WEEK END PARTIES WERE AT KHTADA AND MET WITH SUCCESS

Fishing is good at Khtada, according to reports brought by those who were there for the week end. The trail is very dry and packing in the grub and bringing out the fish consequently is easy. A party made up of John McRae, H. T. Willett, J. H. Thompson and George Woodland returned yesterday, making the trip in the Lois M.

J. W. Sutherland and a party of boys were in there Sunday after travelling all night in an open boat with a Caille outboard motor. One of the boys came in with the McRae party and the others had not returned this morning.

Fred Gilhuly, Charles and Will Balagno and E. A. Donohue are now there and expect to remain until Friday.

George Bryant, E. F. Duby, S. K. Campbell and H. F. Pullen returned this morning, having been away since Saturday. They went up the river in the Harla.

ANNOUNCEMENT
Corsets and Brassieres
"Things pass for what they seem." The smart woman un-corseted? Perish the thought! The subtle art of corsetry was never so subtle, never demanded so much of cleverness from designers and fitters—yes, and weavers—as at present. Dimunitive, your corset may be, but what there is of it must know its business to the last quarter inch. The smartness, correctness and charm of your every frock are dependent upon such clever little corseting devices as presented in these new Autumn models.
We are in receipt of correspondence stating that by special appointment we are the exclusive Northern Agents of the celebrated Corset and Brassiere manufacturers—"WARNERS."
Every lady that prides herself as being perfectly corseted has read, longed, and wondered how and where she could procure a pair of "WARNERS." That lady need not worry further—we have them on the way and will announce arrival within a few days.
