Mercier elected president of Canadian Press

TORONTO (CP) — A. F. Mercier of Quebec Le Soleil was elected president of The Canadian Press Tuesday.

He succeeds John E. Motz of the Kitchener-Waterloo Records, president for the last two years.

Mr. Motz was elected honorary president, Stuart Keate of the Victoria Times first vice-president, and St. Clair Balfour of the Winnipeg Tribune second vice-president.

The Canadian Press is the partnership through which Canadian daily newspapers exchange the news of their areas and bring in and distribute the news of the world. CP also provides news to most of Canada's radio and television stations.

Mr. Mercier, 61, vice-president and general manager of the company publishing Le Soleil and L'Evenement - Journal succeeds to the CP presidency after terms as first and second vice-president.

He was educated at College St. Michel in his native Buckingham, began his career as a teacher, went into business, and became general manager of Le Soleil in 1937 after periods as president of Chicoutimi Le Progress du Saguenay and general manager of L'Action Catholique. He has been vice-president of Le Soleil since 1954.

VICE-CHAIRMAN OF IPI

Mr. Mercier is a vice-chairman of the International Press Institute, a former president of the Canadian Daily Newspaper Publishers Association, and was for three years a director of Canadian Overseas Telecommunication Corporation. He has been a CP director since 1946.

708 nips Royals in exhibition soccer game

Local 708 edged the New Royals 2-1 in an exhibition soccer game last night but lost the first game of a series for the Operating Engineers Trophy.

Local 708 were unable to field a full team and therefore lost the game by default. Team captain and acting coach Doug Slack said his team would be ready for the next game.

In the exhibition game that followed more than 75 fans saw 708's Steve Kollar score on a pass from John Carlos in the first five minutes of the first half. Carlos scored the second and final goal for 708 in the first minutes of the second half on a pass from Lloyd Wiwtkowzk.

Jake Stewart tallied the lone goal for New Royals with 20 minutes left to play as he shot a penalty shot.
