride wore a blue sheath dress with matching blue coat.

The young couple will reside at 1244 Second Avenue West. They are both employed by the Columbia Cellulose Company, Limited.

Mrs. Eyford is a member of a pioneer family of Prince Rupert and Mr. Eyford came here eight years ago with his family from Burns Lake.

Garden Club plans dinner

Garden Club members are invited to attend the annual dinner at La Gondola Cafe at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow.

An added attraction is the $25 prize donated by T. Norton Youngs for the best table arrangement of flowers. As it is so late in the season, President Cornelius Verhaar announced today that flowers may be bought to augment garden flowers.

Judging will be done on freshness of blooms, harmony of color, and symmetry. Flowers may be taken to the cafe between 4 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Wildlife looms large as big B.C. resource

Wildlife as a natural resource last year netted British Columbia in excess of $15,000,000, Game Warden Clifford Walker told the Rotary club at its weekly luncheon meeting yesterday.

Mr. Walker, who has spent nine of his 10 years with the Fish and Game Department in Prince Rupert, told the Rotarians that the value of wildlife as a resource was becoming increasingly important in British Columbia's expanding economy.

He said the statistics stressed the importance of wildlife as a means of revenue for B.C. The last figures available showed that in 1955 a total of $12,000,000 was spent by hunters who disposed of 70,000 game animals of the moose, deer and elk species.

Resident and non-resident hunters in B.C. spent $5,000,000 in transportation, $4,000,000 in equipment and $3,000,000 on miscellaneous items relative to hunting.

The figures have risen considerably since then, he said.

All this money has been spent in rural areas of the province where it is needed.

The 1955 figure of $12,000,000 was more than was realized the same year by the B.C. fruit farmers.

At the same time, Mr. Walker pointed out that the game was a crop of otherwise useless land.

The wildlife resource was attracting more people, hunters, fishermen, bird - watchers, or photographers, than ever before, the game warden said.

"However, the sports couldn't continue long without the control provided by my department, the Fish and Game Branch of the Department of Recreation and Conservation."

Mr. Walker said the fish and game department was divided up into four sections; game management, fisheries management, predator control and protective division.

He said that game wardens' jobs had become so complex that although they police their areas they are now known as conservation officers.

"The values of wildlife are therefore recreational, aesthetic and economic and all go to make this a better province in which to live."

He said that despite the fact that the department uses scientific methods to control and administer the province's game, it still needed the co-operation and understanding of the public to preserve and pass on "our rich heritage to generations who are not yet born."

Mr. Walker was introduced by A. P. Crawley and thanked by R. A. Morley.

Retarded Society tag day raises $430

The sum of $430 was raised at the annual tag day of the Retarded Children's Society held last Saturday.

"We would like to thank the people of Prince Rupert for their generous support," said President W. F. Stone today. "Special thanks to District Commissioner Mrs. George W. Cook and her Girl Guides for acting as taggers, to the Elks Lodge for their generous annual donation of $500 and to the North Star Bottling Works for donating soft drinks for the taggers."

The monthly executive meeting of the Society will be held Monday at 8 p.m. at the Jack and Jill School.

Open house meeting slated

Business and Professional Club Week, October 16 to 23, will be recognized by the members of the local club by having an "open-house" meeting on October 17, it was decided at a dinner meeting of the club held at La Gondola Cafe on Monday night.

The meeting will be held at the home of Miss Frances Cross, 223 Fourth Avenue West, with the object of interesting new members in the club.

In a business period, Mrs. Wilfrid Sinclair was appointed first vice-president, Mrs. Hugh de Burgh appointed program convener, and Mrs. Carl Halversen agreed to be in charge of Business and Professional Women's Week.
