Last night, they went to Port Edward, to attend a reception for Rev. and Mrs. Paul Mercer, who were celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. — Staff Photo by Phylis Bowman

BPWC suggest day nurseries

HOPE (CP) — The Business and Professional Women's Clubs of B.C. and the Yukon want the provincial government to establish day nurseries to encourage married women with children to go back to work.

The group endorsed a resolution to this effect at its annual conference at Allison Pass Sunday.

Retiring president Mrs. Eleanor Morely of Vancouver said the community is deprived of the work of many skilled women because of the lack of day care for their children.

Mrs. Morely was succeeded as president by Addie Evans, a Penticton bank secretary.

Other officers elected at the conference were Mrs. Grace Laird of North Vancouver, first vice-president; Mrs. Beth Aulin, Kamloops, second vice-president, Yvonne Biagoni, Penticton, provincial secretary; Dorothea Lucas, provincial treasurer.

Students win coloring prizes

A total of 680 entries were received in the coloring contest which was held in the city last week to mark Conservation Week.

Winner of the six year and under age group was Patricia Simpson, 6, of King Edward School, who received a book of theatre tickets.

Winner of the seven and eight year group was eight-year-old Joyce Simmons, of King Edward School; in the nine and 10 year old group, Marlene Johansen, 10, of Conrad Street School won, and in the 11 years and up group, the winner was 11-year-old Vito Dunford of Roosevelt Park School.

These three students received $10 in cash and letters of congratulations from the Columbia Cellulose Company, Limited.

Judge of the contest was former city resident Mrs. James Dowdie, of Gibson's Landing.

FRANCOIS LAKE — In a letter from my sister Mrs. Bert Ward in Summerland we heard of the passing of M. M. Stephens there in the hospital. Then in The Daily News there was a picture of him in the same mail. He has been in poor health for some time, so the news was not unexpected. Bert Ward and my sister have kept in close contact since they moved to Summerland as they were friends when they all lived in Prince Rupert.

Our Rod and Club Club sponsored a turkey shoot on the range on Sunday and several sportsmen turned up. Our son Hugh was the lucky winner of a beautiful big turkey, ready for the oven. Those who wished paid to write their names of the back of a target and then someone shot at it and the name nearest the hole the bullet made, won the turkey. Hugh said he put his a long way away from the bull in the hopes that the person shooting wasn't a very good shot. He made a good guess evidently.

The first guests in our cottages this year are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wells from Coarse Gold, Calif. They would like very much to stay and ranch here and looked at a few places for sale in the district. We are hoping that they found something that suited them as we liked them very much and would like to have them as neighbors.

Clarence Snyder is raising black Galway cattle and found it very hard to get his original stock as they are scarce this side of the Atlantic. On Saturday he sold two beautiful bulls across the lake to head Hereford herds. Cross bred stocks seems to be getting very popular now and seem to do better than the purebreds.

When Abe Wiens was working around the mill yard at Nicholson's mill he picked up a small piece of paper and opened it and found that it was a cheque for $34.70 dated March 1941, made out to J. Brewer by J. Nicholson.

The Harrisons little Shetland pony mare has a baby and we saw her as we passed their place on the way to Burns Lake the other day. The baby is so tiny and was lying down when we passed — it looked very little larger than a jackrabbit.

We have yet another little newcomer for our community when Ethel Calder's baby son was born in the Burns Lake hospital early on Saturday morning. They are naming his Stephen John.

Stanley B. Calder is home again from Kitimat where he has been staying with his relations, the Horace Wild family. He unfortunately went down with a bad case of hives and had to go to hospital for two days, the first time he has ever been in a hospital except for visiting other folk. Horace Wild brought him home again in his car with the family who are staying over the holidays with the Calder family.

Today's recipe

The Women's Auxiliary to the United Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union suggest this recipe for today, during Halibut Week.

HALIBUT STEAKS

6 halibut steaks
1½ tsp salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
3 tblspn melted butter

Wipe fish with a damp cloth. Brush with melted butter or oil and season with salt and pepper. Place on grill four inches from heat in a very hot oven, 450 degrees, allowing 10 minutes per inch thickness of fish. Turn steaks once during cooking. Yield: 6 servings.

A fire at Prince Leabou Island on May 18 destroyed the houses belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Price and Mrs. Arthur Wesley. All their belongings were lost. The Venn Pass and the Beaver went to pick up the families and bring them into Port Simpson.

Many people travelled to Prince Rupert for the holiday weekend by plane. They were James Lawson, who went to the eye specialist, Reginald Sampson, who is visiting his wife who is sick in the Prince Rupert General Hospital, Mr. and Mrs. Merdick Green, Tom McKay, Mrs. James Lawson and Mrs. Mamie Sankey.

✣ ✣ ✣

Coming to Port Simpson for the holiday were Debbie Sampson and her cousin, Daisy Gosnell, to visit her family, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wilson and family came to visit Mr. and Mrs. Thomas White.

✣ ✣ ✣

A group of young people belonging to the Hi-C Club of the First United Church came for the weekend and had an enjoyable time. Dr. L. M. Greene and Dr. G. W. J. Fiddes conducted special church services while they were here.

Supervisor honored

A transistor radio was presented to R. C. Edwards, District Supervisor of Fisheries, at a banquet held in his honor at the Lotus Cafe last week.

Mr. Edwards retires July 17 after more than 40 years service with the Department of Fisheries. W. R. Hamston, Area Director of Fisheries, made the presentation on behalf of the 100 guests present.

Mrs. G. W. Winsby, wife of the assistant supervisor, presented Mrs. Edwards with a bouquet of red carnations.

Master of ceremonies was Capt. R. E. Armstrong, master of the fisheries patrol launch "Pillar Rock." Special guests from Vancouver were C. R. Levelton, R. Bolton, A. Tiwmi R. Crowter, M. P. Houghton and N. B. Heskin.

The banquet followed the two-day sessions of the District 2 Fisheries officers' bi - annual meetings.

WOTM to hold Church parade

A Church Parade will be held Sunday night at the First Presbyterian Church for the members of the Loyal Order of the Moose and Women of the Moose, it was announced at the meeting of the WOTM held Wednesday.

Members are asked to meet at 7:15 p.m. in the church basement for this service. A memorial service for all Moose members who have died will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Moose Temple. Rev. Ivan S. Gamble will speak at both services.

During the meeting, standing committee reports were read by Mrs. W. H. Sharp, publicity, Mrs. Edward Thompson, library, Mrs. Molly Olson, membership, and Mrs. Mathew Garbelya, hospital.

The social service committee will be in charge of the bingo on May 25, and the child care committee on June 2.

The winner of the lucky box was Mrs. G. E. E. Cameron, and Mrs. A. E. Norton won the raffle.

Final plans for the May 30 bazaar were made, and it was announced that there will be five door prizes. Tickets for the bazaar are 50 cents and may be obtained from any members.
