If You Are of Average Figure

VERY few of us are ideal average. There is always a bit of coaxing to be done—a little moulding, a subtly straightened line, a comforting support. With remarkably few bones and no undue constraint, Gossard Corsets designed for the average figure bring it gently but surely to its ideal perfection and eternally guard you from the injustice of looking older than you are.

Understanding your type is one of the most important aids to beauty you will ever find. Remember that whatever your figure may be there are Gossard Corsets with just the support you need at your age and weight to give you the proper proportions of the type to which you belong. Gossards are moderately priced, launder beautifully, will outwear two or even three ordinary corsets and will give you a comfort such as you never knew before.

Gossard trade marked Corsets as low in price as $2.50

C.G.M.M. freighter Canadian Freighter, Capt. Carl Bissett, left Vancouver last Wednesday for Nanoose Bay from which port she will come here to load lumber for Japan sailing direct from this port. The vessel is due here some time this week but the exact date of her arrival was not known at the local C.G.M.M. up to this afternoon.

Col. McLean, head of social service work for the Salvation Army in Western Canada, will arrive from Winnipeg on tonight's train enroute to Vancouver. Tonight he will give an address in the local citidel. Staff Capt. Jaynes met Col. McLean in Prince George and will arrive with him sailing for his headquarters in Wrangell on the first steamer north.

W. Lockhart, who has been here for several months as manager of the Universal Trading Co. is leaving on the Prince Rupert tonight for the south enroute to Calgary where he has accepted a new position. Mrs. Lockhart and child will accompany him and will proceed to Winnipeg where they will spend some time visiting before taking up their residence in Calgary.

The recently formed Prince Rupert Gyro Club will be formally instituted on Friday or Saturday evening of this week. E. A. Mann, secretary of the club, has received a wire from Vancouver stating that R. Present plans indicate that there will be an enthusiastic reception to the visitors and that the local club will be given a rousing inception.

INDIAN WIDOWS ARE OFTEN BADLY TREATED

Indian Inspector Tells of Difficulties Encountered in Connection With Old Customs

HOUSTON, Aug. 18.—During a tour made by Col. G. S. Pragnell, inspector of Indian agencies of B.C., and T. Hyde, agent for the Babine Indian agency, one of the chief problems encountered was to persuade widows to hang on to the possessions of their deceased husbands. Time and time again they are turned out, not by actual violence, but often by being ostracized by the balance of their kind. In such cases an official warning is nailed to the widow's shack by the officials, bidding all and sundry to leave the widow's effects alone on pain of dire penalties. Even then public opinion is sometimes too strong for the widow.

There is still living in the Hazelton district an Indian woman who as a girl, was bartered by her tribe into slavery with the Sikneese Indians in exchange for the body of an Hazelton Indian killed in an intertribal battle. She is happily married. One case of a widow who is hanging on to her former husband's shack and possessions under difficulties came under notice particularly this tour.

The fact that the man was drowned and his body has not so far been recovered appears to be the real salvation of his widow. The customary fees for burial and the feast which follows a funeral are impossible in this case for obvious reasons and enable the widow to hang on to the family estate.

ABOUT TIME

Miss Gettington—My month at Palm Beach did me a world of good.

Mr. Flubb—Indeed it did. You look twenty years younger.

Miss Gettington—Sir!

Mr. Flubb—Beg pardon—duced awkward thing to say; of course, you know, I mean thirty years younger—er—that is—really you know, you look just as old as you always do—er—well, I must be going.—Boston Transcript.

Mayor Hawyard and Ald. Sargent of Victoria will represent that city at the Union of B.C. Municipalities convention to be held in Prince Rupert next week.
