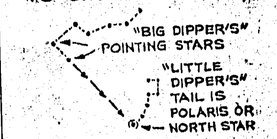
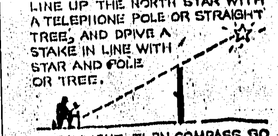
FIND TRUE NORTH TO USE COMPASS



YOU CAN LOCATE TRUE NORTH FROM ANYWHERE IN NORTHERN HEMISPHERE BY FOLLOWING BIG DIPPER'S POINTING STARS TO THE POLARIS OR NORTH STAR. THEN LINE UP THE NORTH STAR WITH A TELEPHONE POLE OR STRAIGHT TREE, AND DRIVE A STAKE IN LINE WITH STAR AND POLE OR TREE.



IN DAYLIGHT, TURN COMPASS SO ITS NORTH POINT IS FROM STAKE TO POLE (TRUE NORTH). COUNT DEGREES BETWEEN THE NEEDLE & MAGNETIC NORTH TO FIND ITS DEVIATION. USE THIS CORRECTION TO FOLLOW MAPS BY COMPASS.

BIRTHDAY MARKED — Former Bank of Canada Governor James E. Coyne was 51 Monday. He and his wife, with six-month-old Andrew, held no special celebrations. The family have now left for a holiday at Lake-of-the-Woods, Ont. — CP Wirephoto

The bidding:

North	East	South	West
1 NT	3 ♦	4 ♥	Double
Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening lead: Jack of ♣.

Failure to sever his opponents communications lines proved fatal to declarer in today's hand.

North opened with one no trump and East elected to make a pre-emptive jump to three diamonds. In view of his highly unbalanced distribution East felt that his opponents were not likely to remain in no trump and he wished to impede any easy exploration for a major suit fit. South, of course, had no problem inasmuch as he had intended to bid four hearts from the beginning. West's double was doubtful strategy for his partner had promised no defensive strength and it was even possible that the king of hearts might turn up in dummy.

The bidding had marked South as very short in diamonds, so West decided to try for a club ruff and opened the jack of that suit. Declarer won in dummy in order to lead the jack of trumps in a hurry. East showed out and West won with the queen and continued the club.

South won and led another trump which was taken by the ace. West then led the ten of diamonds, which East overtook. The club return defeated the contract.

While the defense was very capable, South could have spiked the attack by a neat though simple bit of strategy. It is evident that unless the opposition gets in a club ruff the contract will be made but West cannot obtain the ruff unless he can reach his partner's hand. The only means of communication is the diamond suit. Declarer's first assignment should, therefore, have been to break up the connection between the two hands.

This could have been done by leading a diamond immediately at trick two. No matter who wins this trick, declarer will take the return and start the process of extracting trumps. East cannot subsequently obtain the lead and the club ruff never comes off.

LONDON (AP) — The sun came out in St. James's Park and waitress Irene Newton stripped off her jeans and two sweaters and started sunbathing in a makeshift bikini.

The bikini top was her bra, the bottom was a small yellow silk scarf that she wrapped around her.

Park keeper James Curtis told a court Wednesday Irene got up and started dancing, her yellow scarf flapping in the breeze.

He told her to get dressed.

Instead, she ran. Irene, 37, was fined £2 for behaving in a manner likely to offend public decency.

Too many cooks won't spoil THIS baking!

Co-op flour loves to be worked with because of its high gluten content. Gluten is a gluey protein—the tough elastic substance that holds your dough together and helps make baking light and fluffy. The more you work with Co-op flour—the more gluten action you get. Win praises from your family with light, fluffy homemade treats! Use Co-op flour—available only at your Co-op!

Co-op flour is pre-sifted—has been for years. However, any flour tends to "settle" once it is packaged! A little home sifting on your part fluffs it up and ensures accurate measurements when they are absolutely necessary!
