VANCOUVER (CP)—The royal elevator wouldn't work; the pull cord over a plaque failed to function; the kids got mixed up around the maypole; the sabots of the Dutch dancers flew off; and the new Queen Elizabeth Theatre was nearly misnamed.

But if its slips were showing, Vancouver's heart was in the ment board, announced that the right place Wednesday when the Queen had graciously consented Queen and Prince Philip came to the structure being named to town for 12 crowded public the "Royal ..." He corrected

The formal program may have gone awry, but the informal wore a turquoise blue silk topprogram—the welcome by thousands lining the streets—was a roaring success.

Police and soldiers twice had straw and white chiffon. to force back enthusiastic WHITE SATIN GOWN crowds during the Queen's tour of the lower mainland.

Police called for all available motorcycles to help clear a path functions was far below expecfor the royal car as the Queen tations. lest the Vancouver Hotel after a civic luncheon.

veteran sergeant.

HEAD FOR ISLAND Queen looked relieved to board lience. the destroyer Assiniboine Wed-west of Vancouver, at 10 a.m. as 10 deep.

sun shone directly into her eyes prominent classical performers. before closing time one boat- aska Highway Nurseries, and he stadium but this time the Queen attention—and held it. beige parasol.

just like a bus commuter. NO RESULTS

The pull cord for a curtain over a plaque being unveiled to mark the opening of a new tunnel under the Fraser River didn't' work properly when the Queen yanked it. She had to pull! the curtain back by hand.

At the Theatre Under The Stars, RCMP motorcycles drowned out the opening chorus, causing the Queen to glance in the direction of the noise.

At the naming of the new Queen Elizabeth Theatre, R. T. Rose, chairman of the manage-

FAST RELIEF FOR

Come to

TO SEE THE

Saturday, July 18th

Y-LOCAL EVENTS-

Square Dance Jamboree

Klondike Night Dance

Fishing and Golfing

Open Air Bingo

Trapshoot

• $1000 Baseball Tournament

Tours to the Naas Lava Beds

Tours to the Lakelse Hot Springs

50 Piece Aiyansh Brass Band

Campsites

himself hastily.

During the day, the Queen coat over a turquoise blue and white printed dress with pleated skirt. Her small hat was of white '

For dinner at the University of British Columbia Faculty At the opening of Deas Is- Club she wore a white satin land tunnel south of New West- | evening gown with bodice and ' minster 50 members of the RCMP | hem appliqued with rose-colored and 100 soldiers were needed to lace reembroidered with pink hold back the crowd while the crystals. She also wore a dia-Queen unveiled a plaque. The mond and pearl tiara and neckcrowd had burst through the lace and large pearl tear-drop /

Attendance at the formal

Some 10,000 children had been expected at Empire Stadium in "It's the worst crowd situa- the afternoon but less than half! tion since Elvis Presly," said one that number attended. The Theatre Under The Stars performance of The Chocolate Sold-After the strenuous#day, the | ier did not draw a capacity aud- |

nesday night for a leisurely especially at noon hour, pres- Rod and Gun club derby. cruise to Nanaimo where she will sed forward to force a showdown | Fifty dollars were won in prize begin a two-day visit to Van- in the royal motorcade. Throngs money, and folk were fishing Lake hospital since two days and she couldn't see the mapole. There was also a five-member load came in with five char, all came to see two apple trees that dancers. The seating arrange-Spanish flamenco group, and it weighing about 15 pounds. ment was repeated later at the was this that captured the royal | Glen Wiley of Southbank won spring.

plaintive tenor singing of Spain. Richard went rowing with his ingly posed to be photographed. of the small group danced foot- which he couldn't handle from

There was a shouted cheer from the audience as the Queen and prince waved, then Reg. T Rose, chairman of the management board, told the applauding audience that the Queen had consented to the use of her name for the auditorium.

For the remainder of the half-Vancouver and a choir of more than 120 voices in a Gloria by Antonio Vivaldi.

Prince Rupert Daily News Thursday, July 16, 1959

CAROL AND SHEILA CARTER, talented daughters of Wilf Carter, are billed on the "Wilf Carter Show" tonight to be held in the Civic Centre beginning at 8:30. The teenagers do ballet and tap dancing, sing and yodel as well as play the guitar and accordion. Wilf in almost three decades of singing and yodeling has recorded more than 300 of his own compositions. The all-star cast of ten presents a program of family entertainment. The show will be repeated tomorrow night.

