DARKNESS AND RAIN ENDS ANYOX GAME

Elks Given Decision in First of Post Season Baseball Games

ANYOX, Sept. 1. — The first game in the post season series which will decide what team is entitled to hold the baseball silverware until another season has finished, ended rather unsatisfactorily for all concerned, the game being called on account of rain and darkness, a combination hard to beat. It was the Elks' home game, and at the end of the fifth inning they were leading the Mine. The Mine in the opening half of the sixth scored enough runs to put them in the lead, and what the Elks would have done in their half is left to conjecture, for the umpire called the game with a man on second and nobody out. According to the rules of organized baseball under which the teams agreed to play at the beginning of the season, the game went to the Elks, five innings constituting a game, the standing of the teams at the end of the fifth inning to determine the winner if the sixth inning has not been completed.

The game was devoid of anything in the nature of brilliant baseball, but had its share of errors and touches of ragged ball. Six hits were made by the Elks and seven by the Mine. For the Elks, Campbell got two singles, Sloan and McIntyre got one each, while Greenwell drew a single and a two-bagger. On the Mine side, Mealey got two singles, Halverson two, while Stewart, Anderson and C. Ferguson each got two-baggers. In the third inning, C. Ferguson relieved J. Ferguson in the box. Together they had five strike-outs, while Draudson for the "Brother Bills" had eight. There were three errors for the Mine and six for the Elks. J. Ferguson walked two and Draudson one. Olsen umpired balls and strikes, with A. Sinclair on the bases.

Line-up:

Mine — Mealey, Greenwell, C. Ferguson, Anderson, J. Ferguson, Corkle, Stewart, Halverson, Pynne.

Elks — Downs, Campbell, Greenwell, McIntyre, Fitzpatrick, Draudson, Brentzen, Sloan and Thorley.

FINALS FOR MEDALS ANYOX FOOTBALL

ANYOX, Sept. 1—The finals for the medals in the football series are responsible for games that are not lacking in excitement and warmth. In the last fixture the Mine again took the Smelter into camp with an odd goal to the good, and this was secured only after the hardest kind of a tussle, in which considerable feeling was displayed on both sides. One game will now decide the winners of the medals and it gives promise of being a battle worth witnessing. The line-up in the last game played was:

Mine— Corkle, Lange, Stewart, Cane, Currie, Pynne, Twaddle, Barnes, McKeown, Ingram and Greenwell.

Smelter—McDougall, F. Kirkland, Matthews, A. Kirkland, Ross, Main, G. Kirkland, Rowan, Westwood, Wilson and Elder.

Referee—Evans.

The already much postponed opening game of the Married vs. Single Men's three-game baseball series at baseball will really take place on Monday in connection with the Labor Day celebration. As it is the intention to have this series over before the Fair opens the games will have to be rushed along for the big annual event with all its sporting features is now less than two weeks off. The first game was to have been played tomorrow but the Labor Day committee will be busy on the grounds then preparing for Monday's celebration.

Including Prince Rupert's representation there will be three football and three baseball teams in town for Fair Week. Confirmation from the Ocean Falls and Telkwa football teams and Smithers and Anyox baseball teams of their intentions of coming here on the Fair Board's terms has been received. Each team will play the two others once making three football and three baseball games. Trophies significant of the championship of the district at football and baseball are to be provided by the Fair Board, it is understood.

The following tentative schedule for the interiown games during Fair Week has been drawn up:

Tuesday—Smithers vs. Prince Rupert, baseball.
Wednesday—Anyox vs. Smithers, baseball. Ocean Falls vs. Prince Rupert, football.
Thursday—Ocean Falls vs. Telkwa. Football. Anyox vs. Prince Rupeert, baseball.
Friday—Telkwa vs. Prince Rupert football.

Good weather is all that is required now to make the Labor Day celebration on Monday under the auspices of the Trades & Labor council as big a success as has ever been the case in the past. The various committees have been on the job for several weeks and the arrangements are perfected. There will be double reason for patronizing the celebration for half of the proceeds have been pledged by the Labor Council to the hospital board for the Nurses' Home fund. The program includes children's and adults races, tug-of-war between the fishermen and all comers, baseball between the Married and Single Men, Junior baseball game between the Colts and Public School, and the dance in the evening.

The Colts will field the following team for the Junior Football game with the Public School on Monday in connection with the Labor Day celebration: D. Frizzell, goal; M. Budenich and H. Gawthorn, backs; G. Hill, J. Sims and S. Anderson, halves; J. Nickerson, G. Blyth, J. Hamilton, R. Bulger and T. Fraser, forwards. The Public School team will be as follows: S. Gurvich, goal; George Howe and Alex. Mitchell, backs; M. Comadina, C. Cameron and A. Johnson, halves; M. Chenoski, W. Wrathall, Dido Gurvich, E. McLean and V. Meagher, forwards.
