ACTIVITIES AT THE ISLANDS

Mill Still Running At Buckley Bay And Gold Mining Goes On.

That the Massett Timber Co.'s mill at Buckley Bay is still working on double shift sawing up logs already at the chute, is the news brought to the city by passengers on the steamer Prince John, which arrived from the northern Queen Charlotte Island points this morning. They state that the northern islands are in a flourishing condition and there is quite a lot of commercial activity there.

Gold Mining

The gold mining operations by the P. B. C. Mining Co. are going ahead and the operators are very enthusiastic over the outlook, and seem to have plenty of faith in their proposition. There are about twenty men working at the smelter, recently erected, and operations are now being conducted on Rose Spit.

Canneries.

The Wallace Fisheries are preparing to operate their cannery at Woden River, and a number of men are already on the ground. The crab and clam cannery at Tow Hill, operated by Capt. Babington and associates, has been closed down owing to the closed season being on for this class of shell fish. The cannery will be reopened in September. The Langara Fishing & Packing Co.'s plant is running full blast and 2,000 cases of empty salmon tins were landed by the Prince John on her last trip.

CALLIES WON AT FOOTBALL

Beat Sons of England In Third Match of Series For Stuart Shield

The Callies defeated the Sons of England by a score of 5 goals to 1 in the third game of the Stuart Shield series, held on the Acropolis Hill grounds last night before a good crowd of soccer fans. Both sides made a tally in the first half, Hamilton for the Callies scoring one and Dickens for the Sons scoring one. In the second half Elder and Woods scored two each for the Callies.

The teams were fielded as follows:

Callies — J. Campbell, goal; Hamilton and Williscroft, backs; Sims, Currie and Harris, half backs; Hamilton, Woods, Elder, Cochrane and Andrews, forwards.

Sons of England—Howe, goal; Bales and Kelsey, backs; Hodkinson, Cameron and Tinker, half backs; Hill Jr., Matheson, Munro, Dickens and Gawthorn, forwards.

T. Jones refereed the game and A. Clapperton and Jimmy Johnson acted as linesmen.

The Game

The game was a scrappy one throughout although the play in the first half was the best part. Both teams started out at a merry gait and the play was pretty even. Good scoring opportunities were missed by the forwards on both sides. The Callies drew the first blood when Hamilton beat Howe, in goal for the Sons, for the first tally of the game. From the centre the Sons got busy and after some considerable exchange of play Dickens successfully negotiated the leather past Campbell. The score stood 1-1 at half time.

In the second half the play was too one-sided to afford any excitement. A penalty against the Sons, taken by Currie for the Callies, was bungled and consequently wasted. Elder and Woods for the Callies scored two goals apiece, thus putting a double cinch on the game.

The result of the score was 5-1 in favor of the Callies.

Following is the standing of the series to date:

	Won.	Lost.	Pts.
G.W.V.A.	1	0	2
S. O. C.	1	0	2
Callies	1	1	2
S. O. E.	0	2	0

Sport Chat

To those who desire to shine as amateur athletes in any branch of athletics the question of proper living is an all important one. Of course professionals in any line of sport have to undergo weeks, and sometimes months, of arduous training and living to fit them to engage in a champion bout. On the other hand if a person interested in amateur athletics will only live up to the simple rule of "moderation in all things" they will find themselves not only more fit for play but more fit for work. Over eating is one of the most disastrous habits and lack of proper sleep is also very injurious to ones health. The secret of the excellent health enjoyed by the men composing the British army and navy is the regularity of the life they live coupled with a sufficiency of fresh air and regular exercise.

The International Boxing Federation of France will shortly have before them the application of Scandinavian boxers that amateurs taking part in international contests should be allowed payment for actual time lost. The Amateur Boxing Association of England is against the proposal and threatens to withdraw from the federation if it is passed.

PLAYGROUND COMPLETED

Gyro Apparatus Has Been Installed and Wading Pool Constructed; Opens Thursday

The work on the gyro playground and the wading pool at McClymont Park is completed and the children are already using the apparatus which has been installed there. Each evening from two to three hundred children take advantage of the opportunities offered there and enjoy the fun.

The tank has been tested and the water will be turned on for use on Thursday afternoon when the formal opening takes place by the Gyros and when the public are being invited to attend.

A great change has been made in the park. In order to install the apparatus it was necessary to underdrain the land and this has been done by the city and the whole covered with a thin covering of gravel.

If the city can now continue to clear up the land there a little each year, there will soon be a creditable playground and park that may be enjoyed by the young folks of the city for all time.