Vews

By AGNES II. NEAVE Daily News Correspondent

FRANCOIS LAKE—The Landing was a busy place all day Sunday, packed with cars and trailers But in the streets the crowds, which brought folk to enter the Tweedsmuir Park around the Hotel Vancouver, from eight in the morning until after their arrival. On Sunday The royal couple was to dis- where the Queen attended a eight at night. The first to come we received word that she has embark at Nanaimo, 40 miles civic luncheon, were as much in were Chuck Rolston and Ellis a baby boy. Christie with four char, in all and reach Victoria at 3:45 p.m. To entertain the royal couple weighing 65 pounds. The larg- Mr. Harry Giles and Mr. Jim They will leave Saturday morn-and an almost capacity audience est weighed 18 pounds and won Dalzell of Dawson Creek stayed ing for two days in Northern of about 2,700 in the city's new first prize for Chuck Rolston two days with us last week. $6,000,000 auditorium, there was All were caught on a No. 8 Gibbs They are on their way home The troubles began Wednes- a massive mixed choir, full con- Stewart, in less than two hours. after attending the Synod of day right off the bat when the cert orchestra with two condur- Albert Marshall won second the Anglican Church in Prince Queen was seated so that the tors, and two of Canada's most prize with a 16 pounder. Just Rupert. Mr. Giles has the Al-first prize for rainbow trout came prepared—she raised her Both the Queen and the prince with one weighing two-and-aleaned forward intently as mem- half pounds, with Bob Tymchuk from Alberni to spend part of The elevator in the Vancouver bers of the Ximenez-Vargas coming second with one weigh- their holidays in their cottage Hotel wouldn't work after the dance troupe rose slowly from a ing one pound 15 ounces. Bob here by the lake. They find that Queen got in to ascend to the sunken pit on one of the theatre's has recently come from Prince a mother and family of ground 14th floor. She had to transfer, five elevated stages. There was Rupert and is holidaying here hogs have moved into the builda conspicuous whir of machin- with his family.

ery, the strum of a guitar and a Our nine-year-old grandson They are quite tame and oblig-As the royal couple watched mother in one of our small boats. the babies sitting around their with obvious interest, members He caught a six-pound char mother in a delightful group. stamping flamenco and sang. the boat so they beached the The royal couple entered their boat and managed to get it after with Countess and Mollie on the box-type seats in a wing of the a tussle. The Rod and Gun club old-fashioned mower. Over the balcony after a fanfare by the gave him a special prize of $2 fence from him Neil Kelly is brass section of the 65-piece so he is the happiest boy around here tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Cummins called in on their way home to Prince Rupert by way of Nadina, on their way to Houston by the Owen Lake

Visitors from Prince Rupert hour show. Sir Ernest MacMillan camping near the Calder home of Toronto, violinist Betty-Jean are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Tymchuk in Hagen of Edmonton and the or-land their children Allan, Gail chestra played a Mozart rondo, and Susan; their friend Ronnie while soprano Lois Marshall of Irvine; and also Mr. and Mrs. Norman, Sandra and Kevin.

> Bill Anderson called in on Sunday morning on his way home from Shaughnessy where he had been under observation for several days. Margaret, his wife, 20 miles down the lake.

Vivien Caton, whose home is in Yorkshire, England, and Jean, Hodges from Suffolk, are with the Anglican Sunday School van and are working in this dis-

