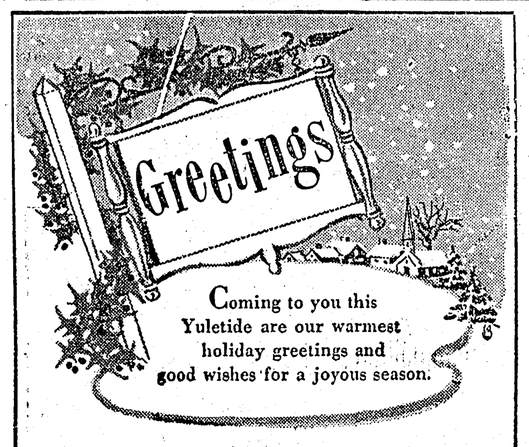
Christmas trees from British Columbia help brighten the Christmas homes as far away as Brazil and Mexico City.

Plastic squeeze bottles commonly used for mustard or catsup can also be used as cake decorators.



Coming to you this Yuletide are our warmest holiday greetings and good wishes for a joyous season.

SOME LUCKY Prince Rupert children will be receiving these Pekinese pups for Christmas. Offspring of Nig, a Peke owned by Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Cannutt, 1409 First Overlook, these are two of a litter of four snapped up as Christmas presents. SPCA's word to prospective owners of pups is: don't let the kids play with them long or roughly, and don't feed them too much. Put yourself in their place. — Staff Photo

LAST-MINUTE PREPARATIONS BEING MADE FOR CHRISTMAS

In homes throughout the city the traditional turkey dinner with all the trimmings will be served as families enjoy the annual holiday of gift-giving and social gathering. The festivities will carry over to Boxing Day, which will also be observed as a holiday by most in the city.

Prince Rupert people today, like people everywhere in Canada, were making last-minute preparations for the celebration tomorrow of Christmas.

Peaceful as a snowy landscape, lively as a playful fawn is the Christmas we wish for you. We are ever grateful to you for your thoughtful consideration and gracious patronage.
