MAMMOTH PLAN TO HELP LABOR IN GREAT BRITAIN

Co-operative Forces and Organized Labor to Unite—Over Five Million People in Scheme. London, Jan. 22.—A serious and determined movement is on foot in Great Britain to form one of the greatest industrial combinations ever organized by the working classes of any nation. It is proposed to combine the co-operative forces of the country, representing 2,750,000 people, and organized labor, numbering 2,250,000, in a working fusion. Should this scheme come to fruition, millions of pounds sterling invested by trade unions and other affiliated organizations will be added to the $185,000,000 share capital of the co-operators, and $90,000,000 loan and reserve, backed by the ever increasing profits on the turnover. If all the present and suggested plans are success, the aims and ideals of two great wings of the labor movement will be co-ordinated and united action will be taken industrially, socially and in legislative matters. The leading bodies in this vast scheme are the Trades Union Congress, the general federation of trade unions, the Labor party and the co-operative societies of the United Kingdom. In many respects the work of these bodies overlap. Money which is spent for educational and social works is often wasted. It is recognized that this tremendous venture on the part of united labor will take years to organize before any definite practical results can be effected. The step is to be taken in the course of a few days, when the co-operative unions will meet to consider the question, prior to calling a joint gathering of all other important organizations concerned. The points which will come under consideration embrace a study of how the organizations of each section can be co-ordinated for education, industrial and parliamentary purposes, with what practical steps should be taken to secure control of industry, commerce, enabling the working people to solve the problem of labor unrest for themselves. Co-operative association executives are enthusiastic in their devotion to a successful issue of the movement, because they believe fields untouched by co-operative enterprise would be opened and they could enter industries which at the present moment are solely under private control.

McCarty Awaiting Public's Demands. Fighter Draws Color Line with Ink That Can Be Easily Erased—Will Fight Johnson If Public Demands It. Los Angeles, Jan. 21.—Luther McCarty has drawn the color line with ink a long way from being indelible. In other words, he is getting ready for a scrap with Johnson when "the public demands it." Asked if there was any possibility of his ever fighting Jack Johnson, McCarty had this to say: "When I accepted the heavy-weight championship belt I agreed to an unwritten clause that I should never fight a negro. The idea of this series of scraps was to pick out a white champion and keep the title in the white race. Well, I'm going to live up to my contract. "I have no doubt that I can beat Jack Johnson, Sam Langford or any other fighter in the world. I know I can win from any one of them or all of them. But I shall never try—excepting on one condition, and that is when the public demands the match. "If my right to the championship is still under a cloud and if the public demands that I fight a negro, then I must do it. As long as I am in the fight game I must do as the public demands. They pay the money that makes fighting profitable. They ought to get what they want. "I have just ninety-one offers of theatrical engagements, but have not yet signed any contracts, nor even decided which one I will sign. In any event, I shall take a trip to the mountains and enjoy a rest. After that I'll probably put on a rope throwing act in vaudeville. Beyond that I have not decided. "As for the story about my having left a wife and child to shift for themselves, I have nothing to say." Billy McCarty, manager of

McCarty, says that the rest in the mountains will not be for more than ten days, and after that McCarty would be sent before the footlights for several weeks. He showed contracts, unsigned by the score and asserted that he could sign up McCarty for $1,500 a week in several places. McCarty probably will open his theatrical engagement in Los Angeles, jumping from here to San Francisco and then east.

The dramatic critic of the Louisville Courier-Journal is obsessed with mathematical accuracy. He says of an actress who recently appeared in that city: "Miss Mills was extremely attractive in three-and-a-half handsome toilets."

WILLARD IN BAD WITH BOXING COMMISSION

Chicago, Jan. 22.—Jess Willard is "in bad" with the New York boxing commission. It came about through his not appearing in Buffalo to keep his agreement with the Bison City promoters to box "One Round" Davis. Charley Harvey, secretary of the commission, wired Charles Cutler, Willard's manager, that Willard would have to present himself before that body on Jan. 15. Willard was not there in person, as he had a match at Fort Wayne on January 22, and said he would not break training.

The trouble started when Jess passed up his match with Davis for New Year's Day. Irving Smith was supposed to represent Willard and made the match against the advice of Jess. When Smith notified Willard that he had made the match Jess agreed to go through with it. However, when Davis and Kearns boxed and the Buffalo club announced that the winner was to meet the Chicago boy it made the big fellow sore to think that the club was using him as an ad.
