Eddie Cantor anti-camels

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A group of Arabs doesn't worry Eddie Cantor.

An Arab organization in Syria announced it was boycotting Cantor's films because of what it called his "Zionist affiliations and material support of Israel."

Said the comedian: "If they wish to boycott my pictures I just won't buy their camels."

Cantor has another reason for not worrying: He hasn't made a picture in 15 years.

Ex-premier dies

HAMILTON — Harry Corwin Nixon, 70, who served the lengthiest term in the legislature and the shortest in the premier's chair in Ontario history, suffered a heart attack while driving Sunday night and died. For close to 42 years he was a member of the legislature. At his death, he was Liberal member for Brant riding.

DUNNVILLE, Ont. — Judy La Marsh, Liberal member of the Commons, for Niagara Falls, said Sunday night Prime Minister Diefenbaker never told Parliament the truth about the government's nuclear policy.

She told a Dunnville Liberal Association rally that it just slipped out yesterday when the Bomarc missiles were delivered at North Bay that there is not and never has been a non-nuclear warhead for the Bomarc."

The bidding:

North	East	South	West
1 ♦	Pass	1 ♠	Pass
2 ♣	Pass	3 ♠	Pass
4 ♠	Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening lead: Four of ♥

The key to successful defence in today's hand is that play which is the mark of the bridge novice—the ruff and sluff. In order to defeat the four spade contract, East and West had to resort to this maneuver not once but twice.

The first round of bidding met with all specifications, but North's single raise does not do justice to the holding. His hand is worth 18 points, and a strong rebid is in order. A jump raise should be avoided, with only three trumps, so our choice would have been for a jump to three diamonds. It was North's very good fortune that South chose to bid again, for his hand just barely qualified for such action.

West led the four of hearts, and East cashed two tricks in that suit before settling down to some intensive campaigning. It was apparent that no tricks in the minor suits were available to the defence, for if declarer lacked the missing honors they were easily finessable.

The only hope was to develop two trump tricks. That nature had not provided East and West with such a natural holding was a reasonable assumption, but East by artificial methods might build up a trump trick for his partner. With this in mind, he continued a third round of hearts. If declarer ruffs in his own hand, he merely postpones the agony.
