THE SOLID SOCREDS

Americanism, once very popular in Alberta is deplored now. There are 86,000 Americans involved in the province's rich oil industry. There are 35,000 resident in Calgary alone.

Last week during a radio station's "phone-your-beef" hour, a voice with a soft drawl called to express her regret and alarm at the anti-American attitudes she believed were being voiced during the election.

The station announcer soothed her with dulcet phrases. But when she hung up her phone the station was swamped with calls from Canadian Albertans deploring far stronger than she the anti-American sentiment.

PM NOT POPULAR

So Mr. Diefenbaker is not as popular this time as he was even in 1962.

Added to this is the fact that Alberta Social Creditors are behind the national party's stated policy on nuclear defensive weapons: Their adoption if Canada's commitments require them.

This would make them pro-Pearson and anti-Diefenbaker. And definitely anti-Caouette.

Their attitude right now would appear to agree with that of someone who answered the telephone in the national office of the Social Credit party in Toronto recently. An enquirer asked, "Where can I get hold of Mr. Caouette?"

The reply was: "By the throat."
