Kevan vanHerd heads Boy Scout Association

Kevan vanHerd was installed as president of the Prince Rupert District Boy Scouts Association at their annual dinner-meeting held at the Royal Canadian Legion last night.

Other members of the executive which was installed by Magistrate E. T. Applewhaite, chairman of the nominating committee, were R. G. Margetson, vice-president; L. P. McRae, treasurer; T. Blocka, secretary; Jack Mussallem, badge secretary; and council members, Alex Brokenshire, Mrs. T. A. Johnstone, Ray McLean, Rev. J. A. Roskam, William Turner, Ronald Black, J. R. Elliott, William Lambie, A. J. Beliveau, R. C. S. Graham and Donald Hawryluk.

Mr. van Herd, who has been in the city since March as personnel officer of the Department of Transport, has been an active Scouter and was Scoutmaster of the Sea Scouts in Vancouver 10 years ago. In his acceptance speech, he said he realized that the local association was indeed a busy and active organization, and he was honored to accept the post as president. He announced that the next meeting of the association would be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday, November 21 at the Civic Centre.

A. J. Beliveau, association past-president, welcomed the 125 guests to the banquet and introduced the head guests, Charles Fox, president of Kitimat District Council, Thomas Larson, Kitimat district commissioner, Mr. and Mrs. Reg Guy of the Kinsmen Club, Magistrate and Mrs. Applewhaite, "old friends in Scouting," Mr. and Mrs. T. Blocka, W. J. Smith, past vice-president; Mrs. George Cook, former Girl Guide commissioner, Mrs. Beliveau and Alderman Gordon Carlson, who brought greetings and best wishes from the city.

With Walter Smith as master of ceremonies, reports were given by last year's executive and by W. D. Sutherland, commissioner, and T. H. Retvedt, camp chairman.

Guest speaker E. F. (Ted) Williams of Vancouver, assistant provincial commisioner, told the gathering of some of the Scout jamborees he had attended and how Scouting, in general, and jamborees helped build good characters and develop good citizens.

He gave a brief resume of the founding and history of Scouting and said that the out-of-doors program carried out in this organization rounded out a boy's character, made him observant and capable, promoting his initiative and made him healthy in mind and body.

During the evening, community singing was led by District Scoutmaster, David Ridsdale, and Scouters N. R. Christensen and Harold Britten.

An amusing skit was put on by Mr. Britten, Frank Morowski, Morris Kaardal, Louis Nagy, G. M. Currie and Garland Garrioch.

A campfire conducted by Scoutmaster Ridsdale closed the evening's activities.

R F. MARGETSON, was installed as vice-president of the Prince Rupert District Council Association at the annual banquet. L. P. McRae and T. Blocka were returned as treasurer and secretary and Jack Mussallem is badge secretary. Council members are Mrs. T. A. Johnstone, Rev. J. A. Roskam ,Alex Brokenshire, Ray McLean, William Turner, R. B. Black, J. R. Elliott, William Lambie, A. J. Beliveau, R. C. S. Graham and Donald Hawryluk.

K of C meet at Terrace

Knights of Columbus of Terrace Council 5149, Kitimat Council 5148 and Prince Rupert Bishop Bunoz Council 5282, attended a District Meeting in Terrace over the Remembrance Day holiday week-end. More than 50 officers and committee chairmen attended.

The occasion was a visit of the state deputy, Gordon A. Bregoliss of Kamloops, who was accompanied by John W. Bedford, the state advocate, and C. T. Mangun of Penticton, the state treasurer.

The meeting took the form of an officer's indoctrination course, under the direction of District Deputy, of District No. 13, John W. Duggan, of Prince Rupert.

Following the sessions, the Knights attended a banquet in the Terrace Hotel. Grand Knight Henry Fortin of the Terrace Council, welcomed the visitors to the area.

State deputy Gordon Bregoliss said that while all three Councils were relatively new in their Columbianism work, they all showed zeal and determination in carrying out their program.

Over 65's to form club

Persons who are 65 years and over are asked to come to an informal get-together which will be held in the main lounge of the Civic Centre at 2:15 Monday afternoon.

This get-together is being held to form a Senior Citizen's Club, Jacob Vandenbrink, Centre manager said. The club will meet twice weekly in the afternoons to play various games, see films and have socials. Kitchen facilities are available in this lounge for making tea or coffee.

If anyone is interested but cannot attend this meeting, they can phone the Civic Centre at 2244 or 4326 any afternoon after 1 p.m. There is no charge for this club and a Civic Centre membership is not needed in order to join, Mr. Vandenbrink said.

PRLTA to cast 3-act play

Anyone interested in acting or helping in any way with the production of a play is invited to come to the Civic Centre at 11 o'clock Saturday morning to attend a casting meeting called by the Prince Rupert Little Theatre Association.

The organization plans to present a three-act play, "Alice in Wonderland", in the Civic Centre December 20 and 21, and 17 people are needed in the cast.

Many more will be needed to assist with scenery, props and lighting, etc., so any interested teen-ager or adult is urged to attend.

Anyone wishing to take part in this production and is unable to attend this meeting may contact PRLTA president R. R. Whitely at 3687.

This meeting is part of the workshop being conducted this weekend by the drama group.

At 8 o'clock tonght, two short, one-act plays, will be presented, which will be adjudicated by Dereck McCoocy, regional consultant of community programs branch of the Department of Conservation. The workshop will conclude tomorrow night, and is being held in the main lounge of the Civic Centre.

Notice of Election

Public notice is hereby given to the electors of the City of Prince Rupert that I require the presence of the said electors at the City Clerk's Office, City Hall on Monday, the twenty-sixth day of November, 1962, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of electing persons to represent them as Aldermen and School Trustees.

The mode of nomination of candidates shall be as follows:

Candidates shall be nominated in writing by two duly qualified electors of the Municipality. The nomination paper shall be delivered to the Returning Officer at any time between the date of this notice and noon of the day of nomination. The nomination paper may be in the form prescribed in the "Municipal Act" and shall state the name, residence, and occupation of the person nominated in such manner as to sufficiently identify such candidate. The nomination paper shall be subscribed to by the candidate.

In the event of a poll being necesssary such poll will be opened at the Civic Centre on the 6th day of December, 1962, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. and an advance poll will be opened at the City Hall, Fulton Street, Prince Rupert, B.C. on the 4th and 5th days of December, 1962, between the hours of 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and 2:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Persons who are permitted to vote at the advanced poll are only those who, being duly qualified electors sign a statement that they expect to be absent from the Municipality on the polling day. All of which every person is hereby required to take notice and govern himself accordingly.

Given under my hand at Prince Rupert, B.C., this 9th day of November, 1962.

SCOTT McLAREN,
Returning Officer.
