Be Suspicious

BE suspicious of that of which nobody is proud. Be suspicious of the mere low-price argument offered in favor of an article with no reputation, no backer, no guarantor.

Better buy the thing you know and can trust, than an article unbranded and unvouched for.

The branded shoe, made by a maker with a reputation, is a safer shoe to buy than the one made in an unknown factory by an unknown maker.

The underwear made by a firm whose name is as familiar to you as your own, is worth more to you than underwear nameless or labelled by a maker of whom you have never heard.

Tea sealed in a packet bearing the name of a reputable firm is to be preferred to tea of which the packer is not sufficiently proud to advertise its quality.

That in which much money has been invested to make or keep it good is worth more than that on which nothing or but little has been spent.

Peace of mind is worth something, just as quality is. Buy peace of mind.

When you buy anything worth while buying, buy that of which you know—from advertisements, or from other dependable acquaintance. Buy the article with the "money back" guarantee—with the pledge of a known name behind it.

Put your faith in the advertisements appearing in good newspapers. Beware of the article that cannot stand the spot-light of publicity. The commodity an advertiser backs with his own money is something worth your buying.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

SUBSTANTIAL PRIZES FOR THE BEST ESSAYS

in the city, offering substantial prizes to the children in the public schools for the best essays on some patriotic subject. These prizes could be presented by the donors in a body at some special entertainment to be given at one of the theatres upon one of the Dominion's public holidays, Empire day for example. Inculcating patriotism and love for their country and flag amongst the youth of the Empire was the surest and best way of maintaining our strength and integrity.

Mr. J. H. Kelly, 2nd vice-president of the Overseas Club and a prominent member of the St. Andrew's Society, next spoke. He congratulated the club upon its past year's work, and emphasized the fact that in Lethbridge, Alta., where he had previously lived for some years, the Overseas Club was the largest and most active of any in the community. Why ? Because every Britisher, no matter whether he was a Scotsman, an Englishman, an Irishman, a Welshman or a Canadian, was a member of it. That was what gave them their strength. He would like to see the same spirit rule here. Let them all have their own particular societies for the aid and assistance of the different branches of the great family, but when it comes to the Empire as a whole and the questions that vitally affect it they should all join in one great body and work together for the common good and they would indeed be invulnerable. Mr. Kelly before sitting down said that the St. Andrew's Society would be most pleased to co-operate with the Overseas Club and any others in the matter of the presentation of prizes along the lines laid down to be competed for by the school children. They would be glad of further particulars in the matter.

Mr. Malcolm McLeod and Mr. Charles Dennis, the other members of the delegation from the St. Andrew's Society, also addressed a few remarks.

The election of officers resulted as follows:

President—Frank A. Ellis.

1st Vice-President—J. H. Kelly.

2nd Vice-President — Joseph Howe.

Secretary - Treasurer — Alex. Stowell.

Executive — Messrs . Bullock-Webster, J. D. Allen, S. M. Newton and H. W. Birch.

The following new members were elected, F. Poole, A. Little, F. R. C. rown, F. Salter, Joseph Howe and F. N. Clinton.

AT THE THEATRES.

Empress Theatre.

Many expressions of wonder and approval were heard last evening at the Empress Theatre from those who were fortunate enough to witness the marvellously realistic photoplay, "The Count of Monte Cristo." Dramatized from the great masterpiece of the same name by Alexander Dumas, there were doubtless many who were able to follow the story with the keenest interest from an intimate acquaintance with the novel. Others who have not already read the book will most assuredly make an effort to do so at the first opportunity. For this evening Manager Stevens has a complete new bill, which together with the great attraction which the splendid orchestra affords is bound to be the means of packing the house.

Westholme Opera House.

The Westholme Opera House is introducing a permanent innovation starting tomorrow afternoon by giving a regular Saturday matinee moving picture show. The large audiences that have always attended lately of not only children but numerous adults when any special matinee performance has been given has caused the management of this popular house to announce this step. Many ladies and children who are not able to get into the city in the evenings from a distance, as well as a number of men who are employed at nights, will welcome this opportunity to get a look at the "movies." New and particularly attractive films are on hand for this evening and tomorrow with the afternoon matinee, and there will doubtless be a large attendance at each performance.

RECTOR OF ST. ANDREW'S ON LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Rev. E. C. Burch, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, accompanied by Mrs. Burch, will leave on Friday next on a two months' visit to California. On account of nervous indisposition Rev. Mr. Burch has been forced to seek rest and recuperation. During his absence Bishop Du Vernet, assisted by Rev. W. E. Collison ,will attend to the parochial duties of St. Andrew's.

QUEBEC'S PREMIER EXTOLS THE WEST

Delivers Address Before Women's Club on Recent Trip—Vancouver and Halifax Too Far Apart.

Quebec, Jan. 27.—Before a large and distinguished audience Sir Lomen Gouin addressed the Women's Canadian Club of Quebec Friday afternoon, taking the Canadian West as the subject of his address.

Referring to his recent trip to the west, he said it had taught him how little Canadians knew their own country.

The people of Halifax were to the people of Vancouver what the Portuguese were to the Russians, and they knew one another no better.

As for his own case, he had never loved his country as much as now, that he had grown more acquainted with its incomparable beauties and the illimitable resources.

Saying that the west was already the granary of the universe, the Premier went on to review its history, which he divided into two periods, those before and after the building of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

He rendered a glowing tribute to the pioneers who had first explored the unknown west, and especially to the valiant priests who had blazed the way.

Sir Lomen concluded by eulogizing the women of Canada, who also, he said, were one of the principal factors in the prosperity of the country.

EDMONTON'S PLAN FOR CHEAP GAS

Proposition Is to Bring Gas from Pelican Rapids Wells—Estimated Cost $3,000,000.

Edmonton, Alta., Jan. 31.—Calling for an expenditure of over three million dollars outlining a plan whereby the City of Edmonton would control the delivery of gas from the well to the consumer and demonstrate how the gas so secured could be sold at 30 cents per thousand cubic feet for domestic use and 15 cents for manufacturing, James Brodie, superintendent of the city's gas department, has prepared his long expected report to the Council.

The proposal is that the city should secure its gas from the Pelican Rapid wells and construct its own pipe line to Edmonton, 175 miles distant. Mr. Brodie estimates that the line would cost between two million and three million dollars complete. He also recommends the laying in the beginning of twenty-eight miles of distribution pipes, entailing an extra cost of about $300,000.
