Rose to defend vault title

WINNIPEG (CP) — A year ago, John Rose of Arizona State University won the pole vault at the Royal Canadian Legion's international Meet of Champions, setting a meet record of 15 feet, five inches. But when he comes back to defend his title Saturday night, he'll be an outsider.

Rose's mark, the best recorded in Canada indoors at the time, was beaten at the Canadian championships here last March when George Davies of Arizona topped 15 feet, 5¾ inches.

Then in December, one of the Legion's invited guests, Don Meyers of Colorado, soared 16 feet, 1¾ inches and established himself as the man to beat.

Just to keep Meyers and Rose honest, meet organizer Jim Daly has produced J. D. Martin of Oklahoma, Jerry Betz of Oregon State, Gerry Moro of Trail and the University of Oregon, and Bob Watson of Vancouver. All but Watson have regularly cleared 15 feet.

LOSING TRADE

VICTORIA (CP) — A delegation of King George Highway business men have complained to Highways Minister Gaglardi that the new Deas Island road is costing them most of their tourist trade.
