COOKING SALE AND AFTERNOON TEA WAS SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

Seventy Dollars Raised by Ladies Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Society

The sale of home cooking and afternoon tea held in the St. Andrew's rooms, Second Avenue, on Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary, proved a great success. The affair was well attended and the sum of $70 was realized. Mrs. P. McMillan and Mrs. J. J. Muldoon sang and Miss Lorna Tite and Miss Dorothy Thomson played a pianoforte duet. The musical program was much appreciated.

The home cooking stall was in charge of Mrs. D. S. Cameron and Mrs. C. Taylor.

Ice cream booth: Mrs. James Irvine and Miss May Reid.

The raffles were in charge of Mrs. James Lee, the winners being:

Towels, donated by Mrs. Bert Glassey won by Mrs. H. Steen.

Sack of sugar donated by Mrs. J. Simpson won by Mrs. Geo. Abbott.

Nightgown, donated by Mrs. W. Anderson won by Mrs. J. Haddon.

Five dollar bill won by Mrs. George Wilson.

The success of the afternoon was due to the efforts of Mrs. Geo. Abbott, convenor, assisted by Mrs. H. Foote, Mrs. W. Reid, Mrs. J. Simpson, and Mrs. R. Dowther.

S.S. PRINCESS LOUISE HAD 278 PASSENGERS

C.P.R. Tourist Boat, Here This Morning, Has Big List, Mostly all Round Trippers

The C.P.R. tourist steamer Princess Louise, Capt. Arthur Slater, was in port this morning from 6.45 to 9.45 with a full list of passengers, 278 persons mostly all of them round trippers. The Louise had no passengers for Prince Rupert but the following took passage from here: Miss Anna Milco, Miss Albena Milco and V. G. Jelich for Ketchikan; Jack Wynne for Stikine; A. N. Ramso for Whitehorse; G. A. Clothier and D. Johnson for Atlin; Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Sweetser, of Minneapolis, for Dawson.

I SHOULD leave off my vest all summer if I could only find some place to carry my watch, my pen, my pencils, and a dozen other small personal belongings including matches.

THE difficulty with some of these girls is that they are so terribly young.

HERE'S to our wives
They fill our lives
Like busy bees with honey
They ease our shocks
And darn our socks
And spend most all our money.

BEING in love is like a man running a motor boat. Everything is fine for a while and then possibly the carburetor gets choked.

And wanted fish to can
I'd send a flapper out to net

MUSIC EXAMINATIONS TORONTO CONSERVATORY

W. J. Pittman Here From Prince George Will Test Ability of Sixteen Pupils

W. J. Pitman, formerly of this city but now of the Pittman Music Store, Prince George, is here today conducting the music examinations for the Toronto Conservatory at the convent. There are sixteen pupils offering, fourteen from the convent and two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Williams who have been taught by their mother.

Mr. Pittman is much interested in the progress of Prince Rupert and he says the big pulp mill at Prince George is expected to be started this year.

RESTRICTED DISTRICT AT KETCHIKAN CLOSED

"Little Venice," "Across the Creek," "The Restricted District," "The Red Lights," whatever you care to call the place — it is closed, says the Ketchikan Chronicle. Not only closed, but closed tight, or will be on Wednesday morning when Judge T. M. Reed of the United States district court will sign, as he indicated this morning, the orders of abatement against all the houses.

This morning A. H. Ziegler, counsel for the defendants, and Charles H. Miller, assistant United States attorney, agreed that the evidence in all cases would be the same as those that have already been tried and it was thereupon ordered that they all be closed.

Sport Chat

The program of outside sport for the week:

Monday (tonight)—Intermediate baseball, Colts vs. High School, Aeropolis Grounds.

Tuesday—Junior baseball, Scouts vs. Falcons, McBride Street.

Wednesday — Senior Football, Sons of Canada vs. Sons of England, Aeropolis Grounds. Trap shooting at Park Ave.

Thursday—Senior baseball, Gils vs. Sons of Canada, Aeropolis Hill.

Friday—Junior baseball, White Sox vs. Scouts, McBride St. Junior football, Public Schools vs. High School, Aeropolis Hill.

On account of the Elks' Minstrel show for the nurses' home, the Senior football game between the Sons of Canada and Sons of England has been postponed from Tuesday until Wednesday evening this week. This is the concluding game of the Mobley Cup and city championship series. Since the Grotto have the championship on ice now, the Canadians and Englishmen have nothing in that way to gain as a result of the game. The only effect it will have on the standing will be in regard to cellar honors. If the Sons of England win they will share the bottom position with the Canuks. If the Canuks win, the Sons of England will be left alone in that position.

The next on the football program after this week will be the Dominion Day cup play-off. There will be a meeting of the league to set the dates of the games this week and next week the first game will be played.

On account of the High School exams last week, there has been a general swithchup in the scheduled dates of Intermediate Football League games. Instead of the Colts and Public Schools playing on Friday night af this week, as the time-table calls for, the Public School and Hig School will meet.

The Sons of Canada have a pretty good lead now in the Senior Baseball League and Nickerson Shield competition. With three wins to their credit and no losses, they have a percentage of 1000, Gil's, with one win and one loss, are second at .500 and the Grotto, with three defeats and no victories, has three goose-eggs opposite its name in the standing sheet. Though they have not been defeated yet, the Sons of Canada have had at least one close squeak. When they meet Gil's on Thursday night of this week, a good interesting match should be served up. A win for Gil's would even things up somewhat and would make the competition more interesting.
