Hundreds entertained by Harlem Stars

Several hundred people were provided with some first-class entertainment as the hilarious Harlem Stars played a two-game basketball series with the city all-stars.

Harlem won Friday's game 53-49 and took Saturday's game 69-46. The games, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, were played at the senior high school.

Friday night the Harlem team was late in arriving because of car trouble en route from Terrace. They arrived tired and hungry from their ordeal but still managed to put on a fair show.

The show hasn't changed much from last year but still provides many laughs.

The funny-man of the team, Showboat Buckner, clown-prince of hoop, still knocks 'em in the aisles with his zany capers.

Buckner, who at five-feet, two inches is considered too short to play basketball, combines great showmanship, and personality with hoop skill to the delight of the fans.

The team itself is a combination of showmanship and basketball ability. Children and adults alike laugh at Harlem's humorous antics, and applaud when their ball skill is displayed.

They have a standard pattern of play which they seem to follow in every game.

In the first quarter the team concentrates strictly on playing. They try to get a substantial lead over their opponents before working on a few laughs.

After building up a fair lead they put on some displays of skillfull ball handling, passing, dribbling and shooting.

They usually save the gags for the last-quarter of each game.

Friday night George Howe led the locals with 11 points while Terry Shenton led the team Saturday with 12.

Andy Sheppard led the Harlem club both nights as he netted 20 points Friday and 18 Saturday.

Bold Buie, who plays basketball with a great handicap—the loss of one arm—didn't do too bad either. He tabbed six points Friday and added another 10 Saturday.

Beliveau out of action for one month

By The Canadian Press

Montreal Canadiens learned today they will have to do without star centre Jean Beliveau for at least the first month of the National Hockey League campaign.

The Habitants got the bad news about Beliveau, who returned home after wrenching his knee in an exhibition game at Trail, as they joined Toronto Maple Leafs in piling up a seven-goal harvest against Western Hockey League opponents.

Physiotherapist Bill Head, who examined Beliveau at Montreal, said x-rays showed the centre had injured ligaments in his right knee and would need a cast on it for two or three weeks.

Montreal was given a hot reception on arrival in Edmonton when a stove in the hockey-playing Warwick Brothers' Restaurant exploded. Although no one was injured, the Canadiens retaliated by turning on some heat themselves as they beat Edmonton Flyers 7-2.

Five goals in the third period gave Toronto a 7-3 decision over the WHL champion Portland Buckaroos in the Oregon metropolis, giving 6,597 fans their only chance to see a game before the WHL season opens there October 21.

The only other NHL team to see action was New York Rangers, who went to Kingston, Ont., to blank the Frontenacs of the Eastern Pro League 4-0.

Teams share pin honors

Four teams divided all the honors in the Men's Five-Pin Bowling League September 25.

In A section Frank Judd posted a 309 high single while his Post Office team captured the team high three with 3,071.

Johnny Fitzgerald pegged a 766 for high three while his Grotto mates picked up the team high single with 1,103.

In B section Legion's Bill Brett took both the high single and high three with 273 and 649 while Spercs grabbed both team honors with 1,109 and 2,937.

Results were:

Section A — Malkins 3, Empress 1; Cook's 4, Howe & McNulty0; Savoy 3, Gondola 1; Post Office 4, Paramounts 0; and Grotto 4, Shmoos 0.

Section B — Babcock 3, CNRA 1; Esso 3, Rupert Motors 1; Speros 2, Legion 2; Stromdahls 3, Electricians 1; and Philpott Evitt 4, Orphans 0.

Stampeders trip Als

MONTREAL (CP) — Calgary Stampeders overcame a string of bad breaks under the steady hand of quarterback Eagle Day and punched out a 6-2 win over Montreal Alouettes Monday night, closing out East - West play in the Canadian Football League's interlocking schedule.

Attendance was 19,028.

Day's work stood out in a ragged game marked by seven fumbles, a bare handful of big-gain plays and some of the weakest punting of the season.

EASTERN CONFERENCE

	W	L	T	F	A	Pt.
Hamilton	7	2	0	218	214	14
Ottawa	6	3	0	260	163	12
Toronto	4	4	1	153	143	9
Montreal	2	6	1	127	142	5

The Montreal attack, after a pair of big games with Gerry Thompkins at quarter, reverted to an impotent muddle and the club was left with a bleak playoff look.

Coach Perry Moss of the Als sized it up bluntly:

"We played a lousy football game. We had plenty of breaks. We didn't deserve to win or even hang in there as long as we did. We've got to win the rest of them. That's all there is to it."

