WINNIPEG (CP) — The Manitoba government is selling burned-out timber at reduced prices in order to clean up its fire - damaged forests and to clear away usable wood before it can be attacked by insects. Mines Minister C. H. Witney says it is necessary to clear almost 100,000 acres.

SASKATOON (CP) — Arthur H. Thompson, retired Saskatoon warehouseman, has built a six-foot-long scale model of London Bridge and its buildings as they were in 1930 — believed to be the second such model in existence. Mr. Thompson spent 18 months building the model.
