Mary Stewart, Harold Mann win gold medals for Canada

MARY STEWART
. . . Golden girl

PERTH, Australia (CP) — World champion Mary Stewart of Vancouver became the first Canadian woman to win a gold medal at the British Empire Games in 28 years when she flashed to a brilliant victory today in the 110-yard butterfly swim.

The pony - tailed 16-year-old gave Canada its second gold medal of the games in swimming and a Canadian boxer, Harold Mann of Prince George, added the third today by winning the middleweight title.

Miss Stewart beat Mary Jane Cotterill of England by about seven feet and she was coasting near the finish. She finished in one minute, 10.1 seconds, just 1-10th of a second slower than the games record set in a heat.

Miss Stewart also holds the world record of 1:09.0, established at Vancouver in 1961.

LED FROM START

Mary grabbed the lead from the first splash in the race and never was headed.

Not since Phyllis Dewar of Vancouver won gold medals in the 100-yard and 400-yard freestyle at the 1934 games in London has a Canadian woman won a gold medal in swimming.

Both races were at shorter distances than they are in the present-day competition.

WINS IN THIRD

Mann won his gold medal in the light-middleweight division when he scored a technical knockout victory over Brian Benson of Rhodesia. The bout was stopped near the end of the third round after Benson had gone down for a nine-count and was bleeding badly from the nose.

Mounties now out in cold

VANCOUVER (CP) — Vancouver Mounties, once one of the best-drawing teams in minor league baseball, was left flatfooted today with no league, no players and $75,000 in debts.

The Mounties were left out in the cold when it was decided at a meeting of the minor leagues in Rochester, N.Y., that the International and Pacific Coast leagues would absorb the old American Association and operate as two 10-team leagues.

George Norgan, president of the Vancouver club, said the basic reason for the team being dropped from the PCL was its failure to get a working agreement with a major league club.

But the Mouties were also criticized for poor attendance in recent years and other teams didn't like the travelling expenses involved.

Norman said he won't know if there is any future for the club until he discusses the situation with directors.

The Mounties had a working agreement last year with the American League Minnesota Twins. The club, Norgan said, now has about $35,000 in debts and about $40,000 in outstanding bank loans.

Clay, Machen may tangle

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Boxing promoter Abe Aquistapace said Thursday he will confer soon with Casius Clay's manager in hope of signing the young Louisville heavyweight for a fight against Eddie Machen here in February.

Aquistapace offered Clay a $55,000 guarantee shortly after his fourth-round knockout of Archie Moore November 15 in Los Angeles.

Machen is top-ranked behind champion Sonny Liston and ex-champ Floyd Patterson.

Meanwhile, the manger of Cleveland Williams, fifth-ranked heavyweight, offered Clay $10,000 a round if he will fight Williams in Houston, Tex.

Hugh Benbow made the offer after being advised the World Boxing Association had ranked Clay No. 4 ahead of Williams.

NATIONAL LEAGUE WRAPUP

Provost comes through as Habs tie Leafs 4-4

By The Canadian Press

Montreal's Claude Provost says his shoulder injury is still giving him a lot of trouble.

But returning Thursday night after a three - game absence with a shoulder separation, the right-winger scored the third-period goal that gave Canadiens a 4-4 tie with Toronto Maple Leafs.

"Just before I scored, I fell and crashed into the boards," he said after the game. "When I got up, I was shaking with the pain. I went to skate off.

"But suddenly Donnie (linemate Donnie Marshall) put the puck on my stick in front of the net, and I banged it in off the goalpost with a quick backhand."

Provost's goal capped a Montreal outburst of three goals in the first three minutes and two seconds of the last period, wiping out Leafs' 4-1 lead.

The fifth - place New York Rangers blanked the Red Wings 5-0 in Detroit. All-star right-winger Andy Bathgate scored a goal for New York to set a club scoring record with 229 goals in regular-season play.

In Boston, Chicago Black Hawks whitewashed the last-place Bruins 5-0 to give goalie Glenn Hall his third shutout of the season.

The games left the Wings and the Hawks tied for first place with 26 points each, although Detroit has two games in hand. Toronto and Montreal are tied for third place, each with 22 points. Rangers have 18 and Bruins 10.

Frank Mahovlich scored two of the Toronto goals, all of which came in the second period. The other two Leaf goals were scored by Ron Stewart and Eddie Shack.
