FAIR WEEK AT LOCAL THEATRE

Three Corking Good Programs Specially Arranged by Management For Occasion

There are to be three good programs at the local theatre this week. Monday "Just Tony" starring Tom Mix is a thrilling romance of an unusual pony and a clever hero. The horse is even more a feature than the man. Everyone will want to see this.

For the mid-week offering Thomas Meighan is coming in George Ade's "Back Home and Broke," a big wholesome story of real folks. There is enough comedy to break your ribs and enough drama to make you weep.

For the week end, Friday and Saturday, "The Dangerous Age" is a sensational drama of wandering men and wondering women. It is dedicated to the husbands who think they are young and to wives who think they are old. This is a picture with lavish settings, dazzling gowns and gay scenes.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

THE Milwaukee Journal says that cashboxing is the proper name for modern prize fighting.

I AM not sure whether it was in Prince Rupert that His Worship asked what the prisoner was charged with. "Cant says, sir," was the reply, "but it wasn't soda water."

IF your feet go to sleep, wear loud socks.

THIS week most people will catch the exhibition bug.

APROPOS the Library campaign, if a dollar and a half buys a book and a half, how much does it cost to call on the librarian at the exhibition building during the fair? All depends on how much he has in his pocket.

THIS week's fair week,
Plenty of jazz and fun.
All our friends are coming to town,
We'll greet them everyone.

TALKING of real fun, it is suggested that those who want a thrill should take a ride to McBride Street on the old court house.

A NATIVE band's a wondrous thing
It wields a mighty power
It can make a man lay off his work
And loaf for half an hour.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

Work started this morning on preparing the grounds at the Auditorium for the forthcoming Fair. A. J. Prudhomme and J. W. Potter are in charge. The decorative work will be in the hands of Lionel Crippen.

The stock and fixtures of the Prince Rupert Fish & Cold Storage Co., Ltd. were seized this morning by Sheriff Shirley on an execution of J. G. Beatty of Toronto, father-in-law of F. S. Evans, managing director.

After Sunday School at the Anglican Church yesterday afternoon the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. McTavish was christened. Mr. and Mrs. David Hays were the sponsors for the infant who was named John Douglas Craig McTavish.

SMITHERS

Mrs. J. Calderwood and son, Roy, have returned home from southern states points where they went in the hope of Roy's health improving. It is apparent that the climatic change was beneficial.

C. H. Sawle, New Hazelton, was also here on business matters.

Al. Finnerty, who was holidaying in the southern part of the province has returned to town.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Elsey, who spent their summer vacation here, left for Vancouver on Sunday last by way of Prince Rupert. Mr. Elsey will resume his studies at the University.

Miss Marjorie Roberts, who completed her normal course with the last term, has been appointed teacher for the Glentanna School district, taking up her duties at the opening of the current school year.

A big percentage of the old pupils and a large number of new ones greeted their teachers for the current school year last week. Two of last year's teachers in the person of Mr. Burt principal, and Miss Fetterley have returned. The new appointees are Misses Lauder, Daniels and Hanna.

The Indian band from Hazelton, on its way to the Barbecue at Telkwa, stopped over at Smithers, treating Smithereens to an open air concert on Sunday night.

N. H. Kilpatrick spent the week end and Labor Day in Hazelton, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. Grant. Mrs. Kilpatrick, who spent the past two weeks under the parential roof, returned with Mr. Kilpatrick on Tuesday.

Much to the regret of their large circle of friends Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Champion have gone to Transcona, Man., where they will in future reside. Mr. Champion was an earnest worker in fraternal circles, being prominently identified with both the Masons and Oddfellows, and was a member of the church board of the Anglican church. Mrs. Champion conducted a Sunday school class for some years, and was one of the prime movers in the formation of Mystic Jewel Lodge, No. 46 of the Order of Rebekahs.

G. A. Woodland, of the Imperiani Oil Co., at Prince Rupert, was on a business trip in town.

W. Coop, Prince George, a tie contractor on a large scale, arrived in Smithers on Wednesday in connection with business matters.

Mrs. A. Greenhalgh is back from Vancouver where she spent a holiday.

Dr. L. B. Badgero, has temporarily closed his dental office here and returned to Prince George.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Champion were the guests of honor at a farewell party given by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Orchard on Wednesday last. Upwards of twenty guests were present and the host and hostess sent everyone home happy as the result of a most enjoyable evening. Mr. and Mrs. Champion left on Thursday's train for Transcona, Man., via Waldron, Sask., where they will visit before taking up residence in the "shops" town.
