The bidding:

West	North	East	South
1♥	Pass	Pass	Double
Pass	2♦	Pass	2NT
Pass	3NT	Pass	Pass
Pass

Opening lead: Three of ♥

Alert defence by West foiled his opponent's valiant attempt to make the three no trump contract today.

West opened the bidding with one heart and East, of course, did not have enough to keep the bidding open. South made the normal reopening double to show a good hand. When his partner showed the diamonds he tried two no trump.

Any more drastic action is to be avoided at this time, inasmuch as North's hand is an unknown quantity. Sight must not be lost of the fact that he had been drafted into the bidding. North, boasting of eight high points, was quick to carry on to game.

The three of hearts was opened and East's ten went to declarer's king. Declarer appeared to have nine tricks in full view until West showed out on the second lead of clubs. The budget had to be replanned. Four diamond tricks now became indispensable to declarer's operations. In light of West's opening bid and East's pass, it seemed likely that the queen of diamonds was on side. However, a cover of the ten of diamonds would block the suit and permit the cashing of only three diamond tricks.

In the hope of getting by without a cover, South led the nine of diamonds. This would have lulled many players into playing low at trick two but not West. A rapid calculation made it clear to him that the play of the queen could gain, but could not possibly lose. That declarer intended to finesse the jack there could be no reasonable doubt. If declarer had the nine and a small diamond only three tricks were available to him, but if he happened to have the nine and ten alone the cover was imperative. So the queen came up.

South was not yet through. After cashing out the high diamonds, he exited with a heart in an effort to force a spade lead from West; but East took the trick with the jack of hearts and relieved partner of the pressure by returning a spade.

Careless driver given $35 fine

Driving without due care and attention cost George Brian Shields of 520 Seventh Avenue West $35 and $2 costs or 14 days Friday in police court.

Shields pleaded guilty before Magistrate E. T. Applewhaite.

He was charged following an accident about 10:05 p.m. Tuesday when he was in collision with a parked car owned by David Lecasse of the St. Elmo Hotel. The collision occurred on Sixth Street and caused more than $100 damage.

Grease causes fire

Hot grease was blamed for a fire which caused about $175 damage to the La Gondola Cafe Sunday night.

Firemen used dry chemical to extinguish the blaze which concentrated on a stove in the kitchen of the cafe.

It is believed that some grease overflowed on to a hot element and started burning.

The cafe closed about 8:30 p.m. to make repairs.

Cigarettes stolen

Stealing cigarettes from Co-op Centre Saturday afternoon landed a man in police court Monday.

James Henry Munroe of no fixed address pleaded guilty to a charge of theft under $50 (shoplifting) and was remanded until September 26 for sentencing.

He had stolen two cartons of cigarettes about 2 p.m.
