Steve Bilko over Beavers

Burly Steve Bilko, who shoots for nothing less than the top of the faraway fences, gave Spokane Indians another touch of "go" fever Wednesday night in their drive toward the top of the Pacific Coast League standings.

Bilko rapped out two home runs and got three RBIs as the Indians closed to within  $4\frac{1}{2}$ games of front-running Sacra mento Solons by belting Portland Beavers 9-4.

The Solons dropped a 7-4 decision to Salt Lake City Bees while second-place Vancouver's doubleheader with Seattle was called off because of wet grounds. The Mounties are three games out. Fourth-place San Diego kept in the fight by running over 'Phoenix Giants 9-6 in the other, league game.
