Niagara team hopeful of crown

ESPANOLA, Ont. (CP) — Niagara Falls Flyers, everybody's sure thing for the Eastern Canada junior hockey title, pulled out of this Northern Ontario pulpwood centre today looking forward to the friendlier surroundings of their home rink.

They led Espanola Eagles 2-0 in the best-of-seven Memorial Cup semi-final series, according to schedule. But the Eagles, a brand new team from a brand new league, pushed the power-packed southerners to the limit Tuesday night before losing 9-7 in overtime.

The Flyers, who won the opener 6-2 Sunday without noticeable difficulty, built up a 5-1 lead in the second period this time before the Eagles caught fire to the delight of a capacity crowd of 1,850 fans.

The Northern Ontario Hockey Association champions eventually tied it at 5-5 midway through the third frame, fell behind again and tied it a second time with 15 seconds left to play.

In the overtime session, the Flyers scored twice in the first five minutes but the Eagles got one back with less than two minutes left. They were pressing for the equalizer when the last Niagara Falls goal slid into the empty net.

WANTS LEGISLATION

PEMBROKE, Ont. (CP) — Max Silverman, deputy mayor of Sudbury and former coach of Memorial and Allan Cup teams, says he will ask Prime Minister Pearson for legislation to stop "exploitation" of junior hockey players.

Mr. Silverman said at a sportsmen's dinner here Tuesday night it is time the National Hockey League was stopped from exploiting junior players.

HERE'S REAL PAY DIRT

Milwaukee's Frank Bolling scores from second base on a single, sliding home with the Brave's first run under the throw to New York catcher Clarence Coleman in the first inning of the Braves-Mets game at County Stadium.

Second leg of Canada rally expected to be tough grind

By BRUCE LEVETT

WINNIPEG (CP) — The second half of the 4,000-mile Cross-Canada Rally begins today and some drivers and officials are hoping it will be tougher than the first half.

Three cars dropped out on the Vancouver - Calgary leg; none failed to make the Calgary-Regina stretch, and only one didn't check in here.

The next leg toward the Montreal finish line goes from here to Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., today.

A doubtful starter is the battered Bentley of Don and Colin McQuirk of Thornhill, Ont., suffering from a disintegrated wheel bearing.

A total of 16 cars made the run here Tuesday without incurring penalty points and some organizers are hoping for bad weather to separate the men from the boys.

The latest drop-out came in the muddy Riding Mountain National Park on Tuesday when the supercharged Corvair of Victoria's David Cooper and Bob Low ran into mechanical difficulties. They were last seen being towed westward and first reports said they had broken a piston.

TEAM ELIMINATED

The loss eliminated the British Columbians team from private team competition.

The Peugeot 404 of Toronto's Frank Curran and Ron Carney, top private entry so far, went into a tie for second place with the Falcon Sprint of Paul MacLennan and Art Dempsey, also of Toronto;

Car 112, the hard-driven Volvo of Bob Alexander and Jim Jellett of Vancouver, slipped two positions to 11th.

It was still anybody's race.

Dick Doyen and Clay Gibbs of Milwaukee, in a Toronto-sponsored Chevy II, held first place with a single penalty point.

Then came the Peugeot - Falcon tie for second with four points. In fourth spot, there were three cars tied with five: Howell - Silvera, Falcon; Merson-Wilson, Falcon, and Bailey-Gallop, Renault.

Mud in the park area caused some drivers concern.

Alice Fergusson of Toronto, a Studebaker driver, said: "We came through with our rear end waggling like a ballet dancer."

Don Hull, Terrace, in a Ford: "We pulled one car through and pushed a couple of others."

Mike Kerry of Montreal, co-driving with Belgium's Olivier Gendebien, summed up the muddy stretch: "It wasn't bad enough. We had hoped to pick up some time over the others."

Stewart wins silver medal in close swim with U.S. gal

SAO PAULO (CP-AP) — A 16-year-old Indianapolis schoolgirl caught Vancouver's Mary Stewart on one of the fastest nights of her record-breaking career Tuesday and still swam away from her for a Pan-American Games gold medal.

Even though the 17-year-old Canadian veteran — she's been swimming since she was four — came within 1.6 seconds of her world record of one minute, 7.3 seconds in the women's 100-metre butterfly event, she could not kep up with Kathy Ellis and had to settle for second place.

Miss Ellis, who trailed her rival by five feet at the halfway mark and eventually won by a similar margin, was timed in 1:07.6 to Miss Stewart's 1:08.9.

Both were under the Games mark of 1:09.1 set by Nancy Ramey of the U.S. in 1959.

Outside of her world mark, recognized officially last January, Miss Stewart's best time was 1:07.6 at Chicago in August, 1962, just a few days after she set the world standard at Vancouver. In a heat at last year's British Empire Games, Miss Stewart did 1:09.1 for a Games record and she won the gold medal in 1:10.1.

The Canadians were not match for the heavily-favored United States swimmers, who swept all four championships contested and broke three Games records while equalling another.

WIN THREE MEDALS

All eight U.S. swimmers who reached the four finals won medals while the six Canadian entries were able to pick up only a silver and two bronze.

Illness forced a seventh Canadian, Ed Cazalet of Vancouver, to withdraw from the final of the men's 100-metre backstroke. Cazalet stayed in bed at the Games village, nursing an infected throat and 102 fever.

Canada had four medals in swimming and shooting after four days of competition and figured to pick up several more in diving, fencing and swimming today.

Seven Canadians are finalists tonight including Miss Stewart in women's 100-metre freestyle.

John Kelso of Ocean Falls, and Dan Sherry of Hamilton won bronze medals Tuesday for third placings in the men's 200-metre breaststroke and the 100-metre freestyle respectively.

Gary McMahon of Dartmouth, N.S., captured the silver medal in free pistol shooting with 546 points, just a point behind the gold medallist, Capt. Franklin Green of the U.S. Air Force.

AMERICANS LEAD

The United States was making a runaway of the fourth Games here as expected. The Americans sent the largest team to South America — more than 400 men and women. Canada's team totals 124.

The four first-place medals in swimming boosted the over - all U.S. gold medal bag to 10. No other country has more than one in the 15 championships decided to date.

Chet Jastremski, Steve Clark and Ed Bartsch won the gold medals in men's swimming Tuesday.

Jastremski, the world record-holder at the distance, captured the 200 breaststroke in 2:35.4, two seconds faster than the Games record he set in qualifying Sunday.

Another American, Ken Mertens, won the silver medal, finishing three full seconds ahead of Kelso.

Clark, a Yale University student, blazed to victory by a whisker over teammate Steve Jackman in the 100 freestyle, equalling his Games record of 54.7 set Sunday. Jackman, the U.S. indoor champion, was only 1-10th of a second back in 54.8 while bronze medallist Sherry's time was 56.1. Sandy Gilchrist of Ocean Falls took fourth in 56.5.

TWO BREAK RECORD

Bartsch captured the 100 backstroke by two feet over teammate Charles Bittick in the Games record time of 1:01.5. Bittick's clocking of 1:01.1 also erased the old mark of 1:03.2, set in 1959 by Farnk McKinney of the U.S. Ralph Hutton of Ocean Falls placed sixth in 1:07.8.

In the women's butterfly, Sharon Pierce of Prince Rupert facing her first major international competition, took fifth place in 1:17.6.
