Reds clinch berth in World Series

Machen No.2 contender

NEW YORK (AP) — Eddie Machen of Portland, Ore., replaced Britain's Henry Cooper as No. 2 heavyweight contender in the new Ring magazine boxing ratings released today.

Ring editor Nat Fleischer made the shift after Machen's impressive knockout of Mike Dejohn of Syracuse, N.Y., and Cooper's idleness. Sonny Liston of Philadelphia is ranked first.

Cooper is ranked No. 1 among challengers for Floyd Patterson's world crown by the National Boxing Association, which dropped Liston out of the ratings because of his suspension by Pennsylvania.

Bob Cleroux of Montreal held his No. 6 position in the heavyweight field, while Toronto's George Chuvalo slipped to eighth spot from seventh.

The August ratings of the National Boxing Association put Chuvalo in third place and Cleroux eighth.

Ring shows two new No. 1 contenders in other divisions. Rafiu King of Nigeria was made the leading challenger in the featherweight division following his knockout of European champion Gracieux Lamperti of France. The Frenchman who had been No. 1, was demoted to second.

Carlos Ortiz of New York was promoted to No. 1 in the lightweight class for his victory over Doug Vaillant of Cuba. Dave Charnley of England was moved down to second from first.

Maris wallops 60th home run

"Reds si, Yankees no." That was the main theme as Cincinnati fans celebrated the Reds' first National League pennant in 21 years with a rash of superlatives for their heroes and a deep bow in the direction of pitcher Joe Gibbon of Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Reds beat Chicago Cubs 6-3 Tuesday, earning a tie for the pennant, then had to wait for Gibbon to clinch things by eliminating the second-place Los Angeles Dodgers with a one-hitter.

The victory, an 8-0 shutout after the Dodgers had remained in contention with a 5-3 win in the first game of a night doubleheader, sent the Reds into the world series against New York Yankees of the American League. The best-of-seven series starts in New York, next Wednesday.

Ace reliever Jim Brosnan (10-3) won the honor of nailing down Cincinnati's pennant. Brosnan set the Cubs down on one hit over the final three innings, while Jerry Lynch provided the winning runs with a two-run homer in the eighth that snapped a 3-3 tie.

In the only other league game, Milwaukee Braves beat St. Louis Cardinals 9-2; with Joe Adcock's three-run homer in the first inning off Ray Sadecki (14-10) giving Lew Burdette (16-10) a cushion he never relinquished.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

And now for No. 61.

Roger Maris, who hit his 60th homer Tuesday night as New York Yankees beat Baltimore Orioles 3-2, has four games remaining in which to get the home run that will make him the most productive one-season homer belter in major league baseball history.

He gets his first shot at No. 61 today against the Orioles' Steve Barber (17-12). He takes a day off Wednesday before resuming his efforts to surpass Babe Ruth's 60-homer total of 1927 with a three-game set against Boston Red Sox that closes out the 162-game schedule.

No. 60 for Maris was a high-arching shot off a 2-2 pitch by Baltimore righthander Jack Fisher in the third inning. It gave the Yankee outfielder the distinction of joining the Bambino as the only 60-homer hitters in the game.

Maris hit his 60th four games too late to qualify for an official tie with Ruth's record under the 154-decision limit set by Commissioner Ford Frick. Tuesday nights game was the Yanks' 159th, including one tie.

Kansas City Athletics beat Detroit Tigers 8-5, Cleveland Indians defeated Minnesota Twins 7-3, Washington Senators nipped Los Angeles Angels 3-2 despite a five-hitter thrown by loser Ted Bowsfield of Penticton, B.C., and Chicago White Sox and Boston Red Sox split a doubleheader. Chicago won the first game 7-5 and Boston took the nightcap by the same score.

Moss enters Canada's first Grand Prix

TORONTO (CP)—The first sports car Grand Prix of Canada, scheduled for Mosport Park Saturday, is shaping up as a battle between Italy and Britain.

The two countries, arch rivals for decades in motor racing, will be represented on the grid of the $750,000 track by the most powerful selection of racing machinery ever seen in this country.

In numbers, Italy holds the edge, with eight Ferraris. They will face three British Lotus 19s. Only one, that driven by Britain's Stirling Moss, will bear the British racing green. One will be Belgium's yellow with Olivier Gendebien in the cockpit while the third will be the white and green of Canada with Peter Ryan of Mont Tremblant, Que., behind the wheel.

Recognized as the world's best by his rivals, Moss is favored to take the winner's share of $10,000 for the 100-lap race.

Honolulu (AP)— Stan Harrington, 152, Honolulu, defeated Ed Hickman, 157, Los Angeles (10).

Backstrom scores pair as Habs swamp Canucks

By The Canadian Press

All three National Hockey League teams which played exhibition games Tuesday night came out on top, two of them with victories over Western League clubs.

Montreal Canadiens overpowered the Canucks 5-1 in Vancouver and Detroit Red Wings defeated the Stampeders 4-1 in Calgary. New York Rangers beat Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League 5-2 in Hamilton, Ont.

With Ralph Backstrom scoring two goals and an assist, Canadiens led throughout their game. Henri Richard, Jean Beliveau and rookie Bob Ellet contributed singles. Vancouver's only goal came from playing-coach Phil Maloney in the third period.

Veteran Jacques Plante and rookie Cesare Maniago turned aside 27 shots at the Montreal net. Vancouver's Claude Evans stopped 17.

SCORES THREE GOALS

Forward Parker MacDonald scored three goals in Detroit's win. He scored the only goal in the first period, matched goals with Calgary's Ron Leopold in the second and scored again in the third seconds before teammate Eddie Litzenberger scored the final goal.

Since starting their pre-season exhibition tours to the west six years ago, the Red Wings have not lost a game against a WHL team.

Terry Sawchuk and Hank Bassen stopped a total of 22 shots for Detroit, while Calgary rookie Ken Baum and Art Lariviere handled 35 for the Stampeders.

Another three-goal man was New York right - winger Ken Schinkel. Bob Cunningham and Camile Henry fired the other two for the Rangers. Gary Jarret scored one Rochester goal and assisted on another by Alex Faulkner.

In the American Hockey League exhibition game at Port Colborne, Ont., Springfield Indians downed Pittsburgh Hornets 5-2 to take their second straight win.

Floyd Smith scored two goals for the Indians. The others came from Jim Anderson, Norm Price and Bill Sweeney. Bo Elik came up with both Hornet goals.

WHL all-star meet

SEATTLE (CP) — The fifth annual Western Hockey League all-star game will be played January 8 in Portland, home of the defending league champions.

The league announced today team coaches will select northern and southern division all-star clubs, each being allowed to vote for any players but those on his own team.

BOOM BOOM SIGNED UP — Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion, ace scorer of the Montreal Canadiens, flourishes the contract he signed with the team after a brief hassle in Montreal recently. No details of the agreement were released. The 30-year-old right winger later joined the rest of the club at hockey training camp in Victoria. — CP Wirephoto
