Carter not reporting

TORONTO (CP) — Halfback Boyd Carter, sold during the winter to Calgary Stampeders by Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League, said Wednesday he will not go West.

Carter had purchased a home in Toronto and is employed here. For those reasons he thinks it imperative to stay in the East.

Carter was sold to the Stampeders along with Brian Aston. Aston, a schoolteacher here, has indicated that he too may refuse to report to Calgary.

Carter said he also intends to open two Spanish restaurants in Toronto.

ONCE WAS RICH

Haiti, today an impoverished Caribbean republic, was once the most productive of the New World colonies, supplying Europe with all its sugar.

AID FARMER

Honeybees handle more than 80 per cent of pollination by insects and without them many important plants would disappear.