WESTERN CONFERENCE

	W	L	T	F	A	Pt.
Edmonton	8	3	1	259	197	17
Winnipeg	8	2	0	226	171	16
Calgary	4	6	0	186	170	8
Sask.	3	8	0	131	234	6
B.C.	1	9	1	140	276	3

The breaks Moss referred to included five fumbles by Calgary backfielders after handoffs from Day. Four were recovered by Montreal.

Despite Monday night's outcome, for the 20 inter - conference games innovated by the CFL this season, the east emerged with an edge — 11 wins with seven losses and two ties. In points, it was 422 for the East and 226 for the West.

It was Calgary's fourth win in 10 games.

Blackhawk dead

FORT WILLIAM (CP) — Thomas J. (Tommy) Cook, 55, an old-time player with the Chicago Blackhawks of the National Hockey League, died in hospital here Monday.

Yanks 12-5 favorites with or without Mick

NEW YORK (AP) — New York Yankees, with or without Mickey Mantle, are 12-to-5 favorites to win the world series against Cincinnati Reds.

Mantle who hit 54 home runs during the regular American League season, is recovering from minor hip surgery and is a questionable starter in the first game of the best-of-seven series Wednesday.

If Mantle hasn't recovered enough, manager Ralph Houk will send Hector Lopez to right field, with Roger Maris moving over to Mantle's centre - field spot.

Whitey Ford (25-4) the Yankees' top money pitcher for 10 years, will take the mound against Cincinnati's Jim O'Toole (19-9) in the opener, starting before an expected crowd of 70,000 at Yankee Stadium. Both are lefthanders.

The game will be broadcast over station CFPR beginning at 8:45 a.m. Wednesday and Thursday.

The weatherman forecasts rain Wednesday with temperatures between 60 and 70 degrees. Should rain force a postponement, the first game will be played Thursday with the second game here Friday.

MANTLE NOT WELL

Mantle is discouraged with his rate of recovery and said the way he feels now, he won't be able to play the opener.

"But," he said Monday, "even if I miss the first game, that doesn't mean I won't be all right for the rest of the series. Maybe it will get better quicker than I think."

Mantle's dour outlook was not shared by Yankee team physician Dr. Sydney Gaynor, or Houk.

"Of course he feels weak and sore," said Dr. Gaynor, "he has a wound that must heal. Knowing Mickey and how he responds to treatment, I think he'll play."

Houk said he will not scratch Mantle's name from the lineup until just before game time.

"Sure, Mickey isn't feeling right," said Houk. "But that's to be expected."

Manager Fred Hutchinson, who says he is not perturbed about the top-heavy odds against his Reds, has only one doubtful starter. He is catcher Darrell Johnson, who has a strain in his left side.

Hutchinson, who likes to platoon his team, said he will make most of his switches depending on the park, rather than the opposing pitcher.

Chuvalo loses on foul call

TORONTO (CP) — George Chuvalo of Toronto was offered a rematch "any day' with Welsh heavyweight Joe Erskine, who was awarded a fifth-round decision Monday night because the Canadian fouled him.

Erskine, who claimed that Chuvalo butted him "several times" before referee Sammy Luftspring disqualified the Canadian, said in the dressing-room that he was starting to weaken. Chuvalo with body punches when the scheduled 10-rounder was called at 1:27 of the fifth.

Said manager Benny Jacobs: "Chuvalo is a strong fellow, but we're not used to that rough stuff."

Four stitches were needed to close a cut above Erskine's left eye, a notably sensitive spot.

Last Night's Fights

Montreal (AP) — Ralf Schlamp, 14, New York, knocked out Bernie Arrigo, 144, Puerto Rico (3).

Philadelphia (AP) — Len Mathews, 137½, Philadelphia, knocked out Jimmy Soo, 141, Philadelphia (8).

New York (AP) — Joey Donovan, 137½, New York, defeated Gil Diaz, 141, Puetro Rico (10).

Bologna, Italy (AP) — Juan Duran, 156¼, Argentina, stopped Gianni Lonmi, 161¼, Italy (8).

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK
OCTOBER 8-14, 1961

In conjunction with National Fire Prevention Week and in order to reduce fire hazards throughout the City, the City Council has authorized a Rubbish Clean-up Service during the week of October 8th to 14th.

Residents must phone the City Hall (2111) before 5 p.m. Tuesday, October 10th for free pickup and removal of rubbish which must be piled in an accessible location.

Please note that this service is extended in addition to the Annual Spring Clean-up Campaign, and its purpose is to eliminate rubbish which may create a fire hazard around the home.
