THE AFTERMATH

Usually the day following Christmas brings with it unpleasant recollections of friends who have been inadvertently overlooked in the matter of Christmas gifts. Isn't it fortunate that New Year's Day follows so closely and gives us an opportunity to make amends for our oversights during the Christmas rush. While the past week's shopping made very heavy inroads into our stock, the assortments in each line are practically unbroken. We have a large range of beautiful things for New Year's gifts. CONSULT OUR CATALOGUE.

ANOTHER MINE IN GLEN MOUNTAIN

Surprise Mine Opening Up in Splendid Shape—Drift on First Small Vein Gives Good Ore.

The last issue of the Omineca Herald has the following encouraging report concerning the Surprise Mine, located on Glen Mountain, near Hazelton:

Last week the good news was brought to town that Superintendent North had struck a rich shoot of ore in the drift on the first small vein which was cut in the big tunnel. It will be remembered that after this vein was cut a couple of men were put to work drifting on it, and while they did not get much encouragement at first, they finally struck ore and then raised on it. Some days ago this ore widened out to two and a half feet, and the last reports are that it is getting even better. In the meantime the tunnel is being continued toward the big vein and the men should cut through to it any day now. It is this vein which will make the property, and if it is as good as it is on the Silver Standard the Surprise will be a second big paying mine on Glen Mountain, and it will not be long before still another large shipper will be added to the Hazelton district list.

HAZELTON NEWS.

(Omineca Herald.)

Ben Bloomsten, formerly at Porphyry Creek, has purchased the blacksmith shop from Frank Carel, who recently bought it from Tom Ryan.

Mr. and Mrs. D. McLeod left this week on a trip to Decker and Burns lakes. They also visited many of the construction camps along the route.

Mr. Robbins of Victoria arrived on the Saturday train to take a position with James Richmond as bookkeeper and postmaster. He assumed his duties immediately.

D. Rankin arrived in town on Monday night from Prince Rupert, where he had been on business, and he has now gone out to Burns Lake to look after his big construction camps there.

Rev. D. R. McLean left Thursday morning for Vancouver on church business and will be gone a couple of weeks. During his absence the pulpit in the Presbyterian Church here will be occupied by Rev. Mr. Lee.

Joe Roerig of Prince Rupert was a visitor in town this week. He came up Saturday night and received a warm welcome from his many old friends in this district.

NEW BANK ACT WILL BE AMENDED

Public Demand Likely to Force Finance Minister to Provide for Real Audit of Banks.

Ottawa, Jan. 31.—It is probable that Minister of Finance White will yield to strong demands from both sides of the House and amend the Bank Act so as to provide for real government audit of banks. Criticism of the measure as brought down last week has been unexpectedly severe, and White finds that he cannot get the measure through without some concession to public demand.

MINISTER OF MINES

Delegation from the Yukon Urges Appointment of Dr. Thompson

Ottawa, Feb. 1.—A delegation from the farthest north constituency, members of the Yukon Council, Messrs. Tabor and Martin, and three other citizens of Dawson city, Messrs. Munro, Pinkett and Watt, waited on Premier Borden, recommending the appointment of Dr. Thompson, member for the Yukon, as Minister of Mines for the Dominion.

The mining output of the Yukon was impressed upon the premier. It was contended that the gold output since 1881 was $169,000,000. It was further contended that the mines of the Yukon were the only ones under the supervision of the federal authorities.

Premier Borden stated that should a port folio for mines be created, the name of Dr. Thompson, as minister, would receive closest consideration.

The town of New Hazelton is already putting on airs. A brass band is the latest suggestion as a means of making life more enjoyable in the embryo city.

BREEZY SPORT ITEMS

Said the governor of North Carolina to the governor of South Carolina: "How many major league ball teams are going to train in your state, huh?"

Philanthropists gave over $282,000,000 in 1912. Andrew Carnegie was the leader with $35,000,000, and the amounts taper down to $30,000, which Fred Snodgrass handed to the Boston Red Sox.

Mayor Gaynor will assign 400 policemen to preserve order when John McGraw and Rube Marquard meet.

ELIMINATING CANDIDATES

Promoter Coffroth Lines Up Series of Lightweight Bouts

San Francisco, Feb. 3.—Joe Mandot vs. Harlem Tommy Murphy, Feb. 22.

Winner of above scrap vs. Ad Wolgast, the latter part of May.

Winner of May scrap vs. Willie Ritchie for the lightweight championship July 4.

This is the "elimination" card that Promoter James Coffroth has arranged. The only stumbling block to the working out of the programme is Wolgast, who demands $10,000, win, lose or draw. Coffroth cannot figure where Wolgast is entitled to this sum, but has hopes that the former champion will accept a much smaller purse.

Promoter James Griffin has sent word from Los Angeles that "Bud" Anderson, the Medford, Ore., lightweight, has refused an offer to box in San Francisco, preferring to remain in the south for a while.

FIGHTER KILLED IN NEW YORK RING

New York, Jan. 28.—"Chick" Rose, a prizefighter, knocked unconscious in Brooklyn last night by a blow on the chin in the sixth round of a ten round bout with "Sailor" Smith, died early today in a hospital. Smith and the referee were arrested.

JIM DRISCOLL DRAWS WITH OWEN MORAN

London, Jan. 31.—Jem Driscoll the British featherweight champion, and Owen Moran, of England, fought a 20-round draw before the National Sporting Club. A great crowd witnessed the battle, which was a fast one.

"VOTES FOR WOMEN" STAMPED ON EGGS

New York, Feb. 1.—Twelve thousand eggs marked "Votes for Women" were sold recently by the Interborough Suffrage Club in their club room. Many of the buyers admitted this was the most convincing argument for woman's management of their own affairs of which they have heard. Fresh consignments of eggs will be in today from a 6,000 acre farm, which supplied the first lot, by parcel post. These will all go at 35 cents per dozen.

CHAPLAIN PRAYS FOR BALKAN SUCCESS

Sacramento, Jan. 31.—Senators, with their heads bowed in reverence looked up in surprise this morning when Chaplain B. Dent Naylor earnestly prayed for the success of the Balkan states in their war with Turkey. He besought the "God of Battles" to give success to the Balkan arms "so that they shall walk in freedom."

Heretofore Chaplain Naylor has confined his prayers to a petition for divine guidance of the legislature in their day's work.
