Three games played at Civic Centre

Several hundred children and adults packed the Civic Centre last night as the city's newly - formed Minor Basketball League was officially declared open.

Commissioner Les Stevens welcomed fans and then introduced the six teams in the 10-13 years bracket and four teams in the 14-16 years bracket.

MLA for Prince Rupert, Bill Murray, then spoke to the crowd and expressed his hopes for a successful season.

Mr. Murray told the young ball players that they were the "athletes of tomorow" and said in years to come "you'll probably bring recognition to Prince Rupert."

He said that the boys' forerunners always played well and had brought certain fame to the city. "I'm sure you can and will uphold this tradition," Mr. Murray added.

Commissioner Stevens urged all parents and friends to attend the games which will be played Mondays from 6-9 p.m. and Saturdays from 9-11 a.m. and 1-4 p.m.

Three games were played last night and two were won by fairly wide margins while the third was taken by a single point.

In the opening 10-13 years game, Annunciation A scored a single point in the overtime period to edge Philpott Evitt 13-12.

John Bond led the Annunciation club with six points while Joe Salvati helped with four. They fought back from a 10-8 deficit in the third quarter to win the ball game.

Brad Barbour and Skip Stothert led the losers with four points each.

In the second game between 14-16 years teams, Ernie Baines netted 13 points to lead Broadway Cafe to a 33-22 victory over Annunciation No. 1.

Wayne Haldane topped Annunciation's scoring with 10 points.

The third game of the night, a 14-16 years contest, saw Rupert Motors romp to a 32-14 win over Deane Cleaners.

Allen Mah was the big gun for the carmen with 10 points.

Ken Humperville and Art Pattison tallied four each in a losing cause.

Next action of the league takes place Saturday morning.
