Lary hurls third straight win

Tigers boost victory streak

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Detroit Tigers, with right-hander Frank Lary pitching his third straight complete-game victory, ran their winning streak to eight Monday with a 4-3 victory over New York Yankees.

The triumph, boosting the Tiger string to their longest since 1949, gave Detroit an 8-1 record and helped the club hold its American League lead at a half-game over Minnesota, which beat Kansas City in a night game, 10-6 in 10 innings with three runs in the ninth and four in the 10th.

Cleveland, with Bubba Phillips slamming his first major league grand slam homer in the sixth inning, whipped Baltimore 5-1 in the only other American League game and moved into sole possession of third place, 2½ games back of Detroit. A scheduled night game between Los Angeles and Chicago's White Sox was postponed by rain and cold.

In the only National League game, Pittsburgh Pirates joined San Francisco and St. Louis in a second place tie—beating Milwaukee 7-6 as Bob Friend, with relief help from Clem Labine, won his third straight game.

Lary, with a 24-8 lifetime against the Yankees, fired a trim seven-hitter and got the punch he needed from rookie Steve Boros and Norm Cash. Boros spanked three hits and drove in two runs and Cash hammered his second home run of the season.

THIRD YANK LOSS

Bob Turley was the loser as the Yanks absorbed their third straight defeat.

The Twins, behind 6-3 after Kansas City scored four runs in the eighth, tied it with three in the ninth on a walk, two singles and an error and then beat reliever Bud Daley in the tenth with four runs, three scoring on Earl Battey's bases-loaded double. Ray Moore was the winner.

The Orioles, with Milt Pappas dueling Cleveland's Jim Perry, held a 1-0 lead until an error by second baseman Marv Breeding opened the door for the Indians in the sixth. Perry was safe on the error, and after Johnny Temple walked, Perry scored on a single by Tito Francona. Baltimore waked Willie Kirkland purposely, loading the bases, and Phillips promptly unloaded them with his grand slam.

PERRY GIVEN HELP

Perry got credit for the victory, helped by Frank Funk, who bailed him out of a bases loaded jam in the eighth.

The Pirates Friend took a 7-4 lead on a five-hitter into the ninth, but singles by Wes Covington and Johnny Logan, a two-base error by shortstop Dick Groat and Charlie Lau's sacrifice fly brought in two runs and also brought in Clem Labine to relieve Friend. He ended the game by retiring Roy McMillan on a grounder.

Pittsburgh scored what turned out to be the deciding run on an unusual play in the eighth. Gino Cimoli beat out an infield hit and raced to third on Groat's single. Reaching third, Cimoli slipped and fell and was caught in a run-down between third and home. He slipped out of the trap, however, and slid in home safe—with the run that turned out to be the winner.

WHOPPERS — The 1961 New Brunswick angling season was only two days old when sisters Dolores, 8 and Deborah, 10, daughters of William Golden of Lakewood, N.B., caught themselves fish stories that would make many a more experienced angler blush with envy. With nothing more costly than alder poles and kitchen string, each caught a whopping 22 inches of fighting-mad brown trout in a small lake near their home. Dad's $35 worth of new equipment availed him nothing. He was reduced to giving good advice: "Back them right onto shore. Don't let them get away." — CP Photo

Excellent badminton witnessed during weekend open city tourney

Prince Rupert Badminton Club's year-end Open City Tournament held from last Friday to Sunday, was termed a complete success.

The tourney featured many entries and gave spectators a chance to witness some excellent shuttle games.

Those who didn't end up in the prizes said that their games were close enough to make them enjoyable.

The club's annual banquet will be held this Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the Islander's (Elks) Hall.

It is open to members and their guests only. Following dinner, a dance will take place. Ticket information will be announced later.

Beavers take slim lead in tight PCL battle

By The Associated Press

Portland Beavers moved into a slim percentage lead in Pacific Coast Baseball League standings by taking advantage of two Tacoma errors Monday night to edge the Giants 3-2.

The win gave Portland a 3-1 record in the young 1961 season. Vancouver Mounties and San Diego Padres follow right on the Beavers' heels with 4-2 marks.

Vancouver also used an error last night to turn back the hometown Padres by an identical 3-2 score. It was San Diego's first loss in five games.

Portland	3	1	.750	-
San Diego	4	2	.667	-
Vancouver	4	2	.667	-
Tacoma	2	2	.500	1
Hawaii	3	3	.500	1
Salt Lake	1	2	.333	1½
Spokane	1	3	.250	2
Seattle	1	4	.200	2½

In the only other game played Hawaii Islanders downed Spokane Indians 3-1 before another small crowd in Honolulu. Only 1,007 fans saw the game.

SNOWED OUT

Snow postponed Seattle's game at Salt Lake City.

Portland beat Tacoma by scoring two of its runs on Giant errors while Vancouver scored its winning run on a San Diego error.

Mountie third baseman Ed Charles singled in pinch runner Noel Mickelsen, a pitcher by trade, with the tying run in the eighth inning.

San Diego centre fielder Mike Hershberger let the ball roll through his legs and Charles reached third. Jim Dyck then followed with a sacrifice fly to give Vancouver the win.

In Honolulu, each team clouted a home run, raising the total of homers in Hawaii's first six home games to 26.

Dave Thies was the winning Hawaii pitcher. It was his second victory of the season.

All teams will see action in four games tonight.

Basilio retires

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Carmen Basilio, his battle-marked face showing the effects of almost 13 years of boxing, started a new life as a gentleman farmer today.

The 34-year-old former world welterweight and middleweight champion announced Monday night that he was finished with the ring for good.

Herbert tops Houston

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Jay Hebert moved on to the Texas open today after winning $7,000 in a sudden - death playoff against Ken Venturi in the Houston Classic to move into fifth place among 1961 money winners on the United States golf trail.

Hebert, from Lafayette, La., sank an eight-foot birdie putt on the first hole of the sudden-death affair Monday to beat Venturi after the Californian tied an 18-hole playoff by picking up three strokes on the last four holes.

Shoots low 70

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Mary Lena Faulk of Sea Island, Ga., shot a three-under-par 70 Sunday to win the $7,000 Babe Zaharias open.

Her 211 for 54 holes was just one stroke off the tournament record of 210 set by Betty Jameson of San Antonio in 1954.

Galt needs one game

GALT, Ont. (CP)—A fluke shot that wasn't even aimed at the goal Monday night put Galt Terriers within a single game of the Canadian senior hockey championship and the Allan Cup.

"I was just trying to throw it in front," a happy Bill Wylie laughed in the dressing room.

But his attempted pass, with less than a minute and a half remaining in the game, deflected off Winnipeg Maroons defenceman Sheldon Bloomer and past astonished goaltender Gord Dibley.

It gave the Terriers the winning goal in a 4-2 victory over the westerners and a 3-1 lead in the best-of-seven series.
