Stone-faced Ed Sullivan favorite of TV fans

Every Sunday evening almost since the birth of television in Canada, a stone-faced gentleman has introduced millions of viewers to a wide variety of performers and personalities from the entertainment world.

Ed Sullivan, columnist for the New York Daily Mirror, is in his 15th season as host of one of the consistently top-rated programs on television. The Ed Sullivan Show comes to CFTK-TV viewers on the CBC-TV network at its regular time of 8 p.m. Sundays.

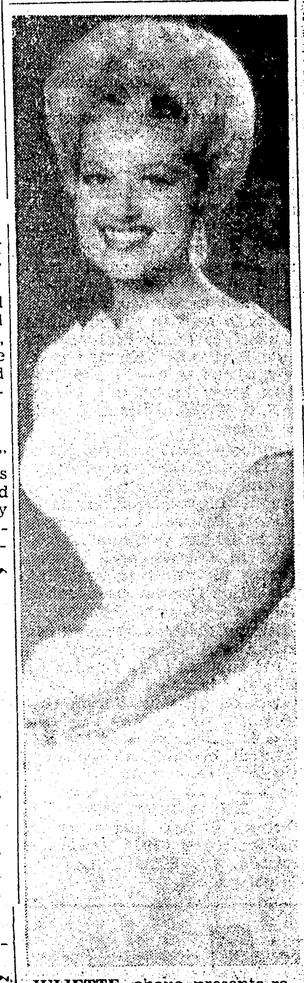
EXCITING SAGA ON 'BONANZA'

The exciting saga of the western cattle-baron era is told on Bonanza, a series of one-hour dramas on the CBC-TV network on Sundays at 9 p.m. on CF-TK.

Canadian-born actor Lorne Greene heads the permanent cast as patriarchal rancher Ben Cartwright, owner of the vast Ponderosa ranch, near Virginia City, in the American west. Cartwright's three sons, Little Joe, Adam, and Hoss, are played by Michael Landon, Pernell Roberts and Dan Blocker.

SULTRY TEACHER Sultry French singer Juliette Greco will teach French to British high school students in the BBC radio schools' program.



JULIETTE, above, presents relaxed show of music and song on CFTK-TV Saturday nights. She is joined by the Four Mice, a quartette, and their male counterparts, the Romeos.

'Flashback' satisfies curiosity

What's happened to the Dead End Kids? Men's spats? Mah-jongg?

Flashback, a weekly program on CFTK-TV, provides the answers to similar questions.

The program is devoted to satisfying the curiosity of people who have often wondered what has happened to one - famous persons, fads and fancies that have now disappeared into obscurity.

Flashback presents several of yesterday's heroes and heroines on each program, prefacing their appearances with a brief visual flashback to their days of fame, seen only by viewers. Members of the panel have three minutes in which to identify the personality, who is hidden from view if there is any possibility of recognition.

After the game segments of the program, the panel and moderator interview the guests to learn what has happened to them since their popularity peak. Viewers find out what they're doing now, with all the nostalgia, excitement and fascination of hearing once - great headliners discussing their careers — then and now. Emphasis is on the drama of personal stories told by men and women, many of them now working at every-day jobs or in retirement, who in their heyday were household words.

POPULAR GAL on CFTK-TV weekly program, Donna Reed, above, stars in role of doctor's wife in her own half-hour series, the Donna Reed show. Donna Reed is an Academy Award winner.

Top concerts, drama on 'Festival' playbill

Productions of Bertolt Brecht's Galileo, Jean Anouilh's The Lark, Verdi's opera Othello, the ballet Giselle and W. O. Mitchell's The Devil's Instrument are on the playbill of CBC-TV's Festival series this winter on CFTK-TV.

Seven hour-long concerts, including two by Canadian pianist Glenn Gould, will be incorporated into the Festival series. Dramatic and other productions will be 90 minutes in length, for the most part.

Galileo, about the life and work of the Italian physicist and astronomer of the Renaissance is the first major Brecht play ever to be presented on North American television.

The Lark, Anouilh's drama about Joan of Arc, adapted by Lillian Hellman, stars Kathleen Widdoes as the Maid and Douglas Rain as Warwick, William Hutt as the Inquisitor, Budd Knapp as Cauchon,, Jack Creley as the promoter, and a large supporting cast.

In Franz Kraemer's 90-minute production of the opera Othello (sung in English), Richard Cassilly sings the title role, with Ilona Kombrink as Desdemona.

Norman Campbell's production of the classical ballet Giselle features the National Ballet of Canada.

The W. O. Mitchell play, The Devil's Instrument, has its setting on the Canadian prairies.
