Small audience delighted by one-act comedies

Two enjoyable one-act comedies were presented at the Civic Centre last night by the Prince Rupert Little Theatre and the Booth Memorial junior secondary school before a small group of theatre-goers.

The play "Sunday Costs Five Pesos" directed by Janelle Hayden was given a memorable performance by five young high school students. Berta played by Geraldine Panter, who captured the best high school actress award in Terrace last week, thrilled the audience with her performance. Young Leslie Clayton as Fidel, who received honorable mention, also gave a fine performance again last night. Linda Bell as the witty troublemaker in the love quarrel between Fidel and Berta, turned in an enjoyable performance. Susan MacDonald and Karin Rauschenberger as Tonie and Celestina completed the cast.

Under the direction of Owen Erwin, the one-act comedy "Family Album" saw nine of Prince Rupert's senior actors and actresses delight the audience with their performances. As the spinster sister Lavina Featherways, Roxanne Erwin, captured the audience with a performance that won her the best actress award at Terrace. Len Reed as Burrows the butler did a remarkable job in his supporting actor role.

Highlighting the play were the stage setting and costumes. Mrs. Louis Campagnolo, who designed the actresses' costumes, received special mention at Terrace.

Other members of the cast were Russell Morrison, Janelle Hayden, Angus McCracken, Margaret Davies, Bob Whiteley, Donna Moore and Owen Erwin with stage managers Fred Verigin and Charles Lewis.

Illegal driving

Appearing in Port Edward police court Tuesday was Benedict Joseph Williams, Prince Rupert, on a charge of driving while his licence was under suspension. Williams pleaded guilty before Magistrate H. F. Robins and was fined $35 and costs or in default seven days.

Also appearing in police court was Harvey Jackson, Prince Rupert, on a charge of breaking and entering and theft in the Rainbow Lake area.
