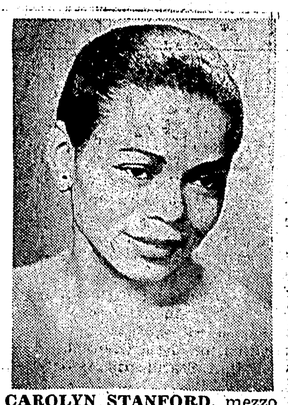
B. I. KAARDAL
. . . 80 years old

City resident marks birthday

An 80-year-old resident, B. I. Kaardal of 517 Seventh Avenue West, celebrated his 80th birtnday last Thursday with a party at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Vaagen at 428 Sixth Avenue West.

With his wife, Mr. Kaardal came here 15 years ago from Mount Nebo, Sask., where he had been a farmer for many years. A son, Morris Kaardal also lives in the city, at 308 Ninth Avenue West.

The Kaardals had nine children altogether. The others are Iver and Andrew at Nanaimo, Arnold and Stanley at Campbell River, Trygve at Castlegar, Mrs. Ben (Ingrid) Senum at Prince Albert, Sask., and Mrs. Frank (Betty) Fines at Mount Nebo. Many gifts were presented to Mr. Kaardal along with congratulations and best wishes.



CAROLYN STANFORD, mezzo soprano, will be the artist featured on the second concert of the Alaska Music Trail to be presented at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Civic Centre. She and her accompanist will arrive Monday from Kitimat by bus, and they will perform for the pupils of Booth Memorial Junior Secondary School Tuesday afternoon. Tickets for the concert may be obtained at the Civic Centre.

RC pavilion to be built at fair

NEW YORK (AP) — Pope John gave the word by transatlantic telephone today to start pile-driving operations on the site where the Vatican pavilion will be built for the 1964-65 New York World's Fair.

The Holy Father then gave the fair his blessing.

"Spiritually present at the official ground-breaking for the Vatican pavilion of the New York World's Fair, we are happy on this occasion to extend our congratulation and our best wishes for its success."

The officials were gathered at the fairgrounds in Flushing Meadow Park, Queens, to receive the 3 a.m. EST phone call.

The Pieta by Michelangelo, a representation of the Virgin Mary mourning over the dead body of Christ, will be the main feature of the $2,00,000 pavilion.

Canada Savings Bonds are good to keep

Canada Savings Bonds pay 4½% interest for each of the first three years; 5% for each of the next three years; and 5½% for each of the final eight years—an average interest to maturity in 14 years of 5.11% per year. In dollars and cents this means that every $100 you invest will grow with accumulated interest to $172.50 at maturity.

No wonder they're good to keep—for education, travel, retirement or planned purchases of some of the things that add to life's enjoyment. Yet if you have to cash them before maturity, they're always worth their full face value plus earned interest.

You can buy a $100 Canada Savings Bond for as little as 29¢ a day, through the convenient Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Canada Savings Bonds are also available at any bank, investment dealer, stock broker, trust or loan company in convenient amounts from $50 to $10,000. Pay cash, or choose easy instalments. And remember, any Canadian resident, adult or child, may buy. Estates too, can buy.

New Canada Savings Bonds—best ever!
