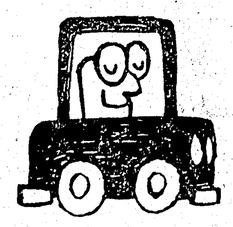
BRAIL — This laughing, healthy baby girl has been kept alive by UNICEF food and clothing donations in an area where infant mortality strikes nearly 300 of every 1,000 children born. To counteract and fight this alarming rate of mortality among children of the world's underdeveloped countries UNICEF raises funds through the selling on international greeting cards and notes. These cards, on sale across Canada, are designed by internationally known artists and are the only way in which UNICEF approaches the free peoples of the world for funds to carry on this necessary work. Last year two million cards were sold in Canada.



a radar set in every car?

Your eyes provide your car with the finest radar set possible. Do you take care of them as you would a fine piece of electronic equipment? Think of what's at stake: ninety percent of all driving decisions are based on sight: on the judgment of the driver rests the welfare of immediate family, friends, and strangers. Once discovered, most vision problems can be corrected. Have your eyes examined soon by a vision specialist.

WEEKLY SERMON

"ALL IS VANITY"
by W. JOHN WILSON, Pastor
Evangelical Free Church

Perhaps no one word better describes all of man's self-centred thoughts and activities than "vain." "Vanity of vanities; all is vanity," exclaimed Solomon, as he considered life about him in general and his own life in particular.

In Ecclesiastes, he discloses the vanity of a life which had as its goal self-gratification through increased wealth, pleasure, or knowledge.

He testifies ,"Whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them." And he knows that Solomon desired much! Yet, he honestly admits that, in the midst of wealth and fame, he "hated life," for all of this was "vanity and vexation of spirit." His wealth certainly brought him no peace or satisfaction. He states, "He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase." He declares, "The abundance of a rich man will not allow him to sleep."

Of pleasures and knowledge he makes similar remarks.

Recently I was counselling a young man who had been living in sinful pleasure. "Where is all this getting me?" he asked.

Now Solomon, by the popular materialistic standard, WAS getting somewhere. Yet, he had enough wisdom to realize that in the abundance his hands had wrought, "there was NO PROFIT."

Christ, in Mark 8:36, asks a sobering question: "For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" Certainly, when God is ommitted "all is vanity"—"there is no profit."

I'm thankful to God that in His gift of eternal life through Christ (Romans 6:23) I find that which cannot be found elsewhere. Our Lord brings peace and satisfaction. And although one cannot merit salvation by his deeds (Ephesians 2:8, 9), every child of God can engage in work that is NOT vanity. "Your labour is not in vain in the Lord," writes the apostle Paul. Know Christ, then serve Him; for in a world of vanity this is eternally profitable.

PERSONALS

Mrs. T. M. Carscadden of the First United Church, Mrs. N. R. Christensen of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Mrs. R. Scherck of the Salvation Army and Mrs. Rupert Greissel of St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral have been asked to pour at the tea scheduled to be held by the Ladies Aid of the First Presbyterian Church next Wednesday. Delicatessen, homebaking, sewing and candy will be sold at the bazaar and tea will be served.
