BOY SERIOUSLY INJURED IN COASTING ACCIDENT

EIGHT YEAR OLD SON OF H. DARLING HAD SKULL FRACTURED AND IS IN PRECARIOUS CONDITION.

Yesterday afternoon shortly before dark, Harry Darling, the eight-year-old son of H. Darling, machinist in the G. T. P. shops, met with a terrible accident whilst coasting down McBride street and Eighth avenue. The child this morning is still in a precarious condition and but small hopes are entertained for his recovery. Dashing down McBride, which at that point is decidedly steep, instead of making the turn successfully to the right into Eighth avenue, the sleigh struck the timber guard, the unfortunate little lad being hurled off the roadway on to the frozen ground beneath, a distance of some twelve or fifteen feet. In the fall his skull was badly fractured and both his arms broken. Dr. McNeill, who was immediately upon the scene, ordered the boy taken to the hospital, a motor car being procured in a few minutes. As a result of the accident, orders have been issued by the police forbidding coasting on the streets.

HAVE ABANDONED STAND ON TAXATION OF FOODS

BONAR LAW AND LORD LANSLOWNE DECIDE TO RETAIN THE LEADERSHIP OF THE UNIONISTS—FOOD TAXATION TO BE SUBMITTED TO THE COLONIAL CONFERENCE.

London, Jan. 14.—Bonar Law and Lord Lansdowne today decided to retain the leadership of the Unionists and to abandon their stand heretofore taken on the subject of food taxation in connection with the scheme for Imperial preference. This was their reply to the memorial addressed to them. About two weeks ago Bonar Law made a speech in which he maintained that food taxes would form part of his platform. In this he was severely criticized by both the London Times and the London Mail. Recently in a speech at Ashton-under-Lyne he stated that before deciding on the food tax question the matter would be submitted to a colonial conference.

TO THE ELECTORS OF WARD ONE

Prince Rupert, B. C.
Jan. 15th, 1913.

To the Citizens of Prince Rupert, Ladies and Gentlemen: As your representative for Ward 1 for the past two years, I have endeavored to give you a fair and impartial service. I have known no creed, no interests or special pleadings. I have acted strictly in accordance with good citizenship. I am now a candidate seeking re-election for Ward 1.

I seek no favor; I ask no friendship. I ask your support on the record of my past two years' service.

It is not of my own wish I present myself for re-election, but at the urgent desire of many of my supporters. I am in the field and as a fighter I want re-election, not for the emolument of office, but for the satisfaction of believing that I have given you good service in the past, and which, I hope, you may anticipate in the future. I feel that I am as amply qualified to fill the position of alderman in the best interests of Ward 1 as any candidate now offering.

Yours very respectfully,
DANIEL W. MORRISSEY.

POPULAR BANK MANAGER IS MOVED TO CALGARY

Mr. F. S. Long, who has held the position of manager of the Prince Rupert branch of the Bank of British North America since September, 1910, has just been advised by the head office of the bank of his appointment as manager of the branch at Calgary, Alta. While this is a decided promotion for Mr. Long, his removal from Prince Rupert will be a matter of regret to the numerous clients of the bank as well as to a host of friends. Previous to coming to Prince Rupert, Mr. Long was located for a time at Dawson and before that at Calgary. Mr. Long expects that the transfer will take place about the end of this month. He will be succeeded here by Mr. P. Margetts, who has a thorough knowledge of western conditions and is well qualified to take charge of the business here. Mr. Margetts was located at Dawson in 1899.

Newton's Death Knell.

The question on everybody's lips this afternoon: "Is the bell at the city fire hall tolling Mayor Newton's death knell?" Echo answers: "Yes!"

According to posters circulated today, "music, singing and moving pictures" will be the main features of Mayor Newton's meeting tonight. This is undoubtedly in keeping with Mayor Newton's methods of civic administration during the past year. The whole thing has been a farce from beginning to end.

TIPS ON CIVIC POLITICS.

The thud with which Sam will hit the earth tomorrow will make the shade of old Isaac Newton think the law of gravity has been growing some.

Don't chase the laborer and the business men out of the city with your ballot.

The Mayor will probably say the run was only one of his little jokes.

Pattullo can be depended on to give a square deal with no favors, not only to the working man, but to the ratepayer as well.

Lacking the confidence of the property holders Newton as Mayor is an enemy to Prince Rupert labor and business.

The time to get an efficient administration is on election day.

According to one alderman the efficiency of this year's council has prevented the city's pick and shovel from being stolen.

MANY NAVAL RECRUITS ON INCREASED PAY

Enormous Number of Sailors Offer Themselves for British Navy Since Increased Pay Went into Effect

London, Jan. 14.—Since putting into effect the order of the Admiralty for increased pay for sailors in the navy the number of naval recruits offering themselves for service has been enormous.

