LOOM enrols 16 new members

Sixteen new members were enrolled in the Loyal Order of the Moose last Tuesday at an impressive ceremony held in honor of Pilgrim Brother B. J. Bacon.

Mr. Bacon has been an active member of this lodge for 35 years and has obtained their highest degree.

Gilbert Gaudry was asked to act as class representative and the ceremony was conducted by the newly formed Ritual Team of Brothers J. L. Blain, W. B. McCallum, P. D. McKee, Ronald Vaselenak, R. E. Viereck, H. R. Walker and Peter Wanner, under the guidance of Ritual Director Brother J. L. Blain and Ritual Chairman Brother W. H. Sharp.

New members enrolled were: Ejnar Christiansen, William Misich, J. N. Samoladas, E. L. Kapos, Loukas Papaloukas, C. A. Edgar, E. S. Russell, Olinto Chittaro, A. B. MacPhail, G. M. Brown, K. S. Scheueman, L. G. Booth, Gilbert Gaudry, O. E. Barker and William Kapchynski.

At a social hour which followed, Governor K. F. Hardy was presented with a merit award for the year 1960-61.

Mr. and Mrs. EDWARD FREDERICK GOUDSWARD

Former Prince Rupert girl becomes bride of Surrey man

Of interest to Prince Rupert and North Surrey was the wedding on September 8 of Edith Olene Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arne S. Olson, formerly of Prince Rupert, and Edward Frederick Goudsward, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Goudsward, of North Surrey.

For the candlelight service in the Johnstone Heights Evangelical Free Church, North Surrey, the bride wore a white brocade gown, featuring a large bow at back, scooped neckline and lily point sleeves. Her headpiece was a crown of pearls with a shoulder length circular nylon tulle veil. Her bouquet was baby carnations set around a large orchid on a bible.

Her three sisters were her attendants. Matron of honor was Mrs. J. E. Kurtz (Marie) of Prince Rupert, and Misses Joey and Anne Olson of North Surrey were bridesmaids.

They were identically gowned in cocktail length silk organza dresses, with white velvet cicular headpieces, and carried white gladioli.

Groomsman was John Goudsward, brother of the groom, and Albert Young of Brooks, Alta., and Merritt Stevenson were ushers.

A reception in the lower main floor of the church followed the wedding. The bridal table was covered with a white lace tablecover which was crocheted by the bride's mother, and the three - tiered wedding cake was baked by Mrs. Martin Fladseth of Prince Rupert.

For a motor trip to California, the bride wore a deep sea-blue suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Goudsward attended school in Prince Rupert and graduated from Booth Memorial High School. She worked in the Bank of Montreal here and is now at the Bank of Montreal in New Westminster.

Mr. Goudsward is employed in the office of the Timberland Lumber Division of Canadian Colleries Resources Ltd.

They will reside in North Surrey.

Mrs. Denis Rowse wins flower setting prize

Mrs. Denis J. Rowse of 310 Fourth Avenue West was awarded the $25 T. Norton Youngs prize for the best table flower arrangement Saturday night as the Prince Rupert Garden Club held its season windup banquet in La Gondola Cafe.

Alderman Youngs presented Mrs. Rowse with her prize for a stunning collection of varied-colored dahlias. He complimented her on her entry and also spoke highly of the Garden Club's efforts to beautify the city.

Garden Club president Cornelius Vernaar, welcomed members and guests and said that the club had ordered 4,000 tulip bulbs, which will be made available to club members.

Mayor P. J. Lester told the members that gardening in Prince Rupert was difficult but necessary.

"We need all the beauty we can get here," the mayor said adding that the city was fortunate in having such a dedicated group of citizens and Parks Commission."

H. S. Harrison, chairman of the Parks Commission outlined the work of the commission this year, noting that a picnic and camping site had been operated "very successfully this summer." He said plans called for the centralization of all outdoor sports in Algoma Park and the Parks Commission would be lending its support to the Prince Rupert Golf Club's course in that area.

William J. Toderas showed a movie on home landscaping to conclude the evening.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Payne, former residents of the city, left Wednesday by plane for their home in Victoria after a week's visit here with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Payne, 726 Fifth Avenue West.

It is hoped that a Study Discussion Program in the Liberal Arts, which is popularly called "Living Room Learning," will begin here in Prince Rupert next month.

"Living Room Learning" is a noncredit program in liberal education offered to residents in British Columbia. Its central purpose is to liberalize the human mind and spirit. It aims at helping the adult gain understanding and insight. Over a dozen topics are offered in ths program. It is designed for discussion groups. Participants receive a kit of study material which helps them prepare beforehand for the group discussions.

There are forty-two communities conducting "Living Room Learning" groups in British Columbia. This is under the supervision of the Extension Department, University of British Columbia and under the local leadership of Dr. R. W. K. Elliott.

Also if there is a sufficient demand by adults for high school classes at night school, steps will be taken to organize such classes. All courses for credit shall be at the Grade 10 level or above. If you are interested in a night school course for academic credit, please phone the Director of Adult Education, 5031 or 5112.
