...ie," With Jeanne Crain, ...pitol Theatre This ...nd

...comedy and real-life ...re combined with music ...rgie," hailed as one of ...od's most delightful ...offerings of the year, ...opens at the Capitol ...here tonight and will ...Friday and Saturday. ...picture, in technicolor, is the nostalgic and warm-hearted story of fun-loving teen-agers in the late twenties, sometimes referred to as the era of wonderful nonsense. It chronicles high school life in a mid-western city with lovely Jeanne Crain, the student, falling in love with Glenn Langan, who plays the part of a handsome French teacher.

Actually Miss Crain plays a dual role—that of a modern 34-year-old mother and a sixteen-year-old awkward adolescent girl who, shy though she is, manages to get into more than a normal number of innocent escapades.

Lynn Bari, as a third member of the heart interest situation, is seen in the role of a school librarian.

Alan Young is the faithful youngster devotee of Jeanne Crain.

Starlet Barbara Lawrence is seen as a short-skirted high school flirt.

Other popular members of the cast include Conrad Janis, Esther Dale, Hobart Cavanaugh, Ann Todd and Hattie McDaniel.

LEGION TO AID AT CARNIVAL

Canadian Legion members will take charge of a booth at the Civic Centre Carnival which starts on Saturday night, the monthly general meeting of the organization decided last night after being approached by the Civic Centre Association. Legion members will have charge of the booth for the whole week.

The Legion also will undertake to field a football team against H.M.S. Kenya in defence of the Hanson Cup which was won last year by H.M.C.S. Uganda but which was returned recently to the city after the decommissioning of that vessel. J. S. Wilson and "Jock" McGreish volunteered to field a team and are seeking players.

The meeting voted to donate $50 to the Prince Rupert Civic Band toward their fund to buy uniforms and other equipment.

A busy month was forecast for the members in September by Secretary P. M. Ray who announced that Robert Macnicol, newly appointed public relations officer for the Canadian Legion, will visit Prince Rupert on September 16 and 17, and that S. B. Yates, casualty rehabilitation officer of Shaughnessy Hospital, Vancouver, will be in the city September 19 and 20.

At the close of the meeting, a presentation was made by A. J. Croxford of a handsome flag stand made from native woods, which he designed and built in his sparetime. The stand supports the Union Jack and Legion standard and also a vase of poppies.

President Vic Houston, Legion president, accepted the stand on behalf of the organization. Mr. Croxford is a life member of the Prince Rupert branch.
