Legion LA executive

Mrs. Victor Duncan was elected president to head the new slate of officers of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Royal Canadian Legion at a meeting held last Thursday with President Dorothy Ballinger in the chair.

With Mrs. J. F. Williams conducting the elections, others nominated were: Mrs. J. S. Black as honorary president, Mrs. Harold Anderson as first vice-president, Mrs. Roy Coswan as second vice-president, Mrs. H. G. Hennessy as secretary, Mrs. Robert Sims as treasurer, Mrs. Michael Karasosky as sergeant-at-arms and Mrs. Black, Mrs. A. J. Bernard and Mrs. C. J. Nicholson as executive members.

A Christmas party will be held December 13 at 8 p.m. in the Legion banquet room, it was reported.

A spoon with the Legion crest on it was presented to Mrs. Williams, who leaves shortly with her family to make her home in Nanaimo. The president thanked her for all her work in the LA and wished her "Good Luck" in her new home.

. . . leaving for two years

Australian trip planned by local young couple

A young city couple, Mr. and Mrs. William Donaldson, 929 Eleventh Avenue East, are leaving on the Northland Navigation boat Canadian Prince Saturday night for Vancouver where they will sail on December 24 on the P and O-Orient Line Ship Orsova to Australia for a two-year visit.

A spirit of adventure and a curiosity to see "how the other half of the world lives" prompts this trip "down-under" by way of Hawaii, Fiji and New Zealand.

Mr. Donaldson, born and brought up in Prince Rupert, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Donaldson, who recently moved to Wellington, Vancouver Island. For the past seven years he has worked in the laboratory of Columbia Cellulose Company, Limited. Mr. Donaldson, more commonly known as "Bill", has been very active in sporting circles — basketball, baseball, badminton and bowling, and particularly active in scouting.

He has been scoutmaster of the Fourth Prince Rupert Troop at Conrad Street School for the last three years and has been a leader at summer camps and training sessions.

The Donaldsons have been married four and a half years. Mrs. Donaldson was the former Bernice Dyer and came from McBride more than six years ago and has been a teacher at Conrad Street School since then. She has also served on the executive of the PTA there.

The couple were feted Saturday night at a farewell party at the home of Mrs. Connie Weise, 228 West Fourth Avenue, given by the staff of the school. They were given a long-play record album.

Other "Bon Voyage" gifts included a pen stand from the Scout District Council, a set of cuff links and tie bar from the Scout troop, a totem pole earring and bracelet set from the Conrad PTA and a travel alarm clock from friends.

At Vancouver, the Donaldson's will be joined by Mrs. Donaldson's younger sister, Dora, and they will have a family reunion in Wellington before embarking on Christmas Eve.

What will your friends think...

. . . if you serve old-fashioned, hard-to-chew pop corn that's full of hulls? (How should we know? We don't know your friends). But you'll have more fun, and so will they, if you serve ever-lovin', easy-eatin', poppin'-tender Jolly Time Pop Corn. Golly, is it ever delicious!

when MONEY is the logical gift... Here are three B of M ways to say "Merry Christmas"

Sometimes a gift of money is the only realistic answer to a Christmas shopping problem. If money is the answer to some names on your list — see the B of M. "My Bank" can provide you with a way to give that takes the chill off cold cash and trims your gift of money with festive decorations.

1. YOUNGSTERS' AND BABIES' PASSBOOKS make a delightful extra for some of the small fry on your list. Your gift of money is entered in a special passbook and enclosed in a Christmas cover guaranteed to make young eyes pop with glee.

2. MONEY ORDERS purchased for Christmas-giving come in gally-decorated envelopes or folders that clearly spell out your Yuletide wish. Ideal for those "hard-to-buy-for" people on your out-of-town and overseas gift lists.

3. SPECIAL CHRISTMAS CHEQUES are available in two colourful holiday designs — one for personal and one for business giving. They are "gift-wrapped" in a bright cover that glows with the spirit of the season.
