The Best Procurable. Absolutely pure

Be Suspicious

BE suspicious of that of which nobody is proud. Be suspicious of the mere low-price argument offered in favor of an article with no reputation, no backer, no guarantor.

Better buy the thing you know and can trust, than an article unbranded and unvouched for.

The branded shoe, made by a maker with a reputation, is a safer shoe to buy than the one made in an unknown factory by an unknown maker.

The underwear made by a firm whose name is as familiar to you as your own, is worth more to you than underwear nameless or labelled by a maker of whom you have never heard.

Tea sealed in a packet bearing the name of a reputable firm is to be preferred to tea of which the packer is not sufficiently proud to advertise its quality.

Put your faith in the advertisements appearing in good newspapers. Beware of the article that cannot stand the spot-light of publicity. The commodity an advertiser backs with his own money is something worth your buying.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING LAST NIGHT

Mr. J. Lorne McLaren, the able and efficient secretary-treasurer, was nominated amidst acclamation to continue in the position, the mover and seconder highly eulogizing Mr. McLaren for the amount of time and work he had devoted to the business of the board.

The following were nominated to fill the office of members of the council, fifteen of whom were to be elected: J. H. Thompson, G. D. Tite, J. G. Scott, M. P. McCaffery, D. Sutherland, A. E. McMaster, D. H. Morrison, James McRae, Harry Rochester, Lee Baker, S. P. McMorde, A. E. Prudhomme, J. Charles Halsey, H. F. McRae, F. H. Mobley, A. J. Morris, J. J. Sloan, W. E. Williams, J. G. McNab, O. H. Nelson, L. Bullock - Webster, William Law, G. W. Nickerson, C. H. Orme, Charles A. Vaughan, W. P. Lynch and W. S. Marshall.

A ballot being taken resulted in the selection of the following: J. H. Thompson, F. H. Mobley, A. J. Morris, A. E. McMaster, G. D. Tite, Douglas Sutherland, W. E. Williams, M. P. McCaffery, J. G. Scott, W. H. Lynch, J. G. McNab, Lee Baker, H. B. Rochester, H. F. McRae and S. P. McMorde.

Several of the newly elected members made short felicitous speeches expressing their gratification at being placed upon such an important board.

Mr. A. M. Manson drew attention to the vital importance a board of trade was to a city, being only second to its municipal council. He suggested that with a view to bringing themselves into closer relations they might meet once a month at an informal luncheon and discuss matters of live interest to the city. A great deal had yet to be done before the city was ready for the first through train from the east.

Messrs. A. J. Prudhomme, A. J. Morris and Mayor Pattullo endorsed the last speaker's remarks, the Mayor concluding by stating that every business man in the city should be urged to become a member of the board.

Wedded in Maine.

Word has just been received from Mr. E. C. Gibbons, of the real estate and insurance firm of McCaffery & Gibbons, that he was married at his old home at Bangor, Maine, on the 29th of last month. No further particulars are available. Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons, after an extended tour of the Southern States and the Pacific Coast, expect to arrive in Prince Rupert in the early part of the coming month.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jack of Borden street entertained at "500" last evening. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. F. Renworth, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Gamp, Mrs. Nehr, Miss McDonald, Miss Butterworth, Mr. Brady, Mr. Murray, Mr. McKeen and Mrs. Burris.

Mr. P. Margetts, who is to assume the management of the local branch of the Bank of British North America in the place of Mr. F. S. Long, promoted to the important Calgary branch, arrived in the city last evening from Winnipeg on the Princess Beatrice.

MASQUERADE BALL HELD LAST NIGHT

Large Gathering of Youth and Beauty Enjoyed Themselves Last Evening—Some of the Costumes.

A very successful masquerade ball was held last evening in the Catholic Hall, when a large and frolicsome crowd of merry makers danced and pirouetted around until well on into the small hours of the morning. Emperors and goblins, judges and clowns, soldiers and policemen, college boys and cowboys jostled one another in the most unconventional manner, whilst a bevy of masked beauty whirled past in a never ending stream before the eyes of the puzzled and bewitched masculine members of the large gathering. Many surprises were in store for the latter when the unmasking took place, shortly before midnight. Altogether it was a most enjoyable affair and many thanks are due to the ladies who took such an active part in making the affair such a pronounced success. Excellent music was provided by the well known Westholme orchestra and the daintiest of refreshments were served in the supper room in the basement of the building.
