Opening lead: King of ♠

The declarer in today's hand was up against the question of locating the jack of trumps and succeeded in obviating the problem by a simple little ruse.

The final contract of four hearts was slightly on the optimistic side, but the hand is admittedly difficult to bid. The two diamond response is acceptable and the rebid of two hearts is routine. North felt that he had just a little too much to give up and commit the hand to a part score so he decided to make one more move. Inasmuch as the hearts had been rebid he decided his holding was adequate trump support and offered a rather questionable raise to three hearts. South had ample reason for going on to game.

The king of spades was opened and taken with the ace. The success of the ambitious contract depended upon the ability to pick up the jack of trumps. As can be seen, the finesse can be taken in either direction. But rather than commit himself at once, declarer hit upon a simple method of getting the opponents to lead trumps for him.

He promptly returned a spade in order to give the impression that he desired to use dummy's hearts for ruffing spades. There was no way for West to know that his partner had six spades and from the bidding it did not appear that the jack of hearts would be a very vital card, inasmuch as the trump suit had beenrebid by declarer. West, therefore, fell into the trap and returned a heart. From this point on it was clear sailing for the declarer.
