

CITY ASSESSOR RESIGNS; COUNCIL EXPRESSES REGRET

RESIGNATION OF J. C. McLENNAN, CITY ASSESSOR AND COLLECTOR, WAS ACCEPTED BY COUNCIL LAST NIGHT—PRIVATE BUSINESS DEMANDS HIS ATTENTION.

It will come as a surprise to most of the citizens to learn that a letter was read at last evening's meeting of the Council from Assessor and Collector J. C. McLennan announcing his resignation. Great regret was expressed by the Mayor and aldermen at the necessity of the course that this efficient and capable city official found it necessary in his own interests to take. A motion embodying these expressions was passed by the Council. Subjoined is a copy of the letter received from Mr. McLennan.

To the Mayor and City Council, Prince Rupert, B. C.

Gentlemen: For the reason that I have private business which requires my attention, I hereby tender you my resignation as assessor and collector for the City of Prince Rupert, and would ask that you kindly make it go into effect at the end of the month, or as soon after as you can arrange.

It is not without feelings of regret that I sever my connection with the city. Looking back to July, 1910, when I took office, I recall the many courtesies that have been shown me, and the many expressions of good will that have from time to time been conveyed to me by those whom I sought to serve and the consideration that has at all times been manifested toward me by the Councils of 1910, 1911 and 1912, and the citizens of Prince Rupert generally.

I must chiefly thank my staff for any measure of success that I may have had, as their assistance has made the office efficient. Wishing the Council of 1913 all success and the City of Prince Rupert all prosperity, I remain, Very truly yours,

J. C. McLENNAN,
Assessor and Collector.

ALASKA FIGHTING SHIPPING COMBINE

Juneau, Alaska, Jan. 20.—A jury is being drawn in the Federal court for trial of the wharf and steamship corporations and officials indicted in February, 1912, for alleged conspiracy to control the sale of coal, the wharfage and interior freight shipments at Skagway, Alaska, in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. The defendants are the North Pacific Wharves and Trading Company, the Pacific & Arctic Railway and Navigation Company, the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, C. E. Wynn, John-son, Iro Bronson, J. C. Ford, president of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company; J. W. Smith and C. E. Houston, general manager of the Pacific Coast Coal Company. Three men indicted—A. L. Berdoo, formerly vice president and general manager of the White Pass & Yukon Railway Company; E. E. Billingshurst and W. H. Hansen—were never arrested, and are believed to be in Canada.

The defendants contend that the shrinkage of trade in Skagway made it good business to close four wharves and operate only one, as all five had been operated at a loss.

The music, which proves such an attraction at this popular house, was as good as ever. Prince Rupert is certainly to be congratulated on the excellence of her show houses, in which line she compares most favorably with any city in the province, no matter what the population.

DETECTIVE SHOT AND KILLED IN PERFORMANCE OF DUTY

SAD CLIMAX IN SEARCH FOR AUTO BANDITS AT CHICAGO—ASSASSIN ESCAPED IN CROWD—ONE BANDIT UNDER ARREST.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—A sad climax was reached today in the search for the four auto bandits who recently held up one of the leading downtown jewelry stores in broad daylight and escaped after a running revolver fight with the police. Detective Peter Hart was today shot and killed as he entered a flat at 1617 Wabash avenue for the purpose of arresting Booth Webb, an accomplice of James Perry, one of the confessed bandits now under arrest. The detective was shot through the heart with his own revolver, supposedly by one of the bandits. The assassin, after shooting Hart, leaped through the window to an adjoining roof, ran the length of a block, went down a stairway and escaped in the crowd.

Usually the day following Christmas brings with it unpleasant recollections of friends who have been inadvertently overlooked in the matter of Christmas gifts. Isn't it fortunate that New Year's Day follows so closely and gives us an opportunity to make amends for our oversights during the Christmas rush. While the past week's shopping made very heavy inroads into our stock, the assortments in each line are practically unbroken. We have a large range of beautiful things for New Year's gifts.
