QUEEN CHARLOTTE NOTES.

Rev. Mr. Bygraves and Mr. A. Mallory, left during the week on a visit to points on Masset Inlet, going via Mexican Tom's trail to Queenstown.

A member of the Lillooet's crew fell from a ladder at the mill wharf Sunday night, receiving several bruises.

Chris Unsby, who has a contract to cut several hundred cords of wood for the B. C. Fisheries at Aliford Bay, was brought over to the hospital Thursday afternoon suffering with an injury to one of his arms.

Mr. A. Hood, an auditor from the Department of Public Works, Victoria, paid an official visit to the government office here at the beginning of the week.

The mill boom logs, which for some time past have been blocking the foreshore, were removed during the week on instructions received from Ottawa.

The construction of Sandspit wharf will be proceeded with shortly.

Good progress is being made on the road between the Oilworks and the Indian village. Of all the work being done along the East coast road this part is, by far, the heaviest, being all rock.

Mr. R. L. Fortier, who, for some years past, was connected with the hydrographic survey party on the D. G. S. Lillooet (Capt. Musgrave), left here last Monday for Halifax, and later will proceed to Hudson Bay to join the hydrographic survey there.

CONCLUSION OF STRIKE

Longshoremen Said to Have Won Increase of Pay.

It is understood that an agreement has been to all intents concluded between the Longshoremen's Union and the Pacific Stevedoring Company. The men are to receive an increase in pay with special consideration for over-time and for handling such freight as dynamite, cement, etc. The rate of pay is to be increased from the old standard of fifty to sixty cents per hour, while seventy cents will be paid for handling special kinds of freight such as those just mentioned.
