Penticton mayor gives in after vetoing vote twice

PENTICTON (CP)—Mayor Charles E. Oliver of Penticton says he will abide by a decision of city council to order $6,000 of waterpipe for an extension of an auxiliary domestic water intake in Okanagan Lake.

Mayor Oliver twice had overruled previous council votes to west Passage. The schooner is now mounted on a concrete brought up to the standard of high level reservoir at Montreal purchase the pipe.

Monday he said: "I'm only the cradle as part of a $550,000 mamayor. I can only recommend rine museum built as Vancouver's what should be done. Council main centennial year project last