BILL TO ABOLISH TITLES IN CANADA INTRODUCED

Member for Peterboro Claims that Canada is a Democratic Country—Wants no Class Distinction

Ottawa, Jan. 14.—In the House of Commons today, J. H. Burnham, M.P. for Peterboro, gave notice of a bill to abolish titles of honor in Canada. He declares that Canada is a democratic country and that knighthood is contrary to the spirit of democratic institutions. He claims that there should be no class distinctions in Canada.

Every citizen who is a supporter of T. D. Pattullo and the aldermen advocating a business council should constitute himself a committee of one to get out and work for the cause. Every man has an influence and it is his duty to exercise it in the interests of the city. One hundred workers will assemble at the Pattullo headquarters tomorrow. You are requested to join in the work.

WAR IN THE BALKANS TO BE RESUMED WITHIN A WEEK

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS ARE UNAVAILING AND FINAL ULTIMATUM WILL BE PRESENTED TO TURKEY—IF TERMS NOT ACCEPTED WAR WILL BE RESUMED AT ONCE.

London, Jan. 14.—Unless unforeseen events occur to change the current of affairs in connection with the restoration of peace in Europe, war in the east will be resumed within a week. The allies are convinced that the Turks are drifting about without any fixed policy and are determined to end the seemingly fruitless debates and the wire pulling by resuming military operations where they were left off a month ago. Wishing, however, to observe all diplomatic courtesies, the Balkans have given the powers reasonable time to agree to their note regarding Adrianople and to present it to Turkey. If the latter fails to agree, the Balkan allies will call another meeting of the peace conference and will announce definitely their decision to break off negotiations. The Turkish headquarters here will then notify the Turks and hostilities will be resumed within ninety-six hours.

ONLY TWO LETTERS PASSED BETWEEN BORDEN AND MONK

THE LATTER INSISTED ON THE NAVAL POLICY BEING SUBMITTED TO THE PEOPLE—HIS RESIGNATION PROMPTLY ACCEPTED

(Special to Daily News.)
Ottawa, Jan. 14.—The matter of the resignation of Hon. F. D. Monk, former minister of public works, was taken up in the House today. It came out that the correspondence between Premier Borden and Mr. Monk in regard to the matter consisted of only two letters. The first was a letter from Mr. Monk to Premier Borden, in which the former tendered his resignation in case the naval policy was not submitted to the people. The only other letter was from Premier Borden accepting the resignation.

To the Electors of the City of Prince Rupert

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

We are at last informed that Mayor Newton is standing for re-election. Having satisfied himself that his defeat for mayor was certain he withdrew from the field, giving as his reason that he could not successfully carry out the administration of affairs as mayor. Nevertheless, he determined to try to keep control of the Council and offered himself as candidate for alderman. Doubtless convinced that his chances for alderman were slim, he again offers himself as candidate for mayor.

I give the electors of Prince Rupert credit for a measure of intelligence and I am perfectly satisfied that they will not permit this city to be used as a tool in the hands of an unscrupulous demagogue to further his personal ends and satisfy his vindictive animosities.

In a word, the issue is clear. Do you want this city absolutely tied up financially, with the outside world passing us up because we are in a state of turmoil with men in charge who have no idea of finance or sense of responsibility, or do you want the affairs of this city to be conducted by men who will use their every endeavor to bring about stability of conditions, inspire the outside world with confidence in us, and by putting our finances upon a sound basis establish a permanent pay roll of several hundred men? This is the issue.

Upon you, the electors, is a grave responsibility, and I urge upon each and every one of you to give me your hearty support in this campaign and also to elect with me the men who are supporting me and who are pledged to give you absolutely fair, sane, common sense, unprejudiced and non-partisan administration of city affairs.

I beg to remain faithfully yours,

T. D. PATTULLO.

TOMORROW'S VOTE

The real issue before the electors of Prince Rupert tomorrow is not a question of planks, personality or sentiment, but rather the electing of a civic body which will give the most to the welfare of the city. Prince Rupert wants service—efficient and effective. It is for the electors to select men who will perform the functions of their offices to the best advantage of all.

This is a critical period when every elector should feel it a duty to set aside personalities and prejudices for the benefit of their city and the common good. In the choice of the mayoralty there can be little hesitation in making a decision. The present Mayor has publicly stated he would be unable to accomplish anything of import or succeed in financing the affairs of the city during the coming year. He has declared himself incompetent, yet at the eleventh hour changes his mind and contests the office without explanation. He can hardly expect the confidence of the electorate.

In selecting the aldermanic body it is the part of wisdom to pick men with an interest in the city who have executive ability and progressive ideas, and who can work in harmony. The city is safe in the hands of that kind of men, no matter what issue may arise. No business man is going to advocate a policy which would be to the disadvantage of the city and jeopardize his own interests in common with the rest. Prince Rupert has nothing to fear from business men. Let us have a business council, an administration which can hold the confidence of the property owners.
