WASHINGTON WON SECOND

Another Close World Series Game Resulted in Score of 4 to 3.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The Washington Senators captured the second game of the World Series yesterday by a score of 4 to 3. It was another extremely tight contest and was featured by two home runs made by Washington.

The Senators took the lead in the first innings when Goose Goslin sent the ball to the bleachers for a home run with Rice ahead of him. Buck Harris scored Washington's third run with a homer in the fifth. New York got a run in the seventh and tied the score with two in the ninth. The Senators came back in their half and took the game with a base on balls, a sacrifice hit and a single by Roger Peckinpaugh.

The batteries were: New York, Bentley and Gowdy; Washington, Zachary and Ruel. Fred Marberry took Zachary's place in the ninth.

Score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
N. Y.	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	2	—3
Wash.	2	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	1	—4

New York made five hits and one error; Washington, 6 hits and one error.

Sport Chat

The opening game of the world series on Saturday afternoon, in which the New York Giants won over the Washington Senators by the narrow margin of 4 to 3, was one of the most thrilling and dramatic games of baseball ever played in the Big Leagues. The Giants fought their way to victory after twelve bitterly contested innings. Walter Johnson struck out twelve of the Giants in nine of the twelve innings flashing all the amazing speed that made him famous. He weakened in the twelfth inning, however, and thereby lost the game.

The recent triumph of an Argentine polo team in the Paris Olympic meeting thereby claiming the world Olympic championship in polo for Argentina has intensified to a great extent public interest in the game in the South American republic. Until quite recently polo was practically unheard of by the general public of Argentina as few persons outside of players and their friends took much interest in the game. Polo is now played in nearly all the Argentine cavalry regiments and is being taken up enthusiastically by Argentine ranchers. Native peons entrusted with the care of polo ponies have shown themselves excellent players and local authorities believe that more than one more team could be formed to beat the Olympic champions.

Jack Nenault, Canadian heavyweight, will in all probability be the next man to fight Jack Dempsey for the heavyweight championship of the world, is the belief of two of New York's experienced sporting writers, W. O. McGeehan and Robert Maher. They are convinced that Tex Rickard had Renault in mind when he refused to commit himself regarding a match between Dempsey and Harry Wills following Wills' victory over Firpo a few weeks ago. "Renault," says McGeehan, "can beat Wills right now, but he is not ready yet to meet Dempsey. It is only a question, however, of a year or 18 months before he will be ready to meet Dempsey, and when he does, it will be a battle."

THE RIGHT MAN

It takes a red-nosed man with a greasy vest and a soiled collar and a cheap cigar, with his feet on another chair, to put the proper emphasis into the words "These women reformers make me weary."
