SOME AFTERTHOUGHTS FROM EMPIRE DAY

Little Paragraphs Grave and Gay that Linger in the Memory of Rupert's Happy Day of Holiday-making

Some Encouragement

"Now yer can git married" sung out a small boy to one of the athletes as he received his box of silver spoons and cutlery from the hands of the Mayor.

Gallant Bill

It was great to see the way Bill Casey flung himself unarmed between the combatants in the clinches of the schoolboy contests.

A Coming Champion

Frank Holland who won the boys' 100 yds. in 11 2-5 has all the marks of a coming champion. He went off like a shot from the pistol.

Gets It Honestly

Little Milton McLeod who won the wee tots race, gets his running ability honestly. His father Rev. W. H. McLeod is an old-time champion of Nona Scotia and New Bruns2ick. Three times he touched 10 secs. flat, and his record made fourteen years ago at Acadia College still stands.

Don't Lift It

When the prizes were being given out, someone looked round for Jack Beatty's prize to hand over to him. It was nowhere to be seen. Then it was remembered that the hero of the fat men's race was to get a ton of coal.

Not a Boat to be Had

One of the effects of yesterday's weather was to create a boat famine along the waterfront. So many people went picknicking over the harbor that the late comers were compelled to embark in all kinds of arks.

Rifle Club Shoot

The Civilians' Rifle Club went over to the ranges and had a successful shoot in the afternoon yesterday. A competition shoot is planned for Sunday.

Hit This Man

Here's one that was going the rounds yesterday: The Inlander is the Operator and Conveyor of passengers and freight in Omineca district between Port Simpson and Hazelton.

One on the White Men

The Indians don't need to have orders shouted through a megaphone at them, when they march they know the language of the drum.

Made a Good Grand Stand

The roof of the G. T. P. baggage rooms served as a grand stand during the sports on the wharf.

Mc Deserves Credit

Have you stopped to think that much of the success of the fun on the wharf was due to the kindness of Mr. A. E. McMaster, the local agent for the G. T. P. who had the wharf put in shape for a race track. The kiddies and the grown ups thank him.

Man and Megaphone

Quite the feature of the course during the children's races was our old friend Jack Beatty armed with a megaphone the size of a good average cement crusher funnel, and with a voice to match. It would take a mighty big megaphone to eclipse Jack's genial smile when there are youngsters around to be made happy.

Chief Vickers' Element

On ordianry days a terror to evildoers Chief Vickers on Empire Day became a regular joy dispenser. He also dispensed programmes with great good will, and was everywhere on the sports ground where his well-known experience, and willingness to help came in handy.

Under the Panama

The panamas new and old blossomed forth on the heads of our friends. Some of us had quite a job to recongise each other. Chief Vickers, Alderman Clayton. J. J. Sloan, and Jack Beatty were identified. Several newspaper men were quite unrecognisable.

Spirit of the Day

"We didn't win any prizes, but we went and saw them all" was the gleeful remark of a group of jolly little girls as Jack Beatty bent over them just around dinner time when the boys were jumping. Jack looked as pleased about it as he did when he won the fat man's prize.

Threw Money at Kiddies

So delighted were the audience at the concert with the singing and acting of the two little girls of J. S. Gray that a volley of silver money was fired on the stage.

Happiness Supreme

Some poetical man remarked this morning in speaking of Empire Day: "And the day was filled with music and the cares that encumbered the day did fold up their tents like the Arabs and as silently steal away."

Well, It Was Wonderful

So charming was the weather and such an atmosphere of happiness permeated the city that even the city councillors forgot their differences and had a good time. Is it possible?

Better than that even the citizens forgot to say hard things about the city council or about anybody else.

Little Did Big Business

Arthur Little, proprietor of the famous news and refreshment stand near the wharf was the busiest man in the city. He had something less than a hundred boys on the road for him all day selling everything from peanuts to cigars.

Deserves Praise

Every man who had anything to do with the drawing up of Wednesday's programme deserves a lot of praise.

Greatest of All Things

It is a great thing to make a child happy for a day. The committee men in charge of the events of Wednesday could not wish for any better reward than to know they made hundreds of little children happy.

Barbaric

One man spent the holiday by letting anybody throw three rotten eggs at him for 25 cents. He was not a colored man at that.

All Talented

Evidently the most talented family in Prince Rupert is J. S. Gray's. Every one is an instrumentalist, dancer or singer of ability.

Bravely Be-Decked

The G. T. P. S.S. Prince Rupert looked good to us as she steamed in to the wharf with her brightly colored bunting all a-flutter while the races were in progress.

HEAD BLOWN FIFTY FEET

Horrible Fate of Powderman in Mine. Four Killed Instantly

Hibbing, Minn., May 25.—Four men were horribly killed here today by a dynamite disaster in Sellers Mine. They were simply shattered to fragments, the head of one being hurled fifty feet away from the blackened remnants of his body. The men were placing a charge of powder when it ignited prematurely. It is impossible to say whether or not an iron tamping rod was being used as the whole scene of the explosion is blown a dozen ways.
