GO PLACES!
GO NAVY!

You don't have to have a nautical background to become a Seaman in the Royal Canadian Navy. If you are keen to learn and willing to work, the Navy will do the rest. An interest in going places also helps.

You start with basic training, then go to sea in a modern naval ship for practical experience and on-the-job trades training.

Benefits include good pay, free uniforms on enlistment, up to 30 days' annual leave with travelling time, free medical and dental care. Pay and allowances increase with experience and responsibility, and for the man who makes the Navy a career there is a generous pension on retirement, at an early age.

If you are 17-25,, single, physically fit and have at least Grade 8 education, visit, write or call your RCN Recruiting officer who will be in

Tennis club will hold tournament

Due to inclement weather the activities of the Prince Rupert Tennis Club have been curtailed so far this year. However, Derrick Ratcliffe, games committee chairman, said it is hoped the club will get into the swing of things with a round robin tournament this coming Sunday.

He said he would appreciate if as many members as possible would turn out for this event.

It is also hoped that while play is in progress a work party will be made up to repair the netting and have a general clean-up.

The 60-member strong club will hold a closed tournament to get underway at noon September 1 and will continue the following Sunday and Monday.

Members are asked to pick up entry forms from the games committee including Mr. Ratcliffe, phone 2756, Rollie Smith at 4072, Mrs. V. C. Smith, 4411 and Mrs. Bob Tough at 2258.

Junior players will be catered for on Saturday, September 8 when Bob Bush will run off a tournament.

Baseball Sunday

Semi - final senior baseball starts here 1 p.m. this Sunday at Roosevelt Park. Esquires will tangle with Kitimat in a doubleheader and Terrace will meet Smithers at Terrace. Semi-finals are based on the best-of-three games.

Roma beats Italia 3-1

TORONTO (CP) — In a game billed as the first of a two-game series for the North American Italian soccer championship, Toronto Roma Wednesday night scored a 3-1 victory over Toronto Italia, Eastern Canada Professional Soccer League champions.

Savoy, Fashion clash

Rain cancelled last night's opening best of five Senior Women's Softball finals between Savoy Hotel, this year's cinderella team and pennant winning Fashion Footwear. Weather permitting the series will get underway tonight at Gyro Park.

Second and third games of the series will be played Sunday and Monday, August 26 and 27, and if a fourth game is necessary it will be played Wednesday, August 29. Should the series go the limit, the fifth and deciding game will take place Thursday, August 30.

This year's finals promise to be the best in the league's five-year history. The Manson's Jewellers trophy, symbolic of the league's playoff champions has never been won twice by any team in the four previous seasons. Savoy, High School, Wahl's and Fashion have won it in that order.

Soccer tonight

Semi - final soccer tonight at Algoma Park. Northwest Floors meet Commercials at 7 p.m. sharp. Royal Hotel plays Old Empress Chiefs Saturday. Northwest Floors play Commercials again on Sunday, and Royals meet Chiefs September 1. The semi-finals are based on a two-game total goals.

Three charged

Three men were charged by RCMP for breaking windows on Third Avenue Saturday night. In one instance an alleged theft was involved.

Frederick Busby and Daniel Eugene Innis both from Kitimat were charged for wilful damage after police investigated a broken door glass panel at Dowdie's optical shop. The incident occurred about 3:30 Sunday morning. Nothing was believed taken from the shop.

Walter Franklin Shirey of 621½ Third Avenue West was charged for breaking a window and taking a transistor radio from Noble's record shop about 12:30 Sunday morning.

Eight fined for traffic violations

Eight persons were given fines in police court at Port Edward Saturday when they pleaded guilty to traffic violations.

Peter Moroz and Holger Sorensen were each fined $10 and $2.50 costs for parking on a highway.

Charles A. Lindstrom was fined $50 and $4.50 costs for driving without due care and attention.

John Henry Gallager was fined $10 and $2.50 costs for driving a motor vehicle without a driver's licence.

Henry William Trowsdale was fined $25 and $2.50 costs for crossing a double solid line, and Petrus Jan Konst was fined $10 and $2.50 costs for driving a motor vehicle without mud flaps.

Two men were charged as a result of failing to have required work done on their vehicles. Godfrey Good was charged with failing to produce a motor vehicle registration and was fined $10 and $2.50 costs. Hugh Scullion was fined the same amount for driving a motor vehicle with only one headlight.

Meeting set

VICTORIA (CP) — Premier Bennett has an appointment with Justice Minister Fleming in Ottawa Monday to talk about the Columbia River.

Thompson scores 65

TORONTO (CP) — A field of 114 sets out today in the first round of the Canadian Professional Golfers' Association championship with full knowledge that the Mississauga course par of 72 can be soundly licked.

Alvie Thompson, assistant pro at the Toronto Northwood Club, showed the way Wednesday in a pro-amateur celebrity tournament with a 65, equalling the course record. Nine other pros broke par.