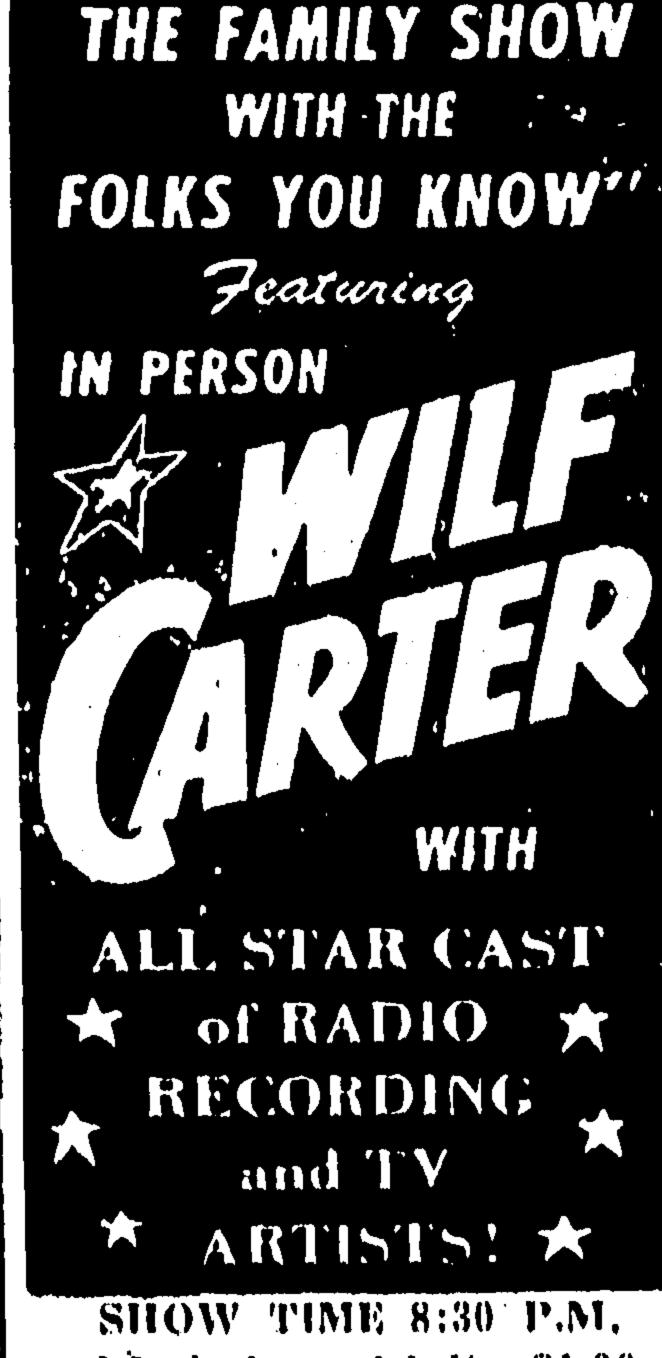

Marion Mummery, Mr. and Mrs. John Keefe's eldest daughter, and her family of four boys i and one girl, drove from Prince George to spend a few days here two weeks ago. Marion was taken ill and has been in the Burns we had bought from him this!

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reed drove ings belonging to their ranch.

Hugh has been cutting hay starting with his hay crop, with all the modern machinery, baler. (Continued on page 5)

TONITE and FRIDAY PRINCE RUPERT CIVIC CENTRE

SHOW TIME 8:30 P.M. Admission: Adults $1.00 Children (under 12) 50e

Larger bowl-fit beaters for higher, lighter, finertextured cakes, fluffler mashad potatoes. Saves tima, armwork.

Now in 5 attractive colors Black and White

Turquoise • Yellow Pink

• Chromo

NORTHERN B.C. POWER CO LTD. Phono 4210 Bosnor Block Princo Ruport

Canned Pacific or Carnation Tall Tins

48 in a Case $ .35

10 lb. Bag Granulated

Malalealla Parkay

2 lb. Block

Here's Some Picnic Suggestions

POTATO CHIPS Nalleys 6½ oz. .............. FRESHIES 5 £ 29c Assorted Flavors

SALAD DRESSING DEAL, Best Foods, 7 oz. btls., twin pak 55c

FRUIT CORDIALS Malkins Assorted Flüvors 16 oz. btl. 29c

CRAB LEGS Queen Charlotte 1/2s

DRINKING CUPS

15 in pkg.

MARSHMALLOWS

PICNIC PLATES
Plain or Colored 2,45c

Streamline BISCUIT · 32 oz. btl. 49c Weston's or McCormick's ..... 2 \( \frac{1}{2} \) 49c

Broilers Grade "A" 4-6 lb.

ROASTS

LEAN 5 9 c

BEEF SAUSAGE

Devon Brand, 11/2 lb pkg.

FINE GARLIC SAUSAGE MAPLE LEAF

B.C. GROWN

SPECIALS

EFFECTIVE

Friday and Saturday

July 17th and 18th

OPEN

FRIDAY NIGHT

UNTIL 9 P.M.

POTATOES

Green Onions bunches .....

Snowy White heads

est quality. Ask Ted the meat department manager if your choice

TOM BOY meals

are of the high-

Vou Roite More au a. City Delivery Service Where You Want It When You Want It